The big rabbit drive on Hugh Field's place on Butter creek, 10 miles southwest of Echo, on Sunday, Jan-uary 6, was a great success. Nearly 150 persons participated in the sport, about 60 of whom were mounted on horses of several different breeds, shapes and colors. The drive com-menced about 1 o'clock in the after-noon and lasted about an hour. Horse-men scoured the hillsides for miles and drove the jackrabbits to the jaws of a corral, the wings being a quarter of a mile long, of barbed wire, the tips of the wings being about one-third of a mile apart.
