

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1901.

Shoes for Misses and Children :: :

Our foot form shoes in lace and Blotters for misses and children are equalled by few, and excelled by none. The fit is perfect, the wear first class. If you are looking for comfort, try a pair.

CLEAVER BROS

Practical Boot and Shoe Men.

BREVITIES.

Try Dutton's ice cream chocolates. Tablets, pencils, inks, books, Noll's, Bicycle, raciale, bicycle. Withes. Buy your window shades at Murphy's.

New wash goods at Cleaver Bros. Dry Goods Co.

Have your pictures framed; latest styles at Murphy's.

New designs in wall paper at Murphy's paint store.

Call and see Crawford bicycles and tricycles at Withes'.

For rent—Outside room in Judd building. Inquiries of E. E. Judd.

Latest novelties in spring goods. See window. Cleaver Bros. Dry Goods Co.

Oldest place and best tanneries, as Le Roy's, cut. Court and Garrison streets.

Cool and refreshing. Seattle Mill-wake beer on tap at the Steamboat.

Call at C. Sharp's and consult Dan Phelps about putting in your water meter.

The latest in bicycles is the cushion frame. Come in and see them. Withes.

N. Berkeley has some very desirable town and country property for sale on easy terms.

Finest hams and lard on the market. Home product; try it, its guaranteed. Schwars & Greenleif.

Two Rambler bicycles for sale or will trade for a span of horses. Address box 145, Lane & Brown.

Lost, a black silk job watchchain, with a gold dollar charm attached. Reward for its return to Ed Switzer.

F. Jones of Helix, dealer in shell and heavy hardware, window glass and all kinds of harvest supplies meets competition.

Spanish chicken tamales are served each evening from 5 to 11 p.m. at Goedeleck & Kirkman's tamale parlor, opera house block.

Mrs. —— was in the store yesterday and she thought our line of spring goods were the neatest in town. Cleaver Bros. Dry Goods Co.

A suite of rooms in the East Oregonian building, hot and cold water, bathroom, for $1 a month during the summer. Apply at the East Oregonian office.

Cameras are being sold this week at a reduction of 25 to 35 per cent at Brock & McComas', Faxon, Wizard magazine Cyclone and Prems—all good makes. See display in north window of the store.

An alarm brought the department to the rear of the Judd building this morning, where fire had started in the fuel of the furnace room. No water was needed, as the fire was easily put out without the use of the hose. Alert Hose company found their hose coiled on the cart wrong end foremost, much to their chagrin.

Blank Books and Stationery.

All the latest Magazines and Periodicals.

A Beautiful line of TOILET ARTICLES.

Tallman Co., LEADING DRUGGISTS

We are Showing

The best Hand Turned Shoes for ladies at $3.00 $3.50 in Eastern Oregon. Every pair warranted and fit guaranteed. Best value in heavy shoes for workingmen in the city. HOB NAILED FREE OF CHARGE.

PENDLETON SHOE COMPANY

Main Street, next door to Hansford & Co.

WEEKLY WILL HEREAFTER HAVE 8 PAGES

The bicyclists of Pendleton, to the number of fifty, are putting up $1 each as a fund to offer as a reward for the arrest, conviction and punishment of bicycle thieves.

There will be a meeting of Protection Hose company at the foundry rooms on Friday evening. This will not conflict with the baseball meeting at the same place, shortly after 8 o'clock.

The Ashwood Prospector, published at Ashwood, Crook County, 20 miles from Shoshone, by Max Lindemann, comes to the East Oregonian, Vol. 1, No. 1, the first issue. It will give news of the Trout creek mining district.

Joel Chitwood has been elected treasurer of the Walla Walla baseball club. The team will commence practicing on Monday, April 8. A contract for putting up grandstand and fencing the grounds was let to J. J. Mangan for $400.

A. L. Barnes, employed by Stephen Gandy, caught his right hand in a job printing press while feeding on Wednesday afternoon, and had the second and third fingers crushed and the little finger broken. The knuckle of the little finger was also crushed. Dr. J. V. McFarland dressed the injured hand and Mr. Barnes left on the train this morning for his home at North Powder, to remain until able to resume work, which will not be for a couple of months at least.

San Cubans Govern Themselves?

One of the best known diplomats recently declared that the Cubans are incapable of governing themselves, and that the United States must maintain its present control indefinitely, or else annex the island. There will be those who dispute this, but there are some who dispute the well established fact that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is capable of controlling the common disease of the stomach. It is a remedy that is backed by fifty years of success. It is an ideal medicine for constipation, a strong purifier for those who are predisposed to lung troubles, and for nervousness. It is of wonderful medicinal value. As an appetizer it is incomparable. Those who stomachs are out of order should not fail to try a bottle.

THE CASE-RAGAINS WEDDING

The Rev. R. W. King, the Evangelist, Unites them in Marriage.

George J. Case and Miss Cora M. Baggett were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother on Marion street, on Wednesday evening.

At 8:30 o'clock, Rev. R. W. King, the Baptist evangelist, performed the ceremony in the presence of a small assemblage. The couple received a number of handsome wedding presents, and many congratulations.

Mr. Case is a farmer who resides near Pendleton.

PEOPLE HERE FOR A DAY.

Walter S. Bowen and Fred K. Bowen, special agents of the Equitable Life of New York, of which L. Samuel, of Portland, is manager for the state of Oregon, are in Pendleton, at the Hotel Pendleton, and will make this their headquarters while pushing the business through this section of the inland Empire. The Equitable Life is the youngest of the old line companies of New York, yet for several years past has done a larger business in New York city and New York state, the home of all the other large companies, than

Pendleton Sent No Protest.

It has been known in Pendleton for three months that Mims' pardon was likely to be granted, and notice was given more than a month ago to the district attorney for that district that application would be formally made March 30 in his office. Notwithstanding this, not a word of protest came in any form from Pendleton, or elsewhere—no objection of any kind.

There is one set of official acts concerning which a governor should be exempt from criticism, it should be his right in the matter of granting pardons, for the reason that no one but himself can know the pathetic circumstances surrounding most of them. Perhaps more than 50 per cent of the prisoners in the "pen" have mothers, or wives or sisters or daughters, who are excellent women, and whose lives are a living torture until a pardon is granted. If you could know of the endless number of these cases that I manage to deny you wouldn't censure me for the occasional ones I grant.

In one of my judicial cases a young man was convicted of rape and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary to begin three weeks hence, but before the three weeks passed, his father secured the signatures of about 400 men in that county asking for his pardon, and, besides, four of the seven grand juries all of the trial jurors, and the presiding judge. Of course, I pardoned him, for why should I blast his life when all those connected with his trial said to me that they had made a mistake?

It is reported that Hans Struve, an old and popular farmer residing a few miles north of Pendleton, has the smallpox.

J. C. Hayes and son have returned from a trip to Seattle, where they disposed of a carload of draft horses at good figures.

Mrs. Maud Deale, injured by falling from a horse on Saturday evening, March 22, left Shoshone afternoon for a visit with relatives at Vancouver, Wash., will return with him.

Word received from Robert Lindsey, at Walla Walla, Wednesday evening, was not of a reassuring nature. He has been in a dangerous condition for several days and further information is anxiously awaited.

Joe Hananee, the well known farmer of the Cold Spring county has a serious case of smallpox. Word received from him is, to the effect that he may not get well, but it is to be hoped that the report is exaggerated.

Rev. G. A. Dotson, who left Pendleton this morning, to take up his work as field agent of the Sunday School Union, has been in McMinnville, where he took a prominent part in the proceedings of a Sunday school convention.

Edwin Switzer left for Portland Wednesday evening to go home a few days. Mrs. Switzer, who has been visiting relatives at Vancouver, Wash., will return with him.

Word received from Robert Lindsey, at Walla Walla, Wednesday evening, was not of a reassuring nature. He has been in a dangerous condition for several days and further information is anxiously awaited.

Joe Hananee, the well known farmer of the Cold Spring county has a serious case of smallpox. Word received from him is, to the effect that he may not get well, but it is to be hoped that the report is exaggerated.

Rev. G. A. Dotson, who left Pendleton this morning, to take up his work as field agent of the Sunday School Union, has been in McMinnville, where he took a prominent part in the proceedings of a Sunday school convention.

Horses Wanted.

Horses weighing from 1000 to 1600 pounds from 3 to 8 years old. Must be sound and in good condition and block built.

J. C. HAYES & SON,

Pendleton, Or.

Yours very sincerely,

WEEKLY WILL HEREAFTER HAVE 8 PAGES

The weekly edition of the East Oregonian which is sent this week to its subscribers has been enlarged by the addition of two pages, making it now an eight page paper. This is very large for a country weekly. It will be thus composed:

8 pages.

64 columns.

48 columns reading matter.

16 columns advertisements.

This weekly paper contains all the world's important news secured through the East Oregonian's own press report received for the daily edition. This telegram news comes in condensed form, no subject being treated at great length, thus enabling the printing of a greater number of subjects than in the case of large city dailies which have such detailed telegraph reports and which print such long articles.

Forty columns of solid brevier type contain 72,000 words. This reading matter is a well digested assortment of telegraph and local news, and editorials, with several articles selected with care from the big Eastern dailies and magazines, and brief northwest and general news notes culled from 100 exchanges.

The total for the 32 issues of the year would be 2,734,000 words. The large number of words in itself would not tell much of a story, for mere words are not of much weight. But, the East Oregonian contends that the reading matter is well suited to the needs of the people of this section of country, all the matter of whatsoever nature being prepared here and being chosen with the sole end of suiting those needs.

The price, $1.50 a year in advance, is cheap indeed for such a publication.

THE PARDON OF E. L. MIMS

GOVERNOR GREE WRITES HIS REASONS FOR GRANTING IT.

Chief Executive Justifies His Action—Says Interest is Great and From Many Sources and Constant.

Governor Greer has sent to the Tribune the following letter:

Salem, April 2.—To the Editor.—For the reason that you have always seemed to be fair, and have been fair, I feel inclined to say that your little paragraph last night regarding the pardon of Mims hurts just a little.

You seemed to have had the bare act of his pardon without the reasons for it, and criticism should be based upon the reasons for an act, rather upon the bare act.

Three-fourths of the jurors held out for absolute acquittal at the trial for 20 hours and a majority vote should always decide a jury verdict, our present system being a relic of barbarism in that respect; and they only agreed to a verdict of guilty upon a further agreement to recommend him to the court for the minimum sentence, which was one year. When the judge ignored their recommendation and gave Mims five years, these jurors said at the time, that if they had supposed the judge would ignore their request, they would have never agreed to a verdict of guilty.

When the application for a pardon was made and these representations were made, I told my friends that if the jurors would make these facts known to me, it would be worth investigating. These facts are now a matter of record in this office and they asked a full pardon for Mims, and I take it that in such cases the jurors know more about the facts than the governor. In addition to this his pardon was asked by the entire delegation in the last legislature from Umatilla county, and by many others of the leading citizens there.

Pendleton Sent No Protest.

It has been known in Pendleton for three months that Mims' pardon was likely to be granted, and notice was given more than a month ago to the district attorney for that district that application would be formally made March 30 in his office. Notwithstanding this, not a word of protest came in any form from Pendleton, or elsewhere—no objection of any kind.

There is one set of official acts concerning which a governor should be exempt from criticism, it should be his right in the matter of granting pardons, for the reason that no one but himself can know the pathetic circumstances surrounding most of them. Perhaps more than 50 per cent of the prisoners in the "pen" have mothers, or wives or sisters or daughters, who are excellent women, and whose lives are a living torture until a pardon is granted. If you could know of the endless number of these cases that I manage to deny you wouldn't censure me for the occasional ones I grant.

In one of my judicial cases a young man was convicted of rape and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary to begin three weeks hence, but before the three weeks passed, his father secured the signatures of about 400 men in that county asking for his pardon, and, besides, four of the seven grand juries all of the trial jurors, and the presiding judge. Of course, I pardoned him, for why should I blast his life when all those connected with his trial said to me that they had made a mistake?

It is reported that Hans Struve, an old and popular farmer residing a few miles north of Pendleton, has the smallpox.

J. C. Hayes and son have returned from a trip to Seattle, where they disposed of a carload of draft horses at good figures.

Mrs. Maud Deale, injured by falling from a horse on Saturday evening, March 22, left Shoshone afternoon for a visit with relatives at Vancouver, Wash., will return with him.

Word received from Robert Lindsey, at Walla Walla, Wednesday evening, was not of a reassuring nature. He has been in a dangerous condition for several days and further information is anxiously awaited.

Joe Hananee, the well known farmer of the Cold Spring county has a serious case of smallpox. Word received from him is, to the effect that he may not get well, but it is to be hoped that the report is exaggerated.

Rev. G. A. Dotson, who left Pendleton this morning, to take up his work as field agent of the Sunday School Union, has been in McMinnville, where he took a prominent part in the proceedings of a Sunday school convention.

Horses Wanted.

Horses weighing from 1000 to 1600 pounds from 3 to 8 years old. Must be sound and in good condition and block built.

J. C. HAYES & SON,

Pendleton, Or.

Yours very sincerely,

T. T. GEER.

BYERS WATER RIGHT CASE.

The Demurrers With Two Exceptions Were Overruled.

Last July G. W. Byers entered suit against George W. Rigby et al., to recover $10,000 damages and for an injunction against them to prevent them from taking water from the Umatilla river. Mr. Byers claims 10,000 inches of that stream by virtue of an act of congress, and avers that if the defendants are allowed to use water from the stream he will not get the water to which he is legally entitled. To the complaint the defendants entered a joint demurral, and several other demurrers were entered individually and in couples.

The case was argued several months ago by John J. Balleray and George Williams, for the plaintiff, and James A. Fee and Carter & Raley for the defendants, and the case taken to the trial court, which print such long articles.

Forty columns of solid brevier type contain 72,000 words. This reading matter is a well digested assortment of telegraph and local news, and editorials, with several articles selected with care from the big Eastern dailies and magazines, and brief northwest and general news notes culled from 100 exchanges.

The total for the 32 issues of the year would be 2,734,000 words. The large number of words in itself would not tell much of a story, for mere words are not of much weight. But, the East Oregonian contends that the reading matter is well suited to the needs of the people of this section of country, all the matter of whatsoever nature being prepared here and being chosen with the sole end of suiting those needs.

The price, $1.50 a year in advance, is cheap indeed for such a publication.

Latest Uptodate Novelties.

Dress Goods and Trimmings.

Special sale for one week commencing Wednesday, April 3rd, and ending Tuesday, April 9th. This will be the Dress Goods sale of the season.

</div