Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. Tallman & Co., leading druggist.

Frank Gritman, the artistic window dresser of E. M. Lyons & Co., St. Joe store, has placed before the public one of the most artistic windows ever trimmed in Pendleton. Every one should see it to appreciate it. It is a handkerchief window put in with exquisite taste. The battleship is a picture of itself and should be seen by every one that is in love with art.

John F. Nowlin visited the public schools at Athena Thursday in his capacity as superintendent. He says Prof. Snydam, the principal is a bright young man, well educated and from Michigan. Marvel Watts is first assistant, and Miss Maude Taylor also assists in the high school work. There are eight instructors. The schools are being conducted with modern methods and Athena is to be congratulated upon having such a man as Prof. Snydam at the head of the institution.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. S. Edwards and Miss Donna J. Fisher took out a marriage license today.

Mrs. John Hailey, sr., was somewhat improved in health Thursday, at her home, Boise, Idaho.

Jap Manning of Pilot Rock, was in town today a witness in the Curl-Smith case being heard in probate court.

Mrs. Peter Sones and Mrs. L. D. Smith, of Helix, were in Pendleton Thursday on a Christmas-gift shopping expedition.

R. Alexander, T. J. Tweedy, William Slusher, S. P. Gould and Will Ingram, of this city, went to La Grande to attend the dedication of the Masonic temple there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Skelton, and three children, will leave Pilot Rock soon for Portland to remain six or eight months. Carl Skelton will attend business college there.

Miss Maud Crawford will leave Monday to spend the holidays in Spokane and Reardon. At the latter place she will be the guests of her sisters Mrs. W. H. McCoy and Mrs. H. G. Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young returned this morning from La Grande, where they attended the Masonic ceremonies incident to dedication of the hall there Thursday. Mr. Young states that the services were largely attended and that the banquet following, occupying two hours, was very enjoyable.

H. R. Lorenzen and family arrived in Pendleton over the O. R. & N. and Union Pacific, Thursday morning, from Alvord, Iowa, to make their future home here. Mr. Lorenzen has rented the Mrs. Fix-Thompson farm, north of Pendleton, and will become one of the prosperous, progressive farmers of Umatilla county. He is a brother of Henry Lorenzen, the well known farmer.

LANDSLIDE IMPEDES TRAVEL.

O. R. & N. Track is Obstructed West of Bonneville.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock on Thursday evening, December 20, a large quantity of land came down from the mountain side "like a wolf on the fold" about four miles west of Bonneville and covered the O. R. & N. track to a depth of several feet. This caused a delay to travel. No. 3, which went west through Pendleton at 10:40 last night, got as far as the obstruction and was then compelled to turn back. It went east as No. 6 this afternoon about 8 hours late. Real No. 6 leaving Portland last evening got to the obstruction and likewise turned back.

The slide occurred at what is known as the Reed place. About eight years ago Mr. Reed had a nice little farm there one day. The next day Mr. Reed was displeased upon looking around to discover that instead of a fertile little orchard and farm he was the possessor of a cross between a stone quarry and a gravel pit. A slide of rocks and other extraneous matter had covered his land to a depth of several feet. The railroad track was covered with from three to four feet of the same kind of material for a distance of 200 yards. Instead of shoveling the rocks and dirt off the track they rebuilt the railroad right over it. From that time the place has been known as "Reed's slide."

Is This Plain Enough.

If you have a nagging cough and are losing flesh, go to a drug store, and get a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption cure. Take two-thirds of it, and then, if you are not benefited, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will return your money. Isn't that fair? No one could ask more. 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

CONTESTING GUARDIANSHIP.

A Case of Considerable Interest to People Near Pilot Rock.

Frank Curl has instituted a contest against the guardianship of Sam Smith of the persons and property of Jessie J. Smith and Ward Smith aged 14 and 12 years respectively. The father Elisha F. Smith died in 1892, the mother having died previously. Sam Smith is a brother of Elisha F. Smith and consequently is uncle of the children, of whom he has been guardian since 1892. All the parties live in the vicinity of Pilot Rock.

The case is being heard today in circuit court before County Judge Hartman. Mr. Curl, who desires to have the guardianship of Sam Smith set aside is a half brother of the wards. He makes general and specific charges against the manner in which Mr. Smith has conducted his guardianship, such as failure to make his reports, neglect of the education of the children, etc.

It is claimed that the property of the two children now amounts in value to about $1600, and that the guardian should make report to the county judge, and that he should be discharged for cause from his position of guardian, and another one appointed in his stead.

Among those present today were the following: Jessie J. Smith and Ward Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, George Roork, G. P. Skelton, Jame Hawks, A. Waugh, John Jones and Frank Curl.

E. D. Boyd and R. J. Slater are attorneys for the contestant and Carter & Raley for the contestee.

CASE OF ROBBERY.

John Colter Held to Answer in Sum of $1000.

John Colter, alias "Scotty," had his preliminary hearing before Justice Fitz Gerald this afternoon. Thomas L. Edwards, who was robbed of five $20 gold pieces, told his story. Mrs. Hattie La Roy, wife of the tamale-seller, testified that Colter was the man she saw with Mr. Edwards in front of her store on Court street Thursday afternoon, and that he was in the lead in a footrace that followed, Mr. Edwards a close second. Marshal Heathman and William Hickey also testified for the state. Win Krebs, John E. Russell and the defendant were witnesses for the defense. Mr. Colter denied all connection with the affair and stated that he hadn't seen Mr. Edwards for some time before the robbery is alleged to have been committed.

As Mr. Edwards swore that Colter was the man who grabbed him and took the purse from his pocket, extracted the money and handed it back; combined with the recognition testimony of Mrs. La Roy and the finding of Colter's hat on the scene, made a strong case.

Five Things.

The five diseases for which Shiloh's Consumption Cure is especially recommended, are Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup and Consumption. No medicine ever made by man is equal to it in any respect. Sold under a positive guarantee. Money back if it fails. 25 cts, 50 cts and $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co.

CONSUMED GOVERNMENT TIMBER.

A Case in Judge Bellinger's Court in Portland Which is of Interest.

J. G. English, of the rich Golconda mine in Baker county, is charged in Judge Bellinger's court in Portland with cutting timber on government land. It is alleged that he took up several placer claims near his mine, yet never worked them, but he cut all the timber off the claims and consumed it in the operation of the Golconda. The government demands payment for this timber and the case in court is for the purpose of enforcing payment. Mr. English's contention is that he had a right to the timber which was necessary to enable him to operate his mine.

Probably, in considering this case it will be shown that not only government property has been consumed in a private business, but, in addition, the property created through the use of public property has not contributed a cent of support in the form of taxes to the support of the government, although the Golconda mine is one of the "fabulously rich" ones of the Baker district.

Frawley Company in Secret Service.

Gillette's plays always seem to please the public, and the combination of what is generally admitted to be the best one ever written, and the popular Frawley company, ought to prove irresistable. This is the attraction which comes to the Frazer opera house tonight. "Secret Service" is the play offered, and T. Daniel Frawley's splendid company will be seen in its various characters. "Secret Service" is said to be the most intensely interesting drama ever staged in this country, and also the most meritorious, from a purely technical view, ever written by an American author.

The curtain will rise promptly at 8:15.
