WHERE IS LINNIE KIDWELL.

A Walla Walla Young Woman is Missing.

Walla Walla, Nov. 27.—The family of W. A. Stuart of this city, is again in grief. But a few months ago the entire community was plunged into great excitement by the awful treatment of the youngest daughter, Emma Kidwell, suffered at the hands of Ed Sutherland. Now the elder daughter, Linnie Kidwell, has caused her parents great anxiety by her sudden disappearance from home.

The Kidwell girl is 17 years old and is lame. During the past few months she had formed close friendship with a man by the name of Jack Tye, aged about 45 years. It is said that Tye has had a very checkered career and when this report reached the ears of Mr. Stuart, the girl was forbidden keeping company with the man. About four weeks ago Tye went to Pendleton and remained there until last Saturday night when he returned to Walla Walla.

It is thought by the authorities he arranged with the girl to elope with him and that they are now in Pendleton. A young waiter who has been seen with Tye frequently is supposed by Mr. Stuart to have aided the man in eloping with Miss Kidwell.

The Pendleton police have been on the lookout for the couple but have not succeeded in locating them. They are quite confident they have not been in Pendleton together. W. A. Stuart, the step-father of the young woman, arrived on this afternoon's train and also made a search for them, but without result.

General Agent for Eastern Oregon.

William H. Street, of this city, has been appointed general agent of Eastern Oregon and Washington of the Pacific Fraternal society, of Portland, Oregon. The object of this society is to furnish to its members a weekly indemnity for loss of time by reason of sickness or accidents, also, to those who may desire it, a funeral benefit may be added for a small additional cost. Men and women between the ages of 15 and 60 are eligible, provided they be of good moral character, and their application shows them to be in good health.

Mr. Street also represents in this field the Smith-Premier typewriter and will be pleased to show samples of machines Nos. 2, 4 and 6, which he has in his office at the stock exchange building, on Court street.

Monument correspondence Long Creek Ranger: The Misses Beatrice and Lina Brierly went to Pendleton Sunday, where they will visit their sister, Mrs. J. Garrett. They will also stop here and visit their brother, Thos. Brierly. They were accompanied to Heppner by C. Wilson and Mrs. Welch, a daughter of W. G. Allen, who will return to her home in Silver, Wash.

Mrs. E. T. Weathered, of Portland, one of the seven members appointed from T. T. feet as commissioners to the Pan-American exposition to be given at Buffalo next year, will arrive in Pendleton Wednesday morning. The prominent business men of the city will be interviewed as to the best means to be adopted to have Oregon's resources properly brought to the attention of the world at large. Hon. L. Alexander, of this city, is a commissioner, and will aid the movement by precept and example.

Accused of Stealing a Red Cow From Pomeroy.

Ike Rudbeck had his hearing this forenoon before Justice Fitz Gerald, being charged with cattle stealing, specifically, for having stolen a red cow from Pomeroy, Ind., and taking it to Pendleton last night and will remain here during the winter. He states that Skagway has had a prosperous fall and that the people there who formerly resided in Pendleton are in good health and doing well.

"The White Pass railroad," said Mr. Matlock, "extends 100 miles northeast from Skagway on the way toward Dawson. The gross receipts of the road for the month of September were $1,160,000, while the operating expenses were only $150,000. I don't if there is a railroad in the world that is as good a paying investment as the White Pass railroad."

HOME FOR WINTER.

W. F. Matlock arrived in Pendleton this morning.

W. F. Matlock reached Portland Saturday evening on his return from Skagway and after spending a couple of days there on business came on to Pendleton last night and will remain here during the winter. He states that Skagway has had a prosperous fall and that the people there who formerly resided in Pendleton are in good health and doing well.
