R. H. Wilcox, of Hawley & Wilcox, arrived here this morning. He has visited Independence and Portland. Regarding the Willamette valley, Mr. Wilcox says the farmers have practically abandoned wheat raising and are now raising grasses very extensively. He says the price of wheat is 10 to 15 cents a pound. European orders making the demand.
J. S. VanWinkle met with a severe accident near Heppner a few days ago. He was engaged in sawing wood with his own steam-power saw, when a high pile of wood fell on him and knocked him over onto the saw when it was running. It sawed his face badly and knocked out several teeth, and his left arm was nearly severed. His life was despaired of at first, but later accounts give hopes for his recovery. The injured man is a brother of Frank J. VanWinkle, of Port Angeles, Wash., formerly of Weston.
Hallowe'en came and went without much recognition so far as the performance of pranks is concerned in Pendleton. Very few acts of wantonness are reported, and the police were not required to make any arrests. Some of the lumber was removed from the building in course of erection by Mrs. W. S. Nelson at the corner of Post and Webb streets, and John Baker's front gate, across the street from the above mentioned new residence was taken. A few other gates were moved. These are the only things reported, which would indicate that boys are becoming better, more sensible, or that they are too busy for such foolish pranks.

HEPPNER'S OLD MILL.
Has Been Torn Away to Make Room for a New One.
The last vestige of the old original first flouring mill in Heppner, Or., has now disappeared, having been torn away to make room for the new warehouse which Manager Houston has filled up with wheat. The new mill is a complete institution, run by either steam or water, having both powers, and with its modern machinery can make the best flour in the world. When a man takes a sack of Heppner flour into the bosom of his family, he takes a friend who will do him good, says the Gazette, of Heppner, Or. The old mill was built by Mr. Beagle a quarter of a century ago. In 1875 it was bought by Denis de Forte, better known as "Denny the Frenchman," who bought it just to have some business so that his rich father would send him some money from France. Denny had a few sacks of the hickory and rawhide machinery pulled out, and remarked: "Goody! Never did I ever see such things like that before! I will send them to the Paris Expo-si-shon! Half a dozen years later the Heppner flouring mill had new life breathed into it when Jim Sperry rebuilt and enlarged it at a cost of $35,000, and the home company now owning it has spared no expense in keeping it in good condition to turn out a superior grade of flour and mill products, all made from wheat grown right here at home.

Car of Plovers.
W. H. Jones will receive about the 4th of this month a carload of Oliver plows, chilled and steel. In the car are a lot of all kinds of extras for the Oliver plows. It is a well-known fact that everywhere a plow is used, Oliver plows are the standard. The reputation of the firm is at stake when they turn out a plow, so they are sure it is all right before it leaves the factory. Mr. Jones also has a large line of backs, buggies and wagons.

HOW WILL UMATILLA COUNTY VOTE?

CHAIRMAN RALEY'S PREDICTION.

Col. J. H. Raley, chairman of the democratic central committee, when asked today by the East Oregonian to forecast the result in Umatilla county, said:
"I believe the county will give from 100 to 150 for W. J. Bryan. It is only a guess, at best, as neither party has made a careful canvass."

CHAIRMAN VINCENT'S PREDICTION.

Dr. F. W. Vincent, chairman of the republican county central committee, when asked today by the East Oregonian to forecast the result in Umatilla county, said:
"Two hundred for the republican ticket would be my guess on the county this fall. That is what might be expected, I think, though no one knows."

FIREMEN'S MASQUERADE DANCE.

Party Given by Alert Hose Company Was a Great Success

Probably 250 ladies and gentlemen availed themselves of the opportunity afforded through the efforts of Alert Hose company and attended the masquerade dance in Armory hall last evening. Of that number there were 100 or so masked, and some picturesque costumes were noted. The cakewalk was declared off. Kirkman's orchestra furnished its usual flow of gilled music.

Glen Bashee and Joe Noll, assisted by Mrs. Bashee and Mrs. Beagle, were inspection committee to take the names of the maskers and characters represented. Howard Light and Elmer Turner had charge of the door. Ed Dupuis, Corrie Hays and Dean Shull were floor managers. All the committees did commendable work.

Wm. Potts, of the Helix country, is in town today.

Alva Pierce, of Wallula, is a visitor in Pendleton.

Miss Edie Frazier has returned from a visit to Portland.

Mrs. Susan Welch returned this morning from Portland.

L. M. Huson, of the Helix farmer, is in town today on business and to discuss political matters.

Joe Klein came home this morning from Portland, where he went to see his son who is in a hospital with an injured eye.

J. P. O'Brien, superintendent of the O. R. & N., came in this morning in his private car from La Grande, and left for minutes laterward on the line toward Spokane.

W. H. Beyer, of Adams, a well known blacksmith, is here today. He contemplates making some extensive improvements in his shop to accommodate a rapidly increasing patronage.

Miss Bessie Richardson and Mrs. G. W. Simonton will leave tonight for Portland to spend the winter. They had intended to leave last night, but were unavoidably detained here another day.

M. V. Fletcher, a conductor on the W. & C. R. railroad, who formerly had his run between Pendleton and Pasco, but who is now running between Walla Walla and Pasco, has been visiting here this week.

Miss Corbi Raley arrived home Wednesday evening via the O. R. & N. from a summer spent in Europe and the British Isles. During October she visited in the East, spending a part of the month with Miss Mary Grady, at Joliet, Illinois, with whom and several others she made the tour of the European continent. Miss Raley will remain in Pendleton this winter, her mother and she having rooms at the home of Mrs. A. W. Nye, on Water street.

SAN SHAW INSANE

Actor and Manager Well Known in Pendleton Demented in Iowa.

Of San P. Shaw, well known here and in the inland Empire as an actor and manager of the San P. Shaw Co., the Tuesday Union, of Albia, Iowa, on October 23 said:

"We noted in our last Saturday's issue that San Shaw had gone to San Francisco, Calif., via Kansas City, Mo. We are now pained to state that he became demented and was brought back to Albia on last Friday morning. His trouble is due to nervous prostration. He was taken here by the insane commissioners yesterday morning, and they had him sent to the asylum at Mt. Pleasant. It is one of the saddest cases within our knowledge."

Mr. Shaw has been in Pendleton half a dozen times and has visited every good theater town in Eastern Oregon and Washington. He was personally well liked and an actor of no mean parts.
