

Stylish, Serviceable and Cheap compared with others'

Three Dollar Lines.

CLEAVER BROS.
The Boot and Shoe Men.

805 Main Street, Pendleton, Oregon

BREVITIES.

Badley & Zehner, choice cigars. Bulk sweet mixed pickles, and olives. White House. Maple syrup, molasses, and sorghum in bulk at Demott's. Eastern hams and bacon at Demott's, very finest quality. It takes nice sweet cider to make nice meat. Demott has it. Plenty of nice ducks, chickens and geese at Demott's, dressed or alive. Sweet cider. Bring in your fall and get something good. White House. Ice cream, chocolates, Candy Dutton's own make. They are awfully nice. Why pay $12 to $20 for a set of teeth, when you can get the very best at Dr. Whitaker for $8. Soule Bros., piano tuners of Portland, are in the city for a few days only. Leave orders at postoffice. The best teeth cut the dentist $1.70 per set, and plate costs 10c and Whitaker charges $8 for set and guaranteed. Smokers' delight, 12 1/2-cent El Sidelo, Henry the Fourth and Charles the Great, for 10 cents, at Mark Patton's cigar store. Newly-furnished rooms, electric lights, at the Columbia. F. N. Schenpp, proprietor, middle of the block, between Webb and Alta streets, on Main. If you have a house to paint or a room to paper, a picture to frame, a little plumbing to be looked after go and see C. Sharp, opera house block, Court street. After disposing of half my stock to Mr. A. M. Fletcher I will be found at my new shop at my residence, continuing to paint houses and hang paper. Best of work guaranteed. Sign and carriage work a specialty. Chas. Lane.

Tallman & Co.

Leading Druggists and dealers in School Supplies

Extra fine line of Ladies' Fashionable Stationery Latest in fold and tint.

Cor. Main and Alta St. Pendleton

Are your feet cold?

Come in and see the elegant line of warm footwear we have in stock. All kinds and sizes of leather lined, heavy sole shoes for winter wear.

The Peoples Warehouse

SHOE STORE.

716 Main Street, Pendleton, Oregon.

Try Palmolive soap. White House. Unesda biscuits and ginger wafers. White House. Cleaver Bros.' Dry Goods Co., closing out sale for dry goods. See our window of pickles; they are cheap. White House. Best set teeth $8, at Dr. Whitaker's, warranted and guaranteed. Mine pies from our own make of nice meat. The Leazer Bakery. Henry Harper found the lost book advertised in the East Oregonian Monday. Every dollar's worth of dry goods to be closed out. Cleaver Bros.' Dry Goods Co. All kind of fancy lunch goods. Imported and domestic cheese. The Leazer Bakery. The Cleaver Bros.' Dry Goods Co. have decided to close out every dollar's worth of dry goods. Finest hams and lard on the market. Home product; try it, its guaranteed. Schwarz & Grenlich. Hose company No. 5 will meet tonight, at the council rooms, at 8 o'clock, on important business. Mrs. Campbell will have a special sale of pattern and trimmed hats for one week, commencing Wednesday. Drummers sample line of 100 chairs at 25 cent off regular price. New medals, Bibles and toys. Noll's. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best liver pills ever made. Easy to take and never gripe. Tallman & Co., leading druggists. Bushee chapter No. 10, O. E. S., will hold a meeting commencing at 7:30 this evening, in Masonic hall. Members are urgently requested to be present. Practical horse shoeing in any style, from little plates for racers to heavy shoes for draft horses. All work guaranteed. Shop with W. L. Zeigler, old Folsom stand. Give me a call. Arthur Glover. Anton Nolte has placed a Boston water purifier at one end of his bar. It is not only an ornament, but of great benefit as a health-retainer. The water filtered through this purifier is rendered free from all disease germs. The Two-Step society will give a dance in Armory hall on Thursday evening, to which invitations have been sent out. The Two-Step parties are very popular with Pendleton dancers and are without exception very pleasing events. Mr. Wm. H. Street, of Pendleton, has resigned his position as Eastern Oregon representative of the United Mutual Aid Society, of Portland. All further business of the society will be conducted by Mr. L. G. Frazier, local representative. George Mudgett, brother-in-law of the late J. Henry Miller, of Pendleton, was re-elected treasurer of Spokane county, at the late election, by a majority over his opponent of only 10 votes, as shown by the official canvass. Governor Rogers for re-election carried the county by 1342 votes. The dance of the Pioneers of the Pacific, in LaDow hall next Wednesday evening, promises to be largely attended. All who go will have a good time. Kirkman's orchestra will furnish the music. Refreshments will be served. A ticket, admitting lady and gentleman to dance and supper, 75 cents. This was the day for Judge Ellis to file his opinion in the case of W. S. Byers vs. G. W. Rigby et al, on demurrer of James A. Fee and Thomas Thompson, two of the defendants. Owing to the fact that certain papers had not been filed, the opinion has not been formulated. Many people worry because they believe they have heart disease. The chances are that their hearts are all right but their stomachs are unable to digest food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and prevents the formation of gas which makes the stomach press against the heart. It will cure every form of indigestion. Tallman & Co., leading druggists. The events at the shooting grounds next Sunday will be of more than usual interest. Matches will be shot with both rifles and shotguns and targets and live birds. Ten bluebirds constitute one target, the expense of which is 20 cents to outsiders, 10 cents to members. Matches will be shot for turkeys and geese. Those who wish to get a bird for Thanksgiving will here find the opportunity.

PERSONAL MENTION.
W. H. Babb and James Taylor, of Echo, are in Pendleton. Judge W. R. Ellis arrived from Heppner this morning and is holding a session of circuit court. Charles R. Dutton and family are expected home from a visit to Michigan by the early days of December. Mark Moorhouse has resigned his position with the Tribune and is now in the High School and will graduate next spring. Clarence Bowsby returned Sunday evening from Wilbur, whether he had gone on horseback with Ben F. Brown, the stockman. Horace Walker, county commissioner, will leave this evening on the Cannonball train of the W. & C. R. Railway for his home at Helix. Jacob Lamb, who sold his grocery stock to the Standard Grocery company, will remain in Pendleton with his family until next spring. D. R. Kirk, W. H. Bernard, G. W. Scribner, and J. R. Killgore, of Weston, are registered at the St. George. They are attending circuit court. T. G. Montgomery, of Montgomery, Ore., proprietor of the Helix Lumber yard, is in the city and reports business good in lumber, wood and coal. Charles Ferguson, who has been stationed at Cayuse, on the O. R. & N., during the wheat season, returned today to Athena after having spent a few days in Pendleton. C. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

PARISH RECEPTION DAY.
A Pleasant Gathering of Church of Redeemer People. Between 250 and 300 people, ministers and friends of the parish of the Church of the Redeemer, were present at the reception in LaDow society rooms last evening. Rt. Rev. L. Wistar Morris, bishop of this diocese, was present. The reception proper was held in the lodge room. Refreshments were served under charge of the young ladies of St. Augustus guild, connected with the church. The following named constituted the committee having the reception in charge: Mrs. R. G. Thompson and Mrs. T. C. Taylor, the Parish Aid Society; Senior Warden, F. H. Clouston, Junior Warden John T. Lambirth, and Vestryman John E. Robinson. It is proposed to make this reception an annual event upon the recurrence of the anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Church of the Redeemer. The affair last evening was most successful in every way and was greatly enjoyed.

Two Fifty Dollar Dogs. Fred Crawford and Ab Ogg received two fox terrier female dogs from Ironton, Ohio, Monday. They are worth $50 each, and are very highly bred animals. The sire of the dogs was Cherokee Brick, whose sire was Wagsan Actor, of Louisville, Ky. The owner of Cherokee Brick retained an offer of $300 for him. Fred Crawford's dog is named Lawrence Queen and Ab Ogg's dog Liberty Bell in the registry book. Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 cents and 50 cents.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.

CO. E. Bowsby left for Wilbur this morning, to investigate more fully the mysterious absence for several days of his son, Jesse E. Bowsby, who was found last Saturday. W. H. Street and family have secured one of Walter S. Bowman's houses on Anra street, between Alta and Court streets, and will occupy it as a residence during the winter. George H. Williams, of Portland, and of national fame, is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. He is here as counsel for the Oregon Land & Construction company in one case, and for W. E. Byers in another case. John C. Leasure arrived in Pendleton at 4 o'clock this morning on the delayed train from Baker City. He will remain several days, being interested in cases before circuit court. He is a guest at Hotel Pendleton. James L. Lindsey, the horseman, who makes his home at Alba has been in Pendleton for a few days and left this morning for Portland, to consider himself a sick man with lung trouble, and leaves for the purpose of consulting a specialist. I. W. Sones, of Liberty Center, Iowa, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from Helix, where he has been for the last month visiting his brother, P., and I. S. Sones. During his stay the three took a hunt in Willamette county and were very successful in bagging big game. John E. Lathrop, of the East Oregonian, who is in Dr. Cropp's hospital at Walla Walla, according to advices "is not yet very sick, but is quite weak, and has severe pains in his head. The doctor thinks he may be able to break the fever and keep him from a protracted spell of sickness." Charles Dunn, Deputy Sheriff J. G. Bailey and Charles H. Carter went to Athena this morning. The first mentioned went for the purpose of undergoing a preliminary hearing on a charge of grand larceny, being accused of having stolen a cow, the property of Hagen Brothers. Mrs. C. Van Dusen was joined here by Mrs. Rose, McCreedy, of Palouse, and the two left Monday for Leadville and Denver, Colo. Mrs. McCroskey is a member of the finance committee of the Women of Woolerart, which will meet at Leadville. Mrs. Van Orsdall is grand guardian of the order, and has business both at Leadville and Denver. She will be absent at least a couple of weeks. James Lehman left today for Leliana springs with a bundle of literature for Billy Williams, the only man in camp, who will remain during the winter. Mr. Lehman expects to return to Pendleton within a few days. On his last trip down, arriving here Saturday, he was accompanied by Carl Lousten, known to many as "Big Charley," who will remain in Pendleton during the winter. T. P. Gilliland, county commissioner, left for his home near Ukiah this afternoon by private conveyance. He will finish putting up hay for his cattle this week, and will return to Pendleton next Monday to join the directors of the county court and Assessor Baran who will leave that evening for Portland to attend an important meeting in that city Tuesday, November 20, to equalize the property values for assessment purposes throughout the state.