The dancing party given in Lallo by the Elks last evening was one of those delightful affairs in which participation leaves pleasant memories. The music by the Irvine orchestra of Walla Walla was entrancing, a continual source of joy to the devotees of Terpsichore. The ballroom was comfortably filled while others indulged in card-playing and other amusements in the lodge room. Success marked every feature of the function.

GAME AT GOLDENDALE.

Victorious Pendleton Academy Football Team Will Be Home Tonight.

Pendleton academy football team won over Goldendale (Wash.) academy on the grounds of the latter Thursday afternoon, by a score of 12 to 0. In a game that was well contested, Pendleton made a touchdown and kicked goal in the first half within four minutes after commencement of play, and the first half closed with a score of 8 to 0 in favor of Pendleton academy. In the second half Goldendale got a touchdown after 20 minutes play, but failed to kick goal. Pendleton made another touchdown and kicked goal and that left the score 12 to 3 in favor of Pendleton academy. The victors will arrive on this evening's train from the west and will be met at the depot by such a crowd of football enthusiasts as well crowd the platform.

RAY HOPPER BURIED.

Victim of Drowning Accident Laid to Rest in Olney Cemetery.

Little Ray Hopper, the victim of the drowning accident of Wednesday evening, was laid to rest in Olney cemetery this afternoon. Funeral services conducted by Rev. W. E. Potwine were held at the Church of the Redeemer. Mrs. Edith Hopper, mother of the boy, was present, but the father, Beaugard Hopper, failed to appear. He resides down the river 12 miles from Pendleton. News of the accident was sent to him Wednesday night, but it is thought that he was not at home, probably off to the mountains after wood, so that he may not have heard of the death up to the present.

BROKE ITS NECK.

A Horse Ridden by O. J. Stockdale Had a Fatal Fall.

O. J. Stockdale and Milton Stockdale took a band of 50 horses out to the Juniper country Thanksgiving day for Alex Drysdale, there to be pastured on Al Chinn's farm. As they were returning in the afternoon, the horse ridden by O. J. Stockdale fell while turning a corner and broke its neck short off. The rider was caught under the horse and had his left leg badly bruised. Milton Stockdale had to pull the horse off his brother, before he could get out of the wreck. Joe Connolly happened to drive along at that time, and he took the injured man in the buggy with him and brought him to Pendleton.
