Born on Sunday, December 23, to Mr. and Mrs. James Funk, a girl, weight eight pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Funk are visiting in Pendleton from Walla Walla county, and may decide to remain here permanently.

An informal reception will be tendered the La Grande High School football team and visiting friends on Christmas evening in the Assembly hall adjoining the brick school house on the hill.

The announcement of the winner of the little dog of Harper whisky will be given at the Louvre saloon, of which John Schmidt is proprietor. The person guessing nearest to the capacity of the big cask of Harper whisky will win the little cask.

The Lakewood and Paisley stage was held up by a lone highwayman, who demanded the letter mail sacks. After throwing off the pouches the driver whipped up the horses and within ten minutes after the hold-up Sheriff Dunlap and Marshal Weston were at the scene, but there was no clue.

The 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morrow died at the family residence south of the W. & C. R. railroad depot last Friday morning.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. W. B. Gray, pastor of the M. E. church, south.

William Harris was before Justice Fitz Gerald, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon F. F. Burden. He waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $50 to keep the peace. Mr. Harris lives several miles south of Pendleton on the reservoir.

On Saturday evening, December 22, Rev. F. L. Forbes, president of Pendleton academy, entertained the football team with an oyster supper at his home. The affair was heartily enjoyed. It was in the nature of a celebration of their afternoon victory over the High school team.

The landslide of last Thursday evening, which covered the O. R. & N. tracks for a distance of 1000 feet four miles west of Bonneville, has been cleared away as to the main track, and passenger trains are again running regularly. The sidetracks have not been unearthed as yet.

When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. Tallman & Co., leading druggist.

Frank Harrison was up before Justice Fitz Gerald this morning charged with larceny from the person. Saturday afternoon, near the W. & C. R. depot on Main street. An Indian named Charley Bennett gave Mr. Harrison a $5 gold piece and requested him to go and purchase him a 50-cent flask of whisky. Mr. Harrison never came back. He was arrested, and the case being fully proven, he was sentenced to pay a fine of $25, or 12 days in jail. Owing to lack of funds the jail sentence was accepted as Hobson's choice. Pendleton seems to be experiencing a carnival of crime, which the officers are doing their best to bring to an abrupt end, and are meeting with a good degree of success.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. H. Kunze, of Umatilla, is a visitor in Pendleton.

B. T. Bronson, of Colorado, is a guest of the Hotel Pendleton.

J. E. Cherry, principal of the Adams public schools, was in Pendleton Saturday.

Miss Nellie Todd left for Walla Walla this forenoon, where she will be the guest of friends.

James A. Fee and J. H. Raley returned this morning from a trip to Portland on legal business.

Frank G. Hull and daughter, of Lawton, passed through Pendleton Sunday on their way to Milton.

Miss Pearl Luckey, a student at the state university at Eugene, has arrived at home to remain during the holidays.

The Misses Eleanor and Constance Despain are home from St. Paul's school, Walla Walla, to spend the holidays.

L. G. Smith, a stockman from the southern portion of the county, is in Pendleton to spend the Christmas season.

A. A. Roberts, deputy United States marshal, is in Pendleton, accompanied by his wife, and will remain over Christmas.

Al Slusher, who has been a student of the state university at Eugene, returned home this morning to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Alba, are in the city to spend Christmas. Mr. Brown is a brother-in-law of Assessor Buzan.

George P. Skelton and family, of Pilot Rock, were at the Hotel St. George Sunday and left this morning for six months' stay at Portland.

C. C. McKenna, agent of the O. R. & N. at Weston, spent Saturday night in Pendleton and went on to Portland Sunday, to spend a week's vacation.

Mrs. Jessie E. Vert returned Sunday morning from an extensive trip through Eastern Oregon as grand worthy matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

D. H. Butts, a subcontractor on the O. R. & N. cutoff work of grading, has been spending a couple of days in Pendleton and will leave for Echo this evening.

J. Clove, warehouseman for E. W. McComas, at Cold Spring, on the O. R. & N., between Umatilla and Walla Walla, is in Pendleton to spend Christmas.

Roseburg Review: S. S. Hunt, of Pendleton, was a pleasant business caller at the Review office Saturday. He is visiting old-time friends at Myrtle Creek.

Ralph Wade has returned home to spend the holidays. Ben Burroughs will remain at Seattle. Both have been attending the Washington state university there.

Dr. E. E. Dutton, accompanied by his wife and three children, is a guest of his brother, C. R. Dutton, until after New Years. Dr. Dutton is a dentist, located at Caldwell, Idaho.

Ukiah Sentinel: Dean Tuton, formerly a Pendleton grocerman, was in the prairie last week for the purpose of buying a stock ranch. He looked at several, but as yet no sales have been made.

A. J. Van Aernan, of La Grande, a friend of Little Henry, has been visiting here for a couple of days. He is engaged in the lumber business and says Pendleton is one of the best towns from a business standpoint, that he has been in for months.

E. T. McClure returned Sunday evening from California, where he has been for the past two months on business. He spent the time principally at Modesto, San Jose and San Francisco. He says business is rather quiet in California as compared with this place.

Moses H. Thompson left Friday evening, December 21, for Santa Monica, Calif., where he will become an inmate of the United States soldiers home. Mr. Thompson has been a conspicuous character in Pendleton for years and his friends hope that in new quarters he will pass his declining years in peace and comfort.

George Buzan, assessor of Umatilla county, returned Sunday morning from a trip to Salem. He brought his daughter Myrtle, aged 12 years, home with him from the state asylum for the blind. He also brought Mabel Templeton, aged 12, from the same institution and gave her into the charge of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Templeton, at Foster, in this county.

E. A. Vaughn returned Saturday morning from Portland, whither he went on business connected with his profession. He has just added a dental cabinet and incandescent mouth lamp to his office furniture. The former is a very handsome and useful article, one of three on the coast, the other two being at San Francisco and Portland. The working of the mouth lamp is wonderful. It is a sort of X-ray proposition and when placed inside a person's mouth enables the dentist to see through the teeth, provided there are any there. Both are from Ransom & Randolph, Toledo, Ohio.
