SHOE STOCK MUST GO!

Having purchased the stock of the PENDLETON SHOE STORE, I will close the entire stock at big reduction in order to make room for new stock now ordered from the factories.

A Call to obtain prices will be convincing as to the bargains offered.

WM. FITZGERALD, "The Shoe Man."

Successor to Joe Kilen, Main Street.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. W. King, of Riverville, Wash., is a visitor in Pendleton, the guest of friends.

Charles Taylor and Arthur Hammer, of Echo, are guests of the Golden Rule hotel.

J. L. Skipton, a buyer of heavy draft horses for Humam, of Seattle, is a guest of the Hotel Pendleton.

Miss Frances McGhee, a trained nurse, left Sunday evening for Condon, Or., for a visit of a few weeks.

Miss Hattie Ekersley, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. B. Conklin, has returned to her home at Cove.

Sheriff William Blakley is convalescent, after having been laid up for ten days with a persistent attack of the grip.

J. D. Creighton and A. F. Sylvester, citizens of Pasco, are in the city visiting friends and stopping at the Hotel St. George.

F. G. McIntosh left Sunday night for Olympia, Wash., there to remain a couple of weeks while the legislature is in session.

Eldred B. Waffle, of the Boston store, left for Portland last night, where he will attend business college for four months.

J. H. Estes, a relative of the Estes boys of this city, is a recent arrival from Kansas City, Mo. He is a barber and has gone to work in Krassig's shop.

John A. Noble and John Bradburn, who have long been employed by Charles Cunningham, at Pilot Rock, were guests of the Hotel Pendleton Sunday and this morning.

John A. Commissioner Horace Walker is still sick with lumbago at the Hotel St. George, but is able to be up and around his room, with good prospects for being able to get out within a few days.

S. H. Forshaw left for Salt Lake City on Saturday morning to attend the sessions of the National Livestock Association in the interests of the Northwest Livestock and Woolgrowers' Journal.

Fred Drake will leave on tonight's train for Portland to take a position as caricaturist in the art department of the Telegram. His first detail will be to look after the work of the legislature at Salem, and sketch the prominent ones there assembled.

Charles Cunningham left Saturday morning to attend the meeting of the National Livestock Association in session this week at Salt Lake City. Mr. Cunningham owns something like 18,000 head of sheep of different kinds and consequently enjoys the proud distinction of owning several thousand head of those animals more than any other man in Umatilla county.

A Palmist in Pendleton. Prof. Bugmaster, a celebrated palmist of New York, has arrived in Pendleton, and may be consulted on matters pertaining to past, present and future at the Hotel Pendleton, where he has established his headquarters. He will only remain here a week or so, consequently those who wish to consult him will have to hurry.

MAD MOOSE RAIDS A TOWN. Crazy Animal Injures Man and Kills Cattle at Farris, Minn.

One man probably fatally injured, three dogs and two cows killed and several hundred dollars' worth of property destroyed is the result of the visit of a crazy moose to the little town of Farris, four miles from Cass Lake, Minn., on New Year's day. The animal appeared in the streets about noon and charged directly at a little knot of men standing in front of the only store in town. Every one made a rush for safety. John Olson failed to escape and was so severely trampled by the moose that he will probably die. After leaving the man the animal turned his attention to a lot of dogs that were attacking him and rapidly killed three of their number, his sharp hoofs cutting them almost to pieces.

By this time several riders had been turned upon the mad animal and many bullets found a lodging place in his body. These seemed but to increase the anger of the brute, and he started on a general raid. Two cows walking along the street attracted his attention and he attacked them, killing both in short order. After the brute had smashed things generally he was killed.

The Way to Keep Cider. Cider will keep if it is bottled, re-bottled, at least one-third, and then bottled. A raisin, or a few mustard seeds, may be put in the bottle previous to pouring in the cider. The corks must be fastened with wires, and the bottles be placed in a dark, cool closet.—January Ladies' Home Journal.

Worldly Advice. For years we have made a study of coffee and have today plenty of well selected coffees, and a large and growing trade. Business has been brought together and held solely by a judicious use of the word "value," which with us means to give each customer that which he pays for.

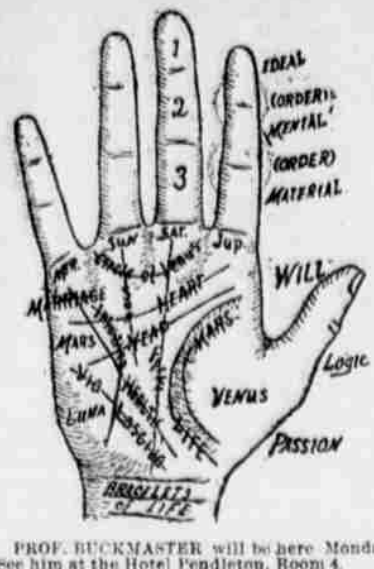

If he wants ordinary or medium grade we give it to him, and if he wants better, choice or fine quality, and will pay for it, he gets just that and nothing else, for the reason that he is entitled to it and we cannot afford to give anything else for we want him to come back.

East Oregonian AND THE ORANGE JUDD FARMER

Western Edition American Agriculturist.

By special arrangement with the publishers, we are enabled to offer THE ORANGE JUDD FARMER, the leading agricultural weekly of the Western and Mississippi Valley States, in club with this paper, at an exceedingly low figure. The ORANGE JUDD FARMER is remarkable for the variety and interest of its contents, and is undoubtedly the best and most practical paper of its kind.

ITS FARM FEATURES, such as Live Stock, Dairy, Horticulture, Poultry, Market Gardening, and other topics, written by practical and successful farmers, supplemented with illustrations by able artists, combine to make it invaluable to those who "farm it for a living." The latest Markets and Commercial Agriculture are features in which the O. J. FARMER is unequalled.

THE FAMILY FEATURES: Short Stories, Fashions, Fancy Work, The Good Cook, Puzzle Contests, Library Corner, and Young Folks' Page combine to make this Department of as much value and interest as most of the Special Family Papers.

A Cyclopaedia of Progress and Events. All sending their subscriptions under our clubbing offer are presented, postpaid, with the AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST YEAR BOOK and ALMANAC for 1901. This great book is a Cyclopaedia of Progress and Events of the World, a Guide to Markets, Marketing, and Prices.
