"TENNESSEE'S PARDNER" TONIGHT.

Play Full of Human Interest and Tender Sentiment.

The successful playwright is one who properly blends the elements of pathos and comedy. The author of "Tennessee's Pardner" has done his work successfully and a more pleasing dramatic entertainment has not been seen on the stage for a long time. It is a play full of human interest, tender sentiment, manly spirit and wholesome comedy. Those who fancy "Tennessee's Pardner" a sort of wild and woolly, lurid, Western melodrama will find themselves agreeably deceived by a series of stage pictures as unique and delightful as those described in Bret Harte's sketches. This is the fourth successive season's tour of the attraction, under Arthur C. Aiston's management, and the story of the play is too well known for a detailed description. The acting company is the same that has been identified with the success of the performance in former seasons and the production is assured a hearty reception when it appears at the Frazer this Thursday evening, December 6.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grove of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

COMING TO THE FRAZER.

Richard Golden in "Old Jed Prouty" Next Monday Night.

Richard Golden's beautiful story, "Old Jed Prouty," will be the attraction Monday, December 10. The presentation will be in the hands of a cast that will do full justice to the quaint and quiet characters contained in the play. Concerning the star, who is unknown to most of our theater goers, the Toledo Blade of September 14, 1900, says:

"Richard Golden is the best delineator on the stage today of the down east Yankee, and this is said with a full knowledge of the merit of James A. Herne and Denman Thompson. He has a play that is much better than The Old Homestead in its delineation of country life and it is more artistic in its illustrations of certain characters than Shore Acres.

"Old Jed Prouty is a beautiful play and with Mr. Golden in the leading part it becomes one of the pleasures of the theatrical season to him who sees it.

"There is no caricature about it. There is not one scene that jars upon the artistic sense. It is altogether pleasurable."

Seats will be on sale Friday morning at Tallman's drug store. Prices are 50c $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at Tallman & Co.'s.

SOFALA HAS ARRIVED.

The British Ship is Now Loading on Puget Sound.

The British ship Sofala, which became famous a couple of years ago on account of leaving Portland with Ed Bentley, son of John M. Bentley, as an impressed seaman, has arrived at a port on the Sound, and will await the storing of a cargo. When Ed Bentley was shanghaied from Portland, the perpetrators thereof thought they would get away with it and nothing would be said about it, but there was such a stir over it that young Bentley was released from the Sofala immediately upon her arrival in England.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

No Sharp Fluctuation Predicted in Near Future for Wheat.

Pendleton, Dec. 6.—The local wheat market is slow and monotonous, with small lots only changing hands. Millers are paying 44c for best red chaff and 45c for bluestem of best grade. Exporters are paying 42½c for red chaff and club. The mills and exporters are dividing the wheat sold, each getting about one-half that is marketed in Pendleton. There is little to warrant the belief that there will be any sharp fluctuation in the price of wheat in this city in the near future. The conflicting reports from Argentina certainly are not indicative of a further decline here. In fact, a good guesser would predict higher rather than lower prices in this section. The basis for this assertion is made upon the price of flour and the perpetual demand of the local mills.

Wheat in Portland.

Portland, Dec. 6.—The Commercial Review, in its issue of today, says of the wheat market:

Wheat continues to weaken here, in sympathy with the steady decline going on in Europe. Local prices have reached a low level, yet in spite of present cheapness the demand cannot be said to have been stimulated thereby. Trading in very inactive, partly owing to difficulty experienced by exporters in placing cargoes on profitable terms, and partly due to small offerings. Wheat remaining unsold appears to be in strong hands, and the prospects are that holders of large parcels will wait until spring, before marketing. Many have confidence that when the present enormous stocks in sight East and in Europe are whittled down by the normal consumptive demand there will be a reaction in prices, and the result will justfy the cost of carrying grain for several months. Prices have fallen several cents per bushel during the week, and Walla Walla is reported to have sold as low as 52c per bushel. We quoted 52½ to 53½c, the latter being given as an extreme on round lots of best shipping grades. Valley is not offered, and whatever business is pasing is for milling account. Bluestem is in fair demand with a 3c margin given above Walla Walla figures. Receipts from Eastern Oregon and Washington continue quite heavy. Shipments continue very steady, both foreign and domestic.

Wheat in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—A comparatively small movement is in progress, there being few sellers at the decline, and no disposition shown by shippers to stimulate trade by bidding up for wheat. Even at the nominal quotation of 95c for good shipping there is said to be no profit in the business; hence exporters are in no mood to operate extensively with a loss staring them in the face. Supplies sufficient to met all wants incurred and required for the near future have been secured, and later operations will be determined by the course of the European markets. At present the inquiry for cargoes to be shipped from here is very slow, and the few bids cabled are rather below the free-on-board cost, freight, insurance and exchange added. The dealings on call are spiritless and the range of fluctuations so narrow as to offer little inducement for operating. The tendency of values has been downwards in sympathy with spot wheat here, and speculative markets east. We quote No. 1 shipping, 95 to 97½c, the latter for a very choice article; milling, 98¾c to $1 per cental.

TEN DOLLARS AND COSTS.

Milton Stockdale Convicted on Charge of Disturbing Religious Meeting.

The trial of William and Milton Stockdale Wednesday afternoon before Justice Fitz Gerald on a charge of disturbing a religious meeting resulted in the acquittal of the former and the discharge of the latter. The testimony of quite a number of witnesses was listened to with earnest attention by a large number of onlookers who had gathered to learn the facts in the case. It was brought out in the testimony that the meetings of the Salvation Army at the corner of Webb and Garden street are frequently interrupted, much to the annoyance of the salvationists. As it appeared that the Stockdale boys on this occasion were together, and that it was the first time that William had ever attended the meetings, he was released. Milton was fined the minimum sum allowed by law, $10 and costs, which was cheerfully paid. T. G. Hailey prosecuted the case vigorously and J. H. Raley defended. Justice Fitz Gerald in passing sentence took occasion to give a warning lecture, as did Mr. Hailey. They stated that the barracks of the Salvation Army was a place of worship the same as if a church of an orthodox denomination, and that any person disturbing the salvationists in their meditations in the future would not be given a fine only, but would receive a jail sentence besides. This prosecution and conviction were to serve as a warning to the boisterous young men of Pendleton that religious meetings in Pendleton were not to be disturbed. Mr. Raley added a few words in the same strain, and thanked the court for the leniency shown on this occasion.

Worse Than War.

Hundreds are killed in war, but hundreds of thousands are killed by consumption. There would be no deaths at all caused by this terrible disease, if people could be made to understand that Shiloh's cough and consumption cure is a sure remedy if taken in the early stages. 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1 a bottle. Druggists will refund the money if a cure is not effected. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

A PRETTY MESS.

Young Man From Indiana Separated From Thirty-Three Dollars.

On the 1st of November a young man named Walter Moyer arrived in Pendleton from Indiana. In his inside pocket in an envelope he had $33, while in another pocket he had 35 cents. He was separated from the $33 in a cold-blooded manner, and allowed to retain the 35 cents. He was on his way to Hoquiam, Wash., where he has a brother, but being stranded has been compelled to linger in Pendleton, which may be a good thing for him in the end. Coming in on the train he made the acquaintance of a couple of strangers, who gave the information away to some of their friends upon arrival here. The young man was inveigled into a saloon on Main street on the night of his arrival and his money taken from him by four men, whom he has since seen and recognized. The city officers were notified, but have been unable to do anything for him as yet. Young Moyer intends to lay his case before Prosecuting Attorney Hailey just as soon as possible, and will make a strenuous endeavor to get his money back and teach a lesson to the four men who got away with the boodle.

HORRIBLE!

Something Nearly Approaching Unto a Dire Tragedy.

A most distressing account of an accident comes from the Cove. A farmer over near that hamlet had a cow that he had cherished in his bosom as it were, since it was a calf. He thought a lot of that cow. Last week, the cow got out of the corral and in her peregrinations about the homestead, discovered an umbrella and a cake of yeast. She ate them both. The yeast fermented and raised the umbrella. The cow died.—La Grande Chronicle.

That cow did not make the most of her opportunities. Instead of giving up the ghost she could have easily imagined herself a balloon and did a little cavorting skyward.

DYNAMITED A BANK.

Robbers Blow Up the Bank at Silverton.

Dynamite used by robbers to open a burglar proof safe wrecked Coolidge & McClane's bank at Silverton, 16 miles northeast of Salem, at an early hour Monday morning and aroused the inhabitants. The cashier, who heard the report, rushed to the bank in time to be shot at by one of the fleeing robbers. Because of the interruption the robbers did not have time to secure any booty.

The bank is a complete wreck, the damage probably reaching $2700. The force of the shock blew the outer door of the safe off its hinges, ruined the bank furniture, smashed two large plate glass windows and blew fragments of the safe across the street. Among the first of the citizens to reach the bank was the cashier. He saw the two men and got near enough to one to order him to halt. For reply the robber sent a bullet in the direction of the cashier. The cashier ran back to his room to get his revolver but the men had made good their escape.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
