The boys arrived here at 9 o'clock Sunday evening and were duly held. Upon arrival today the boys were taken in charge by Mr. Shaw, and lectured on the bad policy of running away from home. Royal Shaw will return to North Yakima on this evening's train.

FUNERAL OF MRS. TAYLOR.

Remains Laid at Rest in the Cemetery at Walla Walla.
The remains of the late Mrs. D. M. Taylor were laid at rest in the cemetery at Walla Walla, Wash., on Sunday, February 10, 1901, at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. Taylor left Pendleton on January 25 last in search of health and went to Tacoma, where she put herself in charge of Dr. T. F. Smith. He found that she was afflicted with a combination of growths, and performed an operation on Tuesday, February 5, assisted by Drs. Wagner and McCutcheon. They gave up all hopes of her recovery after the operation. She was attended during her illness by her husband and daughters, who remained with her to the last.
She has been a patient sufferer since June 28, 1900, but death has released her from all suffering. By death the family loses a loving wife and mother and her many friends have lost one who will long be remembered. She was born in Dewett, Iowa, March 6, 1852; crossed the plains with her father in 1869; came to Walla Walla, where she made her home until her marriage in '69 to D. M. Taylor. They made Waiatsburg their home until 1870, when they returned to Walla Walla in '72. In '74 they went to Wallonia, where they resided until her illness, since made Pendleton their home.
Deceased leaves the following to mourn her loss: Her husband, D. M. Taylor; one son, D. W. Taylor, of Portland and daughters, Mrs. Emma Walle, of La Grande, and Miss Maud Taylor, of this city; her father, Wm. Redford and four sisters, Mrs. O. M. Godfrey, of Walla Walla; Mrs. Dr. I. F. Smith and Mrs. J. E. Perry, of Tacoma; Mrs. Ella Arms, of Douglas, Wyo., and a brother, Edward Redford, of Pendleton.
Mrs. Taylor's remains were accompanied from Tacoma by her husband, daughters, brother-in-law and sisters. The funeral arrangements were conducted by Dr. T. F. Smith, F. F. Walle, W. F. Kennedy and D. B. Walle.
The interment took place at Walla Walla by a special request of Mrs. Taylor as her mother and infant son are laid at rest there. The services were conducted by the Rev. Lee A. Johnson of the First M. E. church from Cookerly's undertaking parlors. The choir consisted of Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Hershey, O. J. Crump and W. Conston; organist, Miss Maud Johnson. The following were pallbearers: H. S. Blackman, S. F. Henderson, J. S. Brock, J. S. Sinderman, C. A. McIntire and M. Coffman.
A number of friends from Pendleton were in attendance upon the last sad rites.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE.

The Pacific Northwest Woolgrowers' Association Will Be Entertained.
At the meeting of the Pendleton Commercial Association held on Tuesday evening, February 5, it was decided to have committees appointed from that organization to take charge of the arrangements for the meeting of the Pacific Northwest Woolgrowers' association which will be held in Pendleton March 5, 6 and 7. H. F. Johnson, vice-president, was in the chair, owing to the sickness of President J. A. Fee, and he was an motion instructed to appoint the different committees. Mr. Johnson has attended to the duties entrusted to him, and was appointed the following committees, to serve without further notice:
Reception and badges—F. E. Judd, chairman; F. F. Wamsley, W. D. Hansford, J. F. Robinson, F. W. Vincent, E. D. Boyd, J. E. Smith, Douglas Belts, Charles Cunningham.
Arrangements—C. B. Wade chairman; T. C. Taylor, C. S. Jackson, William Slusher, S. P. Gould, James Hackett.
Music and entertainment—J. A. Borie, Lee Teutsch, J. R. Dickson, Joe Connolly, Otto Boettcher.
Exhibits—E. E. Fell, chairman; C. E. Roosevelt, T. W. Ayers, J. Herbert Boylen, F. Weber, George Kutz.

SUNDAY BADGE SHOOTING.

H. J. Stillman Wins the Medal the Second Time.
The regular monthly shoot of the Pendleton Sportsmen's association was held on the grounds at 10 o'clock Sunday forenoon and continued for several hours. The main event was the contest for the gold championship medal. Eight participated. At the next contest for the medal, in accordance with the Butte handicap rules governing, H. J. Stillman and J. M. Spence will be in class A; J. C. Marin and Pat Turner in class B; F. W. Waite in class C; C. C. Berkeley, P. C. Clark, Fred Griffin in class D; H. J. Stillman will be the medal for the second time and will be entitled to its possession for one month. The following is the score in detail:

Name	Shot	Broke	Per cent
C C Berkeley	38	22	58
J C Marin	28	22	78.5

E. W. Bartlett, register of the land office at La Grande, is a visitor in Pendleton today. He says he is too busy attending to business to be able to get away to go to Salem to participate in the political imbroglio.

FUNERAL OF MRS. TAYLOR.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Pilkington and Lorenzo, left last Monday afternoon for Portland, where Mrs. Pilkington will reside with her mother, while the doctor goes to New York for a post graduate course in medicine, says the Antelope Herald. Dr. Pilkington was physician on the Umattila reservation for several years.
George Porteus, traveling representative of Baker & Hamilton, of San Francisco, was to have been in Pendleton on February 8. He telegraphed to Neagle Brothers that he would be unable to keep his appointments, as he was thrown from a buggy while traveling in Morrow county on the 6th, and is now an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital at Portland.
Portland Oregonian: The excellent likeness of the late Young Chief, leader of the Cayuse Indians, which appeared in the Oregonian, was reproduced from an amateur photograph by Leo Moorhouse, of Pendleton. Mr. Moorhouse kindly supplied the photo from his collection of Indian pictures, which is considered one of the finest on the Pacific coast.

FOOTBALL GAME IN SIGHT.

Walla Walla Team Will Come Over on Washington's Birthday.
A letter has been received conveying the intelligence that Lacy Galbraith, manager of the Walla Walla football team, is willing to bring his aggregation to Pendleton to play a game on Friday, February 22, providing that certain things are allowed. Lester Lewis is arranging the game from this end of the line, being assisted by Elmer Turner, "Red" Anderson and others. The proposition is to have the Walla Walla boys come over on the evening train Thursday, February 21, and have the game played Friday afternoon. The Pendleton team will be a picked one and very tough and robust, assuring that the visitors from Walla Walla will be well satisfied. Efforts will be made to secure excursions rates so that a big crowd may be present from Walla Walla and way stations on the O. R. & N.

BAD COLDS

Quinine is ten times better. Colds do not have to be endured. MENDEL'S DYNAMIC TABLETS (sold everywhere) from their energy, crowd a weak organism's treatment into twelve hours and short two weeks of cold over night.
"It was the worst case of grip I ever had. A half dozen friends had seen me. Still I hung on. Heeds of the DYNAMIC TABLETS. To my amazement they stopped both cold and cough the first night. I could and recommend them to the people."
HARCLAY HENLEY, ex-Member Congress and Attorney, 25 Sanson street, San Francisco, July 7, 1900.
"Winter colds have always been serious things to me. They are hard and stay for months. But the last was stopped suddenly by MENDEL'S DYNAMIC TABLETS. Both cough and cold disappeared in a couple of days. Nothing else does this for me."
MRS. EMMA L. HOLLIE, 11 N. 3rd St., San Francisco, Aug. 5, 1900.
"I live across the street from where MENDEL'S DYNAMIC TABLETS are made. That is how I see how good they are. They stop colds and coughs. I took a dozen lozenges with you for cold and bronchitis when I went to Napa." H. L. VAN WINKLE, Captain, 307 Washington Street, San Francisco, August 10, 1900.
