SHOE STOCK MUST GO!

Having purchased the stock of the PENDLETON SHOE STORE, I will close the entire stock at big reduction in order to make room for new stock now ordered from the factories.

A Call to obtain prices will be convincing as to the bargains offered.

WM. FITZGERALD,
"The Shoe Man."

Successor to Joe Klien, Main Street.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Tom Jordan is seriously sick with an attack of the grip.

Daniel Shaw is in Pendleton today from his ranch near Pendleton.

Walter Lubken, of Wheeler's photograph gallery, is laid up with the grip.

Joe Klein has returned from a trip to Portland and will be in Pendleton for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander and Roy Alexander left on this morning's train for Portland to remain for a few days.

Jesse W. Smith, justice of the peace for Athena, is a visitor in Pendleton today, a guest of the Golden Rule hotel.

Mrs. Dunnington, of Helix, who has been a patient at the Pendleton sanitarium, has recovered and left for home Friday evening.

C. M. Hogue, an employee of James Crawford, the harness and saddlery man, is taking a layoff on account of an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Zina Gabbart has returned from a visit to Baker City, and is accompanied by Miss Maudie Jerrett, of Portland, who will remain here for a visit.

Sumpter Miner: James A. Howard, of Pendleton, interested in the Lawton townsite and the Concord mine, is in town today on business pertaining to those properties.

Mrs. C. C. Vane Orsdal, grand guardian Women of Woodcraft, will lecture in Auditorium, Portland, this evening. She will probably return to Pendleton on Monday morning's train.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Parks, of Dunlap, Ill., have arrived in Pendleton for a visit of a couple of months with County Treasurer S. K. Yates and family. They are the parents of Mrs. Yates.

Mrs. F. A. Campbell, who has been in Los Angeles since the first of the year, writes that she is enjoying Southern California as much as can be expected but she long to be home once more.

Gustav Planting is in town today from his farm a few miles west of Astoria. He says that wheat is looking well, but that there is no snow on the ground and that a freeze would quickly put a different look on things.

Miss Jessie McAfee and Miss Olive Myrick, of Mrs. Campbell's millinery store, returned on Friday afternoon from Warren station, where they had been visiting for a week at the home of J. W. Myrick, father of latter.

Dr. T. M. Henderson, who succeeded Dr. E. T. Perkins as physician at the agency, telegraphed on Monday to the war department at Washington resigning his position. He has associated himself in business with Dr. C. J. Smith.

Mrs. E. J. Matlock, of Hesperia, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Matlock and other relatives and friends. She will visit relatives at Helix before returning home. Mrs. Matlock is prominent in the work of the Order of Eastern Star.

Joe Hanson and daughters are in Pendleton today from their home in the Cold Spring country. Miss Winnie Hanson will resume her studies at the Pendleton academy next Monday. The report of her having the smallpox was without foundation.

Robin W. Fletcher is sick with the grip. That is bad enough, but when the story is circulated that it is smallpox, the matter is worse. The Fletcher household wish to emphatically contradict the false rumors of smallpox there, and to announce that they are not quarantined.

Charles J. Ferguson has been visiting for a couple of days in Pendleton. He will go to Walla Walla Monday to remain ten days or so while he reports eight railroad cases which are to come on for trial in circuit court, which will convene there on that date. He will then come back to Pendleton to stay.

R. M. Turner and family are located at Silver City, New Mexico. They formerly resided at Pendleton, but latterly have been at Burns, where Mr. Turner was engaged in the practice of law. He has been in the climate at Burns too severe for his health, so has picked out a new location with an ideal climate.

Mose Tribble and Joseph Leazer are in town today from their homes at Echo and will remain over probably until next week. Mr. Tribble says his wife informed him that she was going to "quit him," unless he renewed his subscription to the East Oregonian and since he would rather put up $2 a year than do the cooking he complied with her demand.

William Scott is in the city from Hildaway springs, of which he is owner, and where he has commodious hotel. He states that deer are numerous in that vicinity and that the sport of hunting has been great. Hildaway springs are located about 50 miles south of Pendleton where the scenery is magnificent. Mr. Scott will return home on Sunday, accompanied by Dave Ingram, who goes on business.

HELD FOR LARCENY.

Frank Edwards, alias Russel, wanted at Baker City.

Frank Edwards alias Frank Russel, was picked up by Deputy Sheriff Till Taylor shortly after he arrived on the train from the east this morning. This was done in accordance with instructions from Sheriff Huntington, of Baker City, who sent a description of the young man and stated that he was wanted there for larceny from a dwelling to-wit: the Sagamore hotel. He claimed that he had not been at Baker City for a month, and that he had come over from La Grande only; and that his name was Russel and not Edwards. In proof of this latter claim he showed the initials "F. R." tattooed in Indian ink on his right forearm. The sheriff or a deputy will arrive on the train tonight and take Mr. Edwards-Russel back with him, and if he is the wrong man no great damage will have been done. If he is the right man gone wrong, the judge will give him something.

KING RASTUS MONDAY EVENING.

A Semi-Operatic Comedy by Thirty-Five Colored Stars.

For a unique and positively refreshing performance, Isham's "King Rastus," company certainly takes the lead and has set the pace for all other similar organizations. The novelty of presenting a semi-operatic comedy by colored stars has proved a pleasant surprise and created a furore everywhere. The company, numbering thirty-five, is composed of such artists as G. W. Williams, Smart & Williams, Mallory Bros. & Brooks, S. H. Dudley and others. The production is carried complete, the scenic effects, costuming, etc., being described as gorgeous.

"King Rastus" holds court at the Fraser on Monday evening, next week, and will entertain all visitors right royally.

WHEN SEATS WILL BE ON SALE.

A Strong Demand For Tickets For "The Idol's Eye."

Seats for the Boston Lyric opera company's production of "The Idol's Eye," which appears at Fraser opera house, Wednesday, January 23, will be on sale, Tuesday morning, January 22, at 8 o'clock, and no reservations will be made before that time. This rule is made in order to give every one an equal chance to get seats for, if the present demand for reservations keeps up, no seats would be left unsold at the regular time of putting them on sale.

Money! Money! Money!

Is what I must have, therefore, all who know themselves to be indebted to me, please come and settle at once. This request is made for the purpose of saving myself from my own creditors.

JOE BASLER.

The Cable Terminus.

Victoria, Jan. 19.—Point Renfrew will be the terminus of the British trans-Pacific cable.

WOMEN MUST SLEEP.

Avoid Nervous Prostration.

If you are dangerously sick what is the first duty of your physician? He quiets the nervous system, he deadens the pain, and you sleep well.

Friends ask, "what is the cause?" and the answer comes in pitying tones, nervous prostration. It came upon you so quietly in the beginning, that you were not alarmed, and when sleep deserted you night after night until your eyes fairly burned in the darkness, then you tossed in nervous agony praying for sleep.

MRS. A. HARTLEY.

You ought to have known that when you ceased to be regular in your courses, and you grew irritable without cause, that there was serious trouble somewhere.

You ought to know that indigestion, exhaustion, womb displacements, fainting, dizziness, headache, and backache send the nerves wild with affliction, and you cannot sleep.

Mrs. Hartley, of 221 W. Congress St., Chicago, Ill., whose portrait we publish, suffered all these agonies, and was entirely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her case should be a warning to others, and her cure carry conviction to the minds of every suffering woman of the unfailing efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
