The Hay-Panefote treaty seems to have been made a stumbling-block in the way of the Nicaragua canal legislation. It is not known definitely what the administration will do, but there is every probability that it wants the impression to go forth that until the Hay-Panefote treaty is ratified no Nicaragua canal bill will be signed.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

The tenth annual meeting of the Oregon Bar Association occurred in Portland Monday.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mrs. E. E. Kelly, of Drums, O., writes: "I had become so feeble in my old age, I would break out in little white pustules, which would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicinal soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Haggard, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the Breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. set his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

FRENCH AWAIT KRUGER

The Cruiser Gelderland, With Him on Board, is Sighted.

TO REACH MARSEILLES THIS EVENING

The Irish Would Honor Him if England Did Not Wield a Mailed Fist Over That Brave People—Wessels Talks.

Marseilles, Nov. 21.—Early this morning the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, with President Kruger on board, had not been sighted. It is believed the vessel will not arrive until late this afternoon and may be held outside of this port until tomorrow, owing to a heavy storm which prevails. Torrents of rain fell here this morning and the streets are deserted. The decorations have all been removed except those at the landing on the stage on which the welcome to Kruger is to be given.

Lovely, Fisher and Strobler, Boer representatives, attempted to get to sea in a launch this morning to meet Don Paul, but the little vessel almost swamped and was compelled to return.

The Gelderland Sighted. Marseilles, Nov. 21.—The cruiser Gelderland was sighted off Cape Cebot, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and she cannot make Marseilles before this evening. The banquet in honor of President Kruger will, therefore, be postponed until tomorrow. He is expected to spend the night aboard the Gelderland.

Great Enthusiasm Prevails. Marseilles, Nov. 21.—Early in the afternoon the stern abated and the quays were quickly crowded with people. All Englishmen in Marseilles have left the town for the day at least. The police and military arrangements are very elaborate. Still expected that the reception will be postponed until tomorrow.

Gelderland's Machinery Damaged. Marseilles, Nov. 21.—Now reported that the Gelderland's machinery is damaged.

The Cry of Ireland. A Paris signed article by Maude Gonne for the New York Journal says: "More humiliation and more sorrow is added to Ireland's overflowing cup of bitterness in that because England possesses the soil of Ireland she may not welcome President Kruger to our midst. The hearts of the Irish people go out to him in passionate admiration. He is the symbol of that nation which is doing what Ireland longs and hopes to do, fighting against the criminal of the world, the oppressor of the weak, the British empire."

Would Welcome Kruger. "No man living, would receive such a welcome in Ireland as Kruger were it possible for him to land there, except perhaps General DeWet, Louis Botha, President Steyn, or our brave countryman, Mayor MacBride, who commanded the Irish brigade of Dublin, citizens who snatched the gala carriage of Lord Mayor Pile for receiving the Queen and getting a title.

Ireland would have received Kruger with a new jubilation enthusiasm and 30,000 little children of Dublin, who refused to go to the queen's treat, but marched the streets cheering for the Boers would have formed a bright guard of honor for the venerable president.

Arthur Griffith, editor of the United Irishman, who heads a delegation to present an address of sympathy from the people of Ireland to Kruger, writes me that the number of addresses for transmission is most satisfactory. All towns vie in showing sympathy.

The Women of Ireland. "Among the addresses is one from the women of Ireland, whose signatures fill a large volume. "They say: "Hope is all that is left us. But England cannot destroy the hope that one day our nation, like yours, shall have arms for our common enemy. We pray each day that deliverance for your people and for ours is near at hand."

This feeling of the great mass of the Irish people is the sentiment which inspires most of the addresses to Kruger. We know our day of deliverance will come the day England's policy of oppression brings her into conflict with some great power. Then if we see the opportunity we shall be free. It will be our salvation, as it will assuredly be the salvation of the Transvaal republic.

"If we do not take advantage of the opportunity when it comes we deserve to be slaves and vanish off the face of the earth."

President Wessels Talks. President Wessels of the Orange Free State Volksraad, who has just arrived in Paris, said to a correspondent: "When President Kruger arrives and explains the objects of his visit, the Transvaal Republic will leap for joy. It is the usual English falsehood which says he is coming for the purpose of escaping with the Transvaal treasure. The state funds have been handed to general Schalk-burger for war purposes. War cannot be carried on without funds, although our soldiers help themselves pretty well to English guns, ammunition and provisions.

President Kruger knows the war can be carried on indefinitely. The republics are not dead. The most involved complications may arise in Europe any day. Then the English have got to get out of our country. The times are helping us. The English soldiers are dying like flies. Our men will fight as long as they have ammunition, which will be as long as an English army is left from which to take it.

"Why should we not fight since we have 15,000 picked sharpshooters in the field? They cannot be cornered. Men who serve under DeWet and Botha live on horseback and sleep beside the horses. The cowboys of Western America are the nearest approach to them."

ACTING PRESIDENT DEAD. Died of Wounds in the Military Hospital at Johannesburg. Cape Town, Nov. 21.—It is reported here that Schalkburger, who was appointed president of the Transvaal in

LIFE AND PROPERTY TAKEN

Storm Sweeps Over Mississippi and Tennessee.

AT LEAST FIFTEEN DEAD AT COLUMBIA

Houses, Stores and College Buildings in the Path of the Storm Blown Down. Some Miraculous Escapes.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Reports from the storm stricken sections of Mississippi and Tennessee are coming in slowly. All reports indicate, however, that the first reports of loss of life and property are not exaggerated. A telephone message from Columbia last night, saying that fifteen persons were killed in that vicinity has not yet been confirmed.

In Williamson county, near Franklin, A. H. Settle's residence was destroyed and his son Hugh was badly hurt. At Bixley's store three negroes were killed and the store and house destroyed. At Laverne, the college building was levelled, but eleven persons escaped from the building uninjured.

Loss of Life at Columbia. Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Further news from Columbia says it is feared more are killed than fifteen as it is reported. The damage is greatest in the negro section.

The Killed Number 37. Nashville, Nov. 21.—A late bulletin says: Killed in Columbia fifteen whites and twenty-two colored. Much damage was done in Manry county.

Loss of Life at Lulu. Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Herando and Tunya, Mississippi, have been heard from and are unharmed. They were reported in the path of the storm. At Lulu, Mississippi, six are known to have been killed and several injured. The home of a man named Thomas is scattered over a mile of country and six inmates perished. The home adjoining is wrecked and four injured. Five negroes and a white man near Tunya were instantly killed. At Nolinsville, Tennessee, the killed are: Mrs. Bramlett, Nancy, James Hampton and baby Christian.

Killed and Injured at Loves. Memphis, Nov. 21.—At Loves, Miss., several people were injured by yesterday's cyclone and J. L. Doney was killed. The telegraph is down south to Grenada and La Grange.

Storm at Laverne. Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 21.—The Nashville & Chattanooga station depot and its other houses were demolished by a tornado last night at Laverne, 95 miles south of here. More than a mile of telephone and telegraph wires were destroyed and details are meagre but it is known that a man named Robertson and his child were instantly killed and the section hoisted injured.

Tornado in Arkansas and Texas. Dallas, Nov. 21.—A tornado is reported as having passed over Southwestern Arkansas and the extreme eastern part of Texas, doing much property damage near Clarendon and Helena. It is feared a loss of life has occurred. Communication is impossible for the present with the stricken section.

Corn Corner in Chicago. Chicago, Nov. 21.—Phillip's corner in corn advanced the price one cent a bushel this morning. But when the corn "Napoleon" sold a lot at 42 1/2 cents a bag followed of one cent.

Price Jumps Up. Chicago, Nov. 21.—Before today's session of the exchange closed corn jumped to 45 cents. It is believed the price will be put up to sixty or seventy-five cents.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

ON A CROWDED STREET IN NEW YORK SHOOTING OCCURS.

At First it Was Thought Man Intended to Kill Woman and Shot Boy. New York, Nov. 21.—At the Broad street entrance to the stock exchange this morning, Joseph Newman, a bartender, drew a revolver and fired three shots at a woman, supposed to be his wife, but missed her. One bullet seriously wounded John Daly, a messenger boy. Newman then drained a bottle of carbonic acid, dying within five minutes. Wall street was crowded at the time and a semi-panic resulted from the shooting.

Later Developments. New York, Nov. 21.—Later developments show that Newman intentionally shot the messenger, Daly, and that the woman was only a spectator. Newman had befriended the boy but the latter had left him for some strong reason and refused to return to his home.

A Fight in the Pan. Tien Tsin, Nov. 21.—A plan to attack the German quarter of Tien Tsin Monday night was discovered by German officers. Troops were ordered to hold themselves in readiness for action in an instant's notice. No attack was made. The Chinese here say it is learned large bodies of boxers are moving on Peking and Tien Tsin. The report is not credited.

The Saving of Money by the use of Royal Baking Powder is considerable. Royal is economical, because it possesses more leavening power and goes further.

Royal saves also because it always makes fine, light, sweet food; never wastes good flour; butter and eggs.

More important still is the saving in health. Royal Baking Powder adds anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food.

There is no baking powder so economical in practical use, no matter how little others may cost, as the Royal

Imitation baking powders almost invariably contain alum. Alum makes the food unwholesome.
