Costs you nothing to look And but little to buy.
You're safe in letting us take your measure.

termined to close the schools, both public and parochial.

Adjutant General Corbin, has started a movement to induce congress to remove from the statute books a law that makes an unjust discrimination against West Pointers in the army.

Mrs. James W. Smith, just returned from Cook's inlet, Alaska, says that fully half of the thousand Indians in that section, comprising five tribes, are slowly dying of starvation.

John A. Russell, of Elgin, Ill., who is home on a vacation, has given in his resignation as attorney-general of Porto Rico on account of personal business that demands his attention.

Senator Davis' medical attendant issued the following bulletin Sunday night: "After a good night Senator Davis seemed stronger. He is rather restless, but his temperature and pulse are both good."

Thomas Owens, district attorney, of Muskego, I. T., shot and fatally wounded Noah Watts Sunday, two bullets taking effect in the breast.
Both are young men. Owens claims self-defense.

Democratic Governor-elect W. S.
Jennings has been informed that his cousin, W. J. Bryan, will visit him at his home in Brooksville, Fla., and be present at the inauguration at Tallahassee in January.

Admiral Crowningshield, chief of the navigation bureau, reports that the present personnel of the navy would form barely one-fourth of the total establishment necessary to fight a first-class European power.

The Madrid papers publish a letter from Don Carlos, addressed to the Carlist general Moore, in which the pretender protests against the present movement as "contrary to instruction" and characterizing the authors of the rising as "men without conscience."

The total expenditure by the government on account of the Indian services

Commissioner of Indian Affairs William

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

Mark Rutherford is under arrest at Vale, Malheur county, upon the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon upon the person of Herbert Ordord.

The executive board of The Dalles carnival has donated $500 of the surplus funds to the Driving Association, to be used in paying for the construction of the park.

Philip Mutschler, ex-state treasurer of Oregon, has returned with Mrs.
Mutschler, to their home at Portland from a trip to Honolulu. He liked what he saw in the Hawaiian islands.

William Boyden, a Scotshman, was placed under arrest in Portland for "raising seven different kinds of trouble" in his family. He explained his actions by saying that his mother-in-law threw a pan of dish water in his face.

J. L. Carson, well known sheep dealer of Wyoming, who intended to buy 6000 or 7000 head of lambs this fall in Eastern Oregon, has given up all hopes of making any purchases, as he says the Oregon sheep men have put their flocks away beyond his reach.

Ex-Senator John L. Wilson formally announced Saturday night at Spokane that he would not seek political office again in state of Washington; that he would no longer be found among the leaders of his party; that he would return to the ranks of the workers, realizing that his term of usefulness as a leader was over. With tears in his eyes he concluded a short speech by hilding a political ally with a small cigarette of his chief assistants.

Of the republicans whose terms will expire at that time, Senators Allison of Iowa, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Hansbrough of North Dakota, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Perkins of California, Platt of Connecticut, Ross of Vermont, Simon of Oregon and Spencer of Wisconsin are practically certainly to be succeeded by republicans.

There is very little doubt that Senators Fairbanks of Indiana, Foraker of Ohio, Mason of Illinois and Platt of New York will also be succeeded by republicans. Senator Dibble of Kentucky and Pritchett of North Carolina are practically sure to be succeeded by democrats.

Changes in the Senate.

Most interest centers in the changes caused by the McKinley landslide in the make-up of the senate. There are eighty-six senators in the present assembly, with vacancies to fill by Montana, Delaware, Utah and Pennsylvania. Of the present senate the republicans hold fifty members, while the democrats, populists and fusionists have a combined strength of thirty-eight.

The corrected returns show that the republicans will gain four or five more senators, giving the republican wing a clear majority of at least sixteen against the opposition. The terms of thirty senators will expire March 3, 1901, of whom sixteen are republicans, nine democrats, two populists, one independent, one fusionist and one silver republican.

Of the republicans whose terms will
expire at that time, Senators Allison
of Iowa, Gallinger of New Hampshire,
Hansbrough of North Dakota,
Penrose of Pennsylvania, Perkins of
of Vermont, Simon of Oregon and Spencer of Wisconsin are practically
certainly to be succeeded by republicans.

There is very little doubt that Senators
Fairbanks of Indiana, Foraker of Ohio,
Mason of Illinois and Platt of New York will also be succeeded by republicans. Senator Dibble of Ken-
are practically sure to be succeeded
by democrats.

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

The Democrats Are Greatly in the Minority.

HENDERSON TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Few, If Any, of Those in Authority in the Lower House Will Be Disturbed—Re-publicans Have 55 Majority.

WASHINGTTON, Nov. 13.—With augmented majorities the republican members of the senate and house representatives in the fifty-seventh congress will be enabled to carry through and enact needed legislation without fear of democratic filibustering. The completion of both branches of the present congress is sufficiently close to admit of closed floor contests such as as transpired when the Porto Rico bill was the issue. But the next congress will be invulnerable in its republicanism, and unless there is a triumphant reversal of popular sentiment and votes of the republican supremacy is bound to be preserved for at least six years.

Many familiar faces and legislators familiar to the public will be seen in the new Congress.

RUSSIAN HORRORS IN CHINA.

Thousands of Chinese Drowned in the Amur River.

London, Nov. 13.—The Globe prints

Russians of the Chinese along the Chinese were drowned at Marxo, two thousand at Rabi, and eight thousand around Blagoveshchensk.

Navigation in the river was made almost impossible, by the boat
