Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Laxative in its use will work wonders for the most hopeless woman. If Mrs. Newton, whose letter is given below, had not persisted in its use, she might never have known the happiness of perfect health. Perhaps the reason for her persistence was because she used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a "last resort." Physicians had failed. If "Favorite Prescription" could not help there was nothing to hope for. It did help. It always helps and almost always cures. It establishes regularity, drives weakness, drains, breaks inflammation and irritation and cures female weakness. It imparts strength and elasticity to the organs of maternity and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

"When I consulted you in April, 1898, I was in poor health," writes Mrs. B. H. Newton, of Vermont. "About the 15th of May I had been sick all winter and in my trouble, was on the road to matrimony, which the doctor said would end my days. I was almost dead and did not expect to see my husband. I was only a matter of time, and I thought I was a lost case. Little medicine helped. I began the use of your valuable medicine, and received your letter of April 27th. My husband purchased one bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and I used it. I was cured. When you wrote me words of encouragement on April 27th I had received one bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and I had been cured. I am now a healthy woman. I have had three lovely babies and three weeks out that weighed 20 pounds each. My baby and I are enjoying perfect health, thanks to your wonderful medicine, to which I believe I owe my life."

THE STATE PRISON AT LINCOLN BURNS.

One Convict Rushed Into the Flames and Perished.

PRISONERS BEHAVED EXCELLENTLY

When the Alarm Was Given 275 Men Were Asleep in Their Cells, But They All Marched Out in Perfect Order.

Lincoln, Neb., March 1.—A fire almost totally destroyed the main buildings of the state penitentiary located here early this morning. The loss is $250,000 with no insurance.

The flames were discovered by the wife of Warden Davis, shortly before midnight.

One company of local militia was immediately called out and sent by special train to the penitentiary to assist in guarding the convicts during the fire and after.

Two hundred and seventy-five men were asleep in the cells when the alarm was given. The guards awoke them and marched the prisoners into the yard, where they passed the balance of the night in the open air, shivering with cold but evincing no disposition to make a dash for liberty or to give any trouble.

One fire convict broke away from the guards and dashed back into the cell house where he perished. He had morose, scarcely speaking to anyone for a year.

The city fire department managed to save the east cell house and it is being fitted up today to accommodate the convicts.

The legislature is in session and will appropriate money to replace the burned structure, work to begin at once.

THE G. A. R. ARE OUT.

They Will Not Be in the Parade on Inauguration Day.

Washington, March 1.—Fully and definitely the veterans of the civil war have decided not to participate in next week's inauguration parade for the first time since the rebellion. General Sickles, who had been given the command of the veterans division, has been relieved of further duty on his own request by Grand Marshal Green.

The old soldiers absolutely decline to accept any other position in the parade except that of escort to the president which General Green refused.

A Report From New York. New York, March 1.—A special dispatch from Washington says General Daniel E. Sickles, who was appointed marshal of the fourth division of the inaugural parade, which was to consist of the G. A. R. and other veteran organizations, declared that he had no command, because the veterans had refused to parade.

The reason, it is said, for their withdrawal is that they are displeased with the position assigned them in the line. They insisted on being either the escort to the president or having the right of the line. According to the program, President McKinley will be escorted by the army and navy cadets and those of Cleveland, O. The regulars will head the parade, followed by the District of Columbia militia, and the national guard organizations from the various states.

LAW AND ORDER PREVAILED.

The Confessed Assailant of a Young Girl Landed in Penitentiary.

Carrollton, Ill., March 1.—Surrounded by four companies of state militia, Albert Spenkle, the confessed assailant of 15-year-old Della Gill, arrived here this morning from Springfield, where he had been taken to prevent lynching. The entire town turned out to witness his arrival, but beyond a few shouts of derision there was no other display of demonstration.

Spenkle was hurried to the court house where the judge awaited his coming. It was found that the keys to the handcuffs worn by Spenkle had been lost and the judge refused to proceed until they were removed and the blacksmith was sent for. After his hands were freed the prisoner pleaded guilty, and was immediately sentenced to an indeterminate term at Chester, the whole case occupying ten minutes. The sheriff, escorted by the soldiers, returned with Spenkle to a special train and started for the penitentiary. There was no attempt at violence by the crowd.

ROBERT S. COOK & CO.

The Partnership Formed Between a Man and His Wife.

Frankfort, Ind., March 1.—The death of Robert S. Cook, a farmer of this county, terminates the career of a man noted for eccentricities. His vagaries reached a climax several years ago when he married a second time. By his own hand he drew up an antinuptial agreement constituting him and his wife into a corporation, known as Robert S. Cook & Co. This agreement signed by both of them and made a matter of county record, designated him as the "Robert S. Cook" and his wife as the "company." Their assets were capitalized and the agreement provided for a detailed account of expenses, he being charged with all cooking, housekeeping, sewing and mending, and she with board and clothing. The capitalization was represented by regularly issued stock, and at stated periods it was provided that balances be struck and dividends declared or assessments made, as the case might be.

A NEGRO'S DESPERATE ACT.

Ties a Woman to Her Bed and Sets Her Clothes on Fire.

Atlanta, Ga., March 1.—Mrs. C. A. Buchanan, wife of a well known jeweler living in the heart of the prominent residence section of this city, and within two blocks of the governor's mansion, was the victim of an outrage which has caused much excitement in Atlanta. Her condition last night was critical.

The negro entered the house and compelled Mrs. Buchanan to hand over what money she had. The negro then commanded Mrs. Buchanan to cook breakfast for him and while she was engaged in this he stood with his pistol constantly pointed at her.

After the food had been placed on the table the negro seized Mrs. Buchanan and bound her to her bedstead. He then ate his breakfast. When he finished he set fire to Mrs. Buchanan's clothing. She finally freed herself and gave the alarm. Several policemen with bloodhounds are looking for the negro.

Three negroes are already under arrest as suspects.

AN OUTRAGE IN GEORGIA.

White Men Hang and Shoot a Negro Because He Broke a Contract.
