Eight carloads of horses have been shipped from Umatilla county to the Linton cannery within the past two weeks. The animals were all of the best quality and went about 30 to the car. Arrangements are being made for the shipment of several more carloads. Jim Jones is the shipper. He picks the animals up from the Indians on the reservation. They are not very fat, but apparently that is not a necessary qualification of a horse destined for the cannery.

BEEF ON THE HOOF AT $4.50

Camas Prairie Stockman Sells at Good Figure. William Fetter and his two sons, Amile and Arthur, have brought to Pendleton fifteen head of beef cattle and sold them to Schwarz & Greenlich at $4.50 a hundred. The cattle weighed an average of 950 pounds. Mr. Fetter and his sons returned home today.

"Cattle," said he, "came through the winter in good condition. Grass is fine out our way, and every one appears to be reasonably prosperous." The 15 head of cattle are all Mr. Fetter will have to sell this spring.

IT IS PARASITE.

That Causes Itching Scalp, Dandruff, and Finally Falling Hair. The itching scalp, the falling hair and the dandruff that annoys are the work of a parasite hidden in the scalp. That parasite must be killed to cure dandruff, and the only preparation that will do that is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

C. H. Reed of Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife had dandruff and falling hair several years. Two bottles of Newbro's Herpicide completely cured us, after several other hair preparations had failed to do good." Makes hair grow glossy and soft as silk. Hundreds of other testimonials just as strong.

SHEEP ARE BEING SHEARED

THE GANGS ARE AT WORK IN UMATILLA COUNTY. Owners Are Paying Seven Cents Per Animal, the Same Price as Last Year.

Charles Cunningham, the largest individual owner of sheep in this section was asked regarding the sheep-shearing question, which is of particular interest to many here at this season of the year, and said: "I am the first man at work shearing. I am the first to cut prices and to pay seven cents wages. I am going to pay seven cents for each common sheep sheared this season which is the same price as paid generally last year. I will pay from 10 cents to 25 cents for each buck sheared. I notice that some of the woolgrowers' organizations in different parts of the country advocate cutting parts of the country, but I will pay the rate I am generally among the first to commence shearing, and other owners I presume, will follow with the price."

Three Gangs at Work. Commencing with today, Monday, April 1, there will be three gangs of shearers at work in Umatilla county. The first is that of Adolph Johnson and others, who are working on the second is at work on upper Butter creek, about 15 or 20 miles this side of Heppner. The third will go to work today on 10,000 head of sheep at Nolin, the property of Adolph Johnson and others. This last group consists of nine men, with Charles Ingles, of Walla Walla, as foreman. The other eight members are Sam and Jim Feeler, of Athens; Dave Love and John Stanton, of Athens; Scott Johnson, of Pendleton; Adolph Johnson, of Pilot Rock; Rich McMin and some of the boys of Walla Walla. Mr. Ingles says this is probably the swiftest gang of shearers that will work through this country this year. Jim Feeler is the "swift" of the outfit, and Rich McMin is probably the best second hand in the bunch. There is not a second from among them. As a sample of what Jim Feeler can do with a good pair of sheep shears, Mr. Ingles stated that he saw him shear 186 sheep per day for 20 consecutive days in Idaho last year. On another occasion he sheared from 200 to 225 per day, but only for a few days. Sam Feeler is almost as good as his brother Jim. The sheep of this section of the country have much more sand and dirt in their wool than those of Wyoming and Montana, and are consequently harder to shear. The difference is as much as a goat. Rich is doing well if he that a single day he is doing well if he shears around 130 here, while if the sheep were cleaner he could shear 25 to 30 more each day.

THE LAST WEEK OF LENT

HOLY WEEK ENDS PERIOD OF ABSTINENCE AMONG CHURCH PEOPLE. Social Affairs Will Live Next Week. Baster Sale Saturday and Monday.

This is "Holy Week," and the last of the Lenten season. The six weeks of Lent have been a period of abstinence, most formal functions being deferred until after Easter, which comes on next Sunday.

Freedom from the restraints which society traditionally imposes during Lent, local society will take on new life next week, with an impetus occasioned by so long being in a measure denied the pleasures of dance and music and evening party.

The young ladies of the St. Agnes Guild, of the Church of the Redeemer, will have an Easter sale, from which they hope to realize quite a sum of money. A preliminary sale on Saturday of Easter eggs, from 9 to 5 in the afternoon, at which beautifully colored eggs will be offered at prices ranging from one cent to 50 cents, blue, red, green, gold, striped and mottled. Many persons will no doubt desire to purchase their Easter eggs from the sale. The main sale comes on Monday, beginning at 3 p. m., at which all kinds of fancy articles will be disposed of, with home-made confectionery and beautiful linens, and for the first time in Pendleton, "Topsy Turvy." What is "Topsy Turvy"? It is the young ladies themselves who are playing an amateur entertainment. They will proffer the proceeds to the Pendleton academy.

This is entirely voluntary on the part of the young men, who had no request from the academy management for any such thing.

THE NEW FACTORY.

Work Will Commence Within a Month on the Buildings. Robert Andrews, who came here a month ago, has returned from Salem, where he went to file articles of incorporation of the new company formed last week. He has completed arrangements for beginning operations.

Mr. Andrews is associated with Umatilla county gentlemen, and expects to prove that Pendleton is an excellent place in which to operate a manufactory. The success of the Pendleton woolen mills was primarily the thing that induced him to come here. In Chicago, he met the representative of the woolen mills, W. H. Hornum, who was the means of convincing Mr. Andrews of the excellent location of Pendleton and the fine market locally and in the territory tributary.

Work will commence on the buildings within a month. They will be three in number and being 100x250, and power will be secured from the Athena Electric Light & Power company, which will have its cables laid and electric power flowing into Pendleton before long.

The output of the works, an absolute remedy for lath-headed men, will be guaranteed, and the goods will be on the market by the time another April Fool's day comes around.

Seven Years in Bed.

Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Only 30 cents. Tallman & Co.

Barb Wire Abolished.

Marshal Heathman gives one more notice that barb wire must be taken out from all city property, and that this is the last notice he will give. Unless owners proceed forthwith to remove the wire, he will do so at their expense. His action in the premises is supported by the law, and the order, says the chief, must be obeyed and obeyed at once.

Judge W. R. Ellis arrived from Heppner on Sunday and will hold circuit court on Tuesday, April 2. The first case will be from the equity docket, that of Mosh-Tin-tin-o-e vs. Agnes Ferguson and her husband, Charles Ferguson; William Ferguson and Charles Wilkins, Indian agent. Proceeds Elsewhere.

grip, and has been prohibited by his physician from giving any attention to correspondence or business. He is not considered seriously ill, but it is necessary that he should keep quiet for a few days.

FIGHT AT A SHEEP CAMP.

Both Men Were at Work for Charles Cunningham at Spring Hollow Ranch. Happened Sunday Morning.

A telephone message received from Pilot Rock early Sunday morning conveyed the intelligence that a couple of men had had a fight at Charles Cunningham's Spring Hollow ranch, two miles east of his home ranch above Pilot Rock, and that one of the combatants had lost a portion of his nose in the fight. It having been bitten off by the other. During the forenoon, both men arrived in Pendleton. Henry Carroll Powell was the one who had his nose disfigured, and George Cummings the other. Mr. Powell's wound was dressed by Dr. W. G. Cole. Mr. Cummings went to his hand, his drug store and had his hand bitten, but the wound was a small one.

The lambing season is in progress and a dispute arose between the two men as to how the lands should be cared for. Cummings insisted that the matter without resorting to arbitration.

Stabbed at Umatilla. Sheriff William Blakley and Constable John M. Bentley spent Sunday at Umatilla. They learned that a stabbing affray had occurred there on Friday evening between two Indians. One of the Indians received a gash several inches long in the side. By the time the officers arrived, neither one could be found. It is thought they had crossed the Columbia to the Washington side.

Two fist fights occurred in Pendleton Saturday evening. A son of Clay Branstetter knocked Alex McLean down, and afterwards Mr. McLean retaliated by knocking Clay Branstetter down. Young Branstetter worked McLean last harvest, and was paid off and a settlement effected. Saturday evening McLean seemed to remember that he had overpaid Branstetter and the latter couldn't see it. Foul language passed back and forth, but after the two knockdowns, sweet peace followed her wings and brooded gently over the scene.

Fated With a Revolver. J. W. Noble and Art Hicks were before Recorder Beam this afternoon to answer to the charge of having been drunk and disorderly Sunday morning. They were fined $20 each. A gun play was part of their wrongdoing. Owing to the fact that both pleaded guilty, no testimony was heard. Mr. Noble gave his version of the affair as follows: About 5 o'clock Sunday he had taken a revolver belonging to one of the men who run a game at Little Henry's and was about to place it in his pocket. He still tried to get the revolver into the hands of the bartender, but the outsiders got excited and about 8 o'clock Sunday he had taken a revolver belonging to one of the men who run a game at Little Henry's and was about to place it in his pocket.
