IKE RUDDOCK ON THE RACK.

Being Tried in the Circuit Court for Cattle-Stealing.

Cattle-stealing trials in the circuit court of Umatilla county are like troubles in Denmark, they tramp on one another in a procession. Following the Dunn case the trial of the case of the state vs. Ike Ruddock came on this morning. The defendant is charged with the crime of stealing a red cow, or several cows from an Indian on the range of the southeastern section of the county, taking her to La Grande and disposing of the animal to a meat market man. Judge S. A. Lowell and the E. Collier are attorneys for the defendant and District Attorney Bailey for the state. The witnesses examined for the prosecution this morning were the following: William Bowman, of Birch creek; M. L. Oweiby and Bert Hughes, of La Grande. The prosecution had but one more witness to call when court convened at 1:15 this afternoon.

The defense as announced in the Ruddock case this afternoon is that the defendant had come into possession of the stock innocently, believing the animal to be the property of C. J. Wade. When he arrived at La Grande on the day of his arrest by Marshal Childers his feet were badly frozen, and he was chilled through. Three or four hours after his arrest, when asked by the marshal what he wanted done with the stock, he said he wanted them taken to the Wade farm, 11 miles or thereabouts from La Grande. Considerable time has been spent on the admission of these statements made by Ruddock to Childers as evidence, counsel for the state desiring to have them excluded as being no part of the case, while the defense wanted them admitted and had the desire gratified.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Fred Fischer of Athena is a visitor in Pendleton today.

H. B. Nelson, the brickmaker of Weston, is in town on business.

Irene S. Goodman, of Walla Walla, is a guest of the Hotel Pendleton.

F. P. Childers, city marshal of La Grande, is spending today in Pendleton.

Joe Hanscom, of the Cold Spring country, is a visitor in Pendleton today.

Jacob Betz, of Walla Walla, was a guest of the Hotel St. George Monday night.

W. H. Babb, raiser of horses and cattle at Echo, is a guest of the Hotel St. George.

Mr. and Mrs. John McEachern, of Helix, are parents of a boy born on Sunday, January 27.

Harry F. Nichols, train master of the W. & C. R. railway at Hunt's Junction arrived on the train today.

A. L. Barnes has gone to La Grande, his former home, on a business trip. He is interested in some mining property.

Miss Mabel Nye has returned home from attendance at St. Helen's hall, Portland, and will become a student at the Pendleton academy.

Mrs. Josephine F. Dunn, who has been a guest of the Hotel St. George for the past few days, will leave tonight for her home at Portland.

E. E. Harlow, the contractor, left Sunday morning for California to spend three or four weeks. He will be at San Francisco the greater part of the time.

J. M. Morris, of Stuart, Idaho, formerly in business at Athena, is spending the day with Pendleton friends. As a solo player he is hard to catch.

John Thorson, cashier of the First bank of Elgin and his brother Ernest, have taken their departure for a three months' visit to their old home in Sweden.

W. A. Holmes, who has been engaged in the logging business at Hilgard, is in Pendleton today on his way to Pilot Rock, where he will settle and engage in farming.

Tatom Brothers, D. S. and D. L., have purchased a ranch on Birch creek, four or five miles southwest of Pendleton, and will raise cattle. They are now putting up a new house on the farm.

Robert J. Diven of New Hamburg, N. Y., who came to Pendleton recently and who preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday at 11 o'clock has been called as the pastor of the church.

John Durham was able to be out today the first time in a couple of weeks. He had the prevailing disease, the grip. That ailment is the style in Pendleton. Mr. Durham says to cut the style out as far as he is concerned.

C. E. Dugger has disposed of his interest in William Hessel's saloon at Weston and will leave shortly for Mountain Home, in the southern part of this county, to look after mining property in which he is interested. He is in Pendleton today.

Walla Walla Statesman: Mrs. Laura Pierce, of Pendleton, has been visiting relatives and friends in Walla Walla the past week. This was her first visit in Walla Walla since 1893, and she was surprised to find the great growth of the city in that period of time. She left this afternoon for Milton where she will visit a few days before her return home.

R. Alexander is in receipt of a letter from Gov. T. T. Geer calling a meeting of the seven commissioners of the state of Oregon to the Pan-American exposition. The place of meeting in Salem, and the date next Tuesday, February 5. Mr. Alexander will leave on Sunday for the state capital. The appointments of the governor to membership on the commission were recently confirmed by the state senate.

Louis Bergevin, of Athena, spent several days in Pendleton last week and returned home Saturday evening. He went to Walla Walla Sunday morning and underwent an operation at Dr. Keeler's office, whereby a sponge-like piece of flesh half an inch in diameter was removed from within his nostrils. This is the second time he has been operated on for this same thing, and he thinks he is all right now.

Quite a party came in on the W. & C. R. train at noon today to attend the performance of "The Christian" at the Frazer tonight. Their names are as follows: From Helix—Miss Daisy McNette, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. William Albee, R. H. Graham, L. P. Gamble; from Stanton—J. I. Joy; from Hunt's Junction—Miss May Ash, Miss Nettie Glenn, W. E. Shannon, Tom Rogers, Ernest Linly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Nichols.

NEW YORK MARKET.

Reported by L. L. Ray & Co., Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

January 29.—There was a better tone to the wheat market today and the close showed a gain of 3-8 over yesterday. Liverpool was unchanged at 6-13/4. May, New York opened at 80 1/2 and sold between 80 1/2 to 81 1/4, closing 81 1-8. The conservative people in the trade believe we have seen the low point on the crop. The export demand is heavy and promises to keep up for the next six months and as our last crop was short prices showed improvement. The winter wheat states are complaining of the damage by the Hessian fly. Stocks lower. Money, 2 per cent.

Close yesterday, 80 1/4.
Open today, 80 1/2.
Range today, 80 1/4 to 81 1/4.
Close today, 81 1-8.

Wheat in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—May wheat 76 1/2 to 76 5-8.

President is 58 Years Old.

Washington, Jan. 29.—President McKinley today celebrated his 58th birthday. He appears to be in excellent health.

Smallpox is reported epidemic at Heppner, a local physician declaring that there are so many cases that any attempt to check it seems almost hopeless. The original case is said to be that of a young lady from the east, and who is supposed to have contracted the disease while en route west on the train.

A masked man attempted to hold up Fred Ernest's restaurant in Baker City early Monday morning. He had the waiter and cashier covered with a pistol when the Chinese cook came in suddenly and the highwayman took to his heels.
