TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETS AT MOSCOW

Teachers' Association meets at Moscow March 28, 29, 30. The annual meeting of the Inland Teachers' association will be held at Moscow, Idaho, March 28, 29 and 30. Exercises will be held in the assembly hall of the main building of the university of Idaho. The following are a few of the many prominent educators who will be present and take part in the program: President F. P. Graves, university of Oregon; S. L. Pentrose, Whitman college; J. A. Beattie, Eastern Oregon normal; Geo. E. Knepper, state normal, Lewiston; J. H. Miller, state normal, Boise; Permal French, state superintendent, Boise; Superintendent J. F. Ransom, Spokane; Superintendent W. E. Ransom, Colfax; Superintendent Bonn, Pullman; Superintendent J. F. Nowlin, Unadilla county; representatives of the faculty of Washington agricultural college and others.

Delegates and visitors will pay full board taking, in all cases, a certificate from the local agent of the roads. This certificate when secured by the corresponding secretary, enables the holder to buy his return one-third fare over the North Pacific and Oregon Railroad & Navigation lines, and to travel without any part of the Oregon coast line, as far as the station where the certificate was issued. During the previous meetings of the association, the enrollment has reached 10,000. Provisions will be made for the hotel making a rate of $1 to $1.25 per day. The overflow from the hotel will be housed in private residences.

Further information may be obtained by addressing G. S. Bond, president of the association, Walla Walla, Washington, or S. Avery, corresponding secretary, Moscow, Idaho. The officers of the association are: G. S. Bond, president, Walla Walla; Permal French, first vice president, Boise; J. F. Nowlin, second vice president, Pendleton; J. H. Morgan, third vice president, Ellensburg; S. Avery, corresponding secretary, Moscow.

ONE HIGHWAYMAN NABBED.

Thomas Fitzgerald Captured by Marshal Heathman and Held to Answer. The account of the highway robbery near the coal buyers of the G. R. & N. company on Friday evening last, given in the East Oregonian of Saturday, needs a little correcting. The names of the men held up were given as Jimmy Smith and Luke Rhodes. The first was only the nickname for Hiram Shreckie, while the given name of Mr. Rhodes is Lewis instead of Luke.

After the holdup Friday night Shreckie and Rhodes gave the city and county officials all the information they possessed in regard to the matter and the work of apprehending the highwaymen was commenced. Between 3 and 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Jack Goss, a friend of Shreckie, saw a stranger trying to sell a watch to a Chinaman at the laundry on Webb street west of the Hendrick's block. When Goss stepped up to where the negotiation was being conducted the stranger hurriedly secreted the watch and meandered away. Mr. Goss as quickly as possible told Marshal Heathman of what had occurred. The marshal started after his man, and aided by the accurate description furnished, soon had him in custody. Constable John M. Bentley in the meantime had been out in the southern eastern part of the city in the hope to find him, and when he got back the prisoner was in the city jail. Mr. Bentley got out a warrant from Justice of the Peace Thomas Fitz Gerald, and accompanied by the marshal the prisoner was taken before the magistrate, by Constable Bentley and arraigned. Some amusement was created when he gave his name as Thomas Fitzgerald, the same as that of the justice of the peace, except that he spelled it with a lower case g.

The Watch Well Described.
Mr. Shreckie told the officers that they would find two private boxes on the inside of the first case of the back of the watch, and that one of the screws was loose on the inside of the second case, and that the head of it was broken. Fitzgerald objected to the officer opening the watch to see if the marks were there as described, but the objection was peremptorily overruled, and sure enough, the marks were there exactly as described. The prisoner stated that he had bought the watch in Denver six months ago. He further stated that he had been in Pendleton the days which he believed to be correct. He admitted the doings of Friday night, with the intention of making it appear that he could not have been near the scene at the time of the robbery, but appearances were against him and he was held to answer to the crime of highway robbery and his bond increased to $500. He was taken to the county jail by Constable Bentley and Marshal Heathman.

District Attorney Hailey advised Fitzgerald to tell what had become of his two pals and intimated that it might go easier with him if he did. He refused the offer point blank and stated that it wouldn't do him any good to give any information of the kind. Fitzgerald is a strapping big fellow with red hair. He stated that he had been working breaking stone while in Denver, but his hands were white and soft, indicating that he had been doing no hard labor recently. Court will convene on Tuesday, March 12, so the prisoner will not have long to remain in doubt regarding his term of sentence to the penitentiary.

WAITE WON THE MEDAL.

The Third Monthly Shooting Contest Sunday was interesting. F. W. Waite won the gold medal at the third monthly shoot for the trophy held on Sunday, March 10, by ten of the members of the Pendleton Sportsmen's association. This badge shoot is held according to the rules of the Butte handicap system. Each contestant shot at 25 blue rocks, with the following result: A. D. Stillman, 16; J. M. Spence, 23; H. J. Stillman, 20; F. W. Waite, 22; Drew Griffin, 11; Otto Turner, 22; W. C. Clark, 22; C. Berkeley, 12; Leo Tentsch, 9; A. Despain, 14. According to the rules Berkeley had a second chance at 13 blue rocks, out of which he broke 7, bringing his total to 19; Waite had a second try at two blue rocks, and broke both, bringing his total to 24; Hoch had a second shot at one blue rock, and broke it, bringing his score up to 23; A. D. Stillman shot at two more blue rocks and broke them, increasing his score to 18; Otto Turner had a second trial at one blue rock and broke it, making his score 23. Thus Mr. Waite had the highest score, and will wear the medal for one month.

Old Soldier's Experience.
M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

HARPOLE-DESPAIN.
The Bride the Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Despain of Ukiah. Ray Harpole and Miss Belle Despain were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Despain, in Ukiah, Rev. T. J. Smith officiating, says the Ukiah Sentinel.

Only the immediate relatives of the bride and a few friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride was very handsome in a costume of cream-colored silk and wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Edith McKeynolds acted as bridesmaid and Harry Huston was best man.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room and partook of an excellent wedding supper. The bride is the eldest daughter of J. B. Despain, the well-known business man of Ukiah, and quite popular in society circles. The groom is well known here, having at one time been foreman of the Ukiah creamery. Mr. and Mrs. Harpole will make their future home in Portland, where Mr. Harpole has a position as bookkeeper. They departed for their new home Monday morning, followed by the best wishes and hearty congratulations of a host of friends in Camas Prairie.

WOOLGROWERS OF OREGON.
A Meeting of the State Association at the Dalles on Tuesday.

Douglas Belts, of East Birch creek, president of the Unatilla County Woolgrowers' association, left the morning for the Dalles to attend the meeting of the Oregon Woolgrowers' association. Mr. Belts stated before his departure that the woolgrowers realize the necessity of better organization in order that the interests of those who raise sheep and wool may be properly looked after. That was the reason given for effecting the organization of the sheep-

GEORGE W. DAVIS MISSING.

Since it was announced that a shortage in School Funds existed, George W. Davis, the ex-clerk of the school land board, in whose accounts a shortage of $31,000 was reported by the legislative committee, has not been seen in Salem since the report was made. This has given rise to a persistent rumor that he has left the state. An inquiry as to his whereabouts was made at his home, and a member of his family declined to give any information further than that Mr. Davis was not at home. His neighbors have not seen him since the irregularities were made public. While these circumstances have given rise to the story that Mr. Davis is a fugitive, it is not uncommon for him to be away from home for several weeks at a time, and he may be keeping out of sight because he feels keenly the onus that rests upon him.

It is a matter of unfavorable comment that Mr. Davis has made no attempt to explain the frauds and errors that appear in his books, and it is said that he has made no explanation to his bondsmen. Since the shortage was discovered, Davis' official bond has been examined, and appears to have no defect which would prevent the state from recovering the amount provided in the undertaking, which is only $5000. The sureties are E. F. McCornack and George Bingham, each worth many times the amount of the bond.

The examination of the books of the state land office continues, with three clerks employed who were serving at the time the shortage was discovered. Under the direction of the attorney general, the clerks are examining the books for several administrations back.

Senator Brownell, of Oregon City, has probably supplied Mr. Davis with transportation to leave the country, as it is said that he was in "full control" of the Southern Pacific train, and issued transportation right and left, during the late session of the legislature, to whomsoever might apply. Mr. Davis, undoubtedly, was favored by Mr. Brownell. It is passing strange that a leading legislator, while in the employ of the state, should have so many "privileges" over a railroad and yet be considered a respectable, honorable man. The people of Clackamas county are probably dead to the fact that Brownell did not represent them "in the legislature."

THE CHARGE AGAINST SCOTT.
He Settled With the Church and the Case Was Dismissed.

Charles N. Scott, charged with larceny by embezzlement of funds belonging to the Trinity parish, was released from custody Saturday in Portland, says the Telegram. When the case was called, Deputy District Attorney Spencer asked that the case be dismissed, as the information had been withdrawn. This left nothing for the court to do but release the accused.

When asked for an explanation of this disposition of the case, Mr. Spencer replied that the vestrymen had considered the criminal action ill-advised; that Scott has made an accounting to the vestrymen and satisfied the claims of the church.

Is This Plain Enough?
If you have a nagging cough, and are losing flesh, go to a drug store, and get a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Take two-thirds of it, and then, if you are not benefited, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will return your money. Isn't that fair? No one could ask more. 25 cts, 50 cts, $1 a bottle. Tallman & Co., leading druggists.
