Rev. W. E. Armfield, who has been assisting Rev. John Uren in conducting revival services at the Methodist Episcopal church received a telephone message Saturday evening from his home at Dixie, Wash., announcing the illness of his wife and two children. He left on Sunday morning's train for home. The revival services will be discontinued temporarily, but may be resumed in the course of six weeks.

Politics, Masonic business and other things have caused a stampede from Umatilla county to Portland and Salem. Among others at Portland on Sunday were the following: Ex-Senator and Mrs. T. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander, W. J. Furnish, Charles Wilkins, Robert Forster, E. F. Dodd, James A. Fee, Roy Alexander, Senator G. W. Prosser, T. J. Kirk, A. B. Thompson, and L. B. Reeder, speaker of the lower house.

Ed Besthorn, Jim Klotz, Ole Olson and Joe H. Parkes took a trip down the river Monday. They started at about 7 o'clock in the morning and got back at 6 p. m. They went to the vicinity of the Campbell bridge of the O. R., three miles below Earnhart station, and spent the day hunting ducks. They saw about 18,000,000 and killed eight or nine, but were only able to retrieve four. At odd spells during the day they killed two john rabbits.

The infant child of Andrew and Elizabeth Shurman died Monday morning at the family home, the Kirby ranch, six miles east of Pendleton, on the reservation. Interment was in Olney cemetery this afternoon.

Pepsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.

STARTED ON WRONG ROAD.

Roy Hutchinson, in His Sixteenth Year, is in Jail.

Roy Hutchinson, son of James Hutchinson, is in the county jail hoping that demerol will be extended to him by the officials for an act perpetrated Monday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. He is in his 16th year and small for his age. For a half hour or so previous to the above mentioned time he had been walking back and forth in front of the residence of C. A. Eppinger at the corner of Lilloith and Tustin, without any apparent object. Mrs. Eppinger had occasion to leave the house to call on Mrs. Matthews on a household errand, expecting to be gone for some little time. She had occasion to return home unexpectedly within a few minutes, and had only been in the house a few seconds when she discovered that some person was in a rear room. She was badly frightened and screamed lustily. The youthful burglar, for it was Roy Hutchinson, endeavored to get out of the window at which he had entered, but he only succeeded after considerable wriggling and squirming for about 30 seconds in getting out. He ran a few seconds, he ran around the house and onto the street and made his way rapidly to the Koppitke woodyard. Mrs. Eppinger following him. He was shortly afterward arrested by Marshal Heathman and taken back to the scene of the crime. Mr. Eppinger had returned home by this time, and the boy was questioned. He brazenly denied that he had been in the house at all, and Mr. Eppinger decided that it would be best to lock him up, so asked the marshal to do his duty. The marshal started with his prisoner for jail. They had not proceeded far, however, when another party took place. After more questioning he acknowledged that he was the guilty one, and was taken to the jail about 7 o'clock.

To gain entrance to the house he had tried to enter through a window with a hatchet which he had picked up in the back yard and had then pried open the inner screen. Nothing was stolen, as he was interrupted before he had a chance to operate. Mr. Eppinger says burglars need not take the trouble to enter his home, as hereafter all jewelry and valuables of whatever description will be carefully hid in the cellar or locked up in the refrigerator.

District Attorney Hailey is busy with circuit court matters, so has not given this case his attention as yet. Owing to the youth of the culprit, he will probably be committed to the reform school, rather than sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years commensurate with the crime of burglary of which he is confessedly guilty.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Murray and Dillon Guilty of Having Burglarized the Kusnie Residence.

In circuit court Monday afternoon James Tanner was acquitted of the charge of assaulting H. C. Means, of Umatilla, with a dangerous weapon.

William Murray, of the firm of Murray & Dillon, burglars, stood trial for the crime of burglarizing the Kusnie residence at Umatilla. He was convicted and will be sentenced at a future date.

Mr. Dillon, junior member of the firm, plead guilty to the same crime this afternoon, waived time, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

The case of Mrs. Lina H. Sturges vs. William Paker, an action for collection of a promissory note, has occupied the attention of court today.

Mrs. James Young Dead.

Walla, Walla, Jan. 22.—Mrs. James Young, of Weston, died at the Ferry hospital January 21, 1901, aged 53 years, of a grippe. The funeral will occur from the family residence in Weston today. Mrs. Young had been in ill health for the past two years and the recent attack of a grippe hastened her death. She was well known in Weston, where she had many friends. She leaves a husband.

Henry Zutz, jr., a boy 17 years of age, accidentally shot and killed himself Saturday night, while spending the night with Bob Smith, a boy friend of his, who lives six miles from Vale, Malheur county. The two boys were alone in the house, and Zutz was examining a revolver, which he accidentally discharged, killing himself instantly.

FARMER

By special arrangement with the publishers, we are enabled to offer THE OREGONIAN JUDG FARMER, the leading agricultural weekly of the Western and Mississippi Valley States, in kind with this paper, at an exceedingly low figure. The OREGONIAN JUDG FARMER is remarkable for the variety and interest of its contents, and is undoubtedly the best and most practical paper of its kind.

ITS FARM FEATURES, such as Live Stock, Horticulture, Poultry, Market Gardening, and other topics, written by practical and successful farmers, supplemented with illustrations of able artists, combine to make it invaluable to those who "farm" for a living. The latest Markets and Commercial Agriculture are features in which the O. J. FARMER is unequalled.

THE FAMILY FEATURES, Short Stories, Fashions, Fancy Work, Recipes, Good Cooks, Puzzles, Library Corner, and Young Folks' Page continue to make this Department of as much value and interest as that of the Special Family Paper.

A Cyclopedia of Progress and Events

...OUR ACTUAL COST SALE... THE ST. JOE STORE.

We will positively sell all goods mentioned below at actual cost for the next 30 days preparing stock taking:

Men's Boys' and Childrens' clothing, underwear, hats, caps, boots, shoes, Ladies' Misses' and Childrens' underwear, shoes, capes, millinery, wool hosiery, Ladies' tailor-made suits, blankets, comforts, quilts, table linen, towels, dress goods and outing flannel, all grades, etc.

Remember we never advertise anything we do not do. We are in earnest in regard to this cost price sale and anyone who buys goods of us during the next thirty days will get them at actual cost as we must reduce this stock all we can by February 15th. Do not pay someone a big profit on account of old friendship but buy where your dollar will go furthest and this you can do by trading at St. Joe store.
