READY FOR LA GRANDE.

High School Team Will Close the Season Christmas Day.

The La Grande High School football team will arrive on the train Christmas morning and in the afternoon will line up in front of the Pendleton High School team on the grounds on lower Alta street. Game will commence promptly at 2:30. The home team will be the same as that which played against the Pendleton academy team Saturday, except that Stephens will play fullback. This will be the last game of the season for the High School players, and they intend to win this game in order that they may have something pleasant to think of during the "closed season." The visitors have improved since the teams last met, having had the services of an experienced coach, and having been reinforced by older and heavier players, so that the game will undoubtedly be as full of excitement as a Christmas tree of itself.

MR. CHUMPS IN TROUBLE.

Charged With Stealing A. D. Blue's Team Saturday. Hattie-A-Chumps, an Indian, is in trouble up to his copper-colored neck. This is not the first time he has been in trouble, however, for he seems to be looking for it. Last summer he was accused of stealing a horse and buggy from Jim Furnish, but got out of it. The present difficulty of Chumps was brought about as follows: A. D. Blue, of Mission, drove to Pendleton Saturday and hitched his team to the railing on Cottonwood street. When he was ready to leave for home in the afternoon he went to get his rig, but it was not there. The authorities were notified. Chief of Police Brisbow, of the reservation, heard of the matter, and started for the agency accompanied by Red Hawk. Hattie-A-Chumps was overtaken on driving the team along as joyously as though returning from a funeral. Chumps and the team were brought back to Pendleton, the former arrested and placed in jail, the latter being delivered to the owner.

Your Face.

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, pimples and skin eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out, and do not have a healthy appearance, you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparilla and so-called purifiers fail. Knowing this, we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. For sale by Brock & McComas.

Not for $50,000.

Father Arthur Clark, curate to the bishop of Boston, en route to Dubuque, Iowa, to take the pastorate there, is the son of wealthy parents and was brought up under strict Calvinistic doctrines. His father's will provided for a $50,000 deposit to be paid to Clark when he gives up the priesthood. He is a member of the Order of Paulists, composed of converts, and remains firm in his determination never to leave his present work, not even for the $50,000 that lies at his disposal in a Boston bank.

THE FLIGHT OF ESTERHAZY.

He is suffering for the want of the Necessaries. Major Count Walko Esterhazy, who figured so prominently in the Dreyfus case, has sunk into utter misery. His divorced wife's suit against her mother, the Marquise de Beaucourt, for an allowance on the ground that she is a profound distress and unable to support or educate her young daughters, has brought forth the following letter from London written by the major to his wife, who is in Paris: "I have been unable to write to my children recently, not having the money to buy a postage stamp. I am at the last extremity of strength, courage and resources. I have not eaten or two days until this morning in the workhouse. I have no clothes, am shivering with cold, and am compelled to warm myself by entering churches and museums. Every one will say this is a confession of guilt, but you can say I am killing myself because, after having struggled to the utmost of my courage, my voice is stifled by my persecutors. Without bread, home or clothing I shall die of privations of all kinds unless a revolver bullet puts everything in good order. Kiss my children. Tell them I adore them, and if a frightful fatality has precipitated me into an abyss, if I die the victim of human cowardice, I never committed the crime whereof I am accused by scoundrels in order to save themselves."

SCOURING YOUR SCALP.

Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales But it Won't Cure Dandruff. If your hair is brittle and thinning, you have dandruff. The mere scouring of the scalp of the loose scales won't cure dandruff; because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a pestiferous little germ in furrowing its way to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing falling hair and, in time, baldness. Now you can't stop dandruff, nor falling hair, but you can prevent baldness unless you destroy that germ; and the only preparation that can do it is the new scientific discovery, Newbro's Herpicide. In fact no other hair preparation claims to kill the dandruff germ—all of them will clean the scalp; soap and water will do that, but only Newbro's Herpicide gets at the root of the trouble and kills the dandruff germ.
