Is a disease of civilization. When the Indian was a stranger to the white man he had no name in his vocabulary for this dreaded malady.

Without arguing as to the curability of consumption, it may be stated positively that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures weak lungs, hemorrhages, bronchitis, deep-seated and stubborn cough, and other diseases which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

LOGAN STATUE WAS UNVEILED IN WASHINGTON

It Was a Very Brilliant Function.

THE PRESIDENT GIVES AN ADDRESS

War Comrades of "Black Jack" Were Present. Grandson Performs Unveiling Act—Gen. Dodge President of the Day—Chauncey Depew Delivered the Set Oration—Logan's Career as Soldier and Legislator Reviewed. Glowing Tribute to the Great Commander Who Rose From Volunteer to Leadership of Union Armies.

Washington, April 9.—In the presence of President McKinley and his cabinet and a distinguished concourse of military men and war veterans, the magnificent bronze statue of Major John A. Logan in Iowa Circle was unveiled this afternoon. Master George Tucket, a grand-son of the great soldier, performed the act of unveiling.

President McKinley made a ringing address, and Senator Depew delivered the oration of the day.

General Logan's Comrades. Logan's old comrades of the societies of the Army of the Tennessee and Army of the Cumberland were conspicuous among those witnessing the ceremony. The military division of the parade, under the command of Gen. Guesater, formed opposite the White House at 1:30 o'clock, followed by a battalion of marines and jack tars, a battery of artillery, the president and the cabinet, and the District of Columbia National Guard. The Grand Army of the Republic veterans formed at Eleventh and the Sixth street circle was reached shortly after 2.

The Statue Presented. General G. M. Dodge, was president of the day. The Reverend Frank Bristol delivered the invocation, followed by Franklin Simmons, who presented the statue to the nation in a brief address. Master George Tucket then released the flag that concealed the statue, and the crowd burst into a mighty cheer. President McKinley then stepped forward on the platform and offered his tribute to General Logan's memory. He said that the statue unveiled today proclaims the country's appreciation of one of her heroic sons, the ideal volunteer soldier of two wars.

Logan as a Legislator. He spoke of the great services of Logan in the legislature of his own state, and in the national house and senate, saying that he was as great in the forum as in the field, that he had convictions and followed them to their conclusions at any cost, and was never a trimmer or laggard. His successor, said the president, was founded on good character, unflinching sincerity, high courage and unremitting industry. Senator Depew followed, and the Rev. J. G. Butler conducted the exercises with prayer.

IMPORTANT TIMBER DECISION. Judge Bellinger Hands One Down in the Goconda Case.

In the case of the United States vs. John T. English and the Goconda Gold Mining company, an important decision has been rendered by Judge Bellinger, of the federal court in Portland. The decision is adverse to the mining company, which is denied the privilege of taking timber from ground held as placer mine.

The company was sued for the timber which was estimated on the penal basis, making a total of $6200. Only $800 was allowed by Judge Bellinger in his decision, which was for the actual value of the timber in the tree. This was because there had been no malicious or criminal purpose on the part of the defendants, as they believed they had a good and sufficient title to the land from which they took the timber.

The two points made in fighting the case was the right of the defendant company to acquire such land as placer claims, and also the right to cut timber from the public domain. Judge Bellinger held that the placer claim title was merely a subterfuge, which of course is true in regard to hundreds of Eastern Oregon claims, and that no rights to the timber accrued because of the pretense of taking the land for mineral purposes. In support of the second contention that the citizens of Oregon had a right to cut timber for mining purposes, by authority of the act of 1878, which gives citizens of Colorado, Nevada and other territories the privilege of removing timber from the public domain for mining purposes, it was argued that Oregon was included, but Judge Bellinger held to the contrary.

Union county will test the law giving the "Panhandle" to Baker county.

A WALLA WALLA SHOOTING

Chris Hillbrick Wounds Tom Yager in the Hand.

OFFENDER APPARENTLY WAS DRUNK He Objected to Yager Talking With His Daughter—First Fight Preceded the Shooting.

Walla Walla, April 9.—A shooting affair almost resulting in a tragedy occurred Sunday afternoon at the residence of Thomas Yager in Jefferson street. Yager and a neighbor, Chris Hillbrick, became engaged in a violent quarrel and during a fight that followed the former was shot in the left hand by Hillbrick. The police were at once notified and Hillbrick is now in the city jail awaiting examination on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. Yager while suffering much pain from the effects of the wound is not thought to be dangerously injured. The injured man when visited by a reporter for the Union yesterday told the following story of the affair:

"Hillbrick and his family recently arrived in Walla Walla from North Dakota and have been living near me but three days. He has been under the influence of liquor most of this time and Sunday morning one of his daughters, a young lady about 20 years of age, came to my place after some milk. Upon her return Hillbrick accused her of visiting my house for the purpose of seeing me. This she denied and her father became violently angry.

"He afterwards came to my house with a bottle of beer, but seemed to be in a pleasant mood. We drank the beer and in the course of conversation I remarked that his daughter was a fine looking girl. He at once became angry and the visit ended in our coming to blows. He then returned home. Later his wife came to our house and said she was afraid of her husband and wanted me to go and see if I could quiet him. I did so, and found that Hillbrick had slapped his younger daughter and was threatening to injure the other members of the family. I remonstrated with him and he ordered me out of the yard. Not wishing to have any further trouble I returned home.

"Mrs. Hillbrick later returned to my place and her husband followed. He called me several names and we again became engaged in a fight. Then he drew a gun and shot me in the hand.

OTTOWA'S FINE PLAYHOUSE Total Loss by Fire—Value $100,000—Insurance $80,000.

Ottawa, Ont., April 9.—Ottawa's handsome playhouse, the Russell theater, was totally destroyed by fire at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The loss is $100,000. Insurance was $80,000. The Russell hotel adjoining had a narrow escape. The guests all left the building, but the fire walls saved it.

Many of the guests were forced to leave all their belongings behind them and escape in night clothes. The "Bell of New York" opera company playing in the theatre lost everything in the way of scenery and costumes.

Rochester Tenement Fire. Rochester, N. Y., April 9.—Fire at 4 o'clock this morning in a five-story tenement caused the loss of one life, that of Mrs. Keenan. Seventeen families occupied the building, but the remainder were rescued by the fire department. At the same hour, the residence of Mrs. Harriet Winters caught fire, and the family of four were nearly suffocated.

Ice Plant Burned. Shreveport, La., April 9.—The plant of the Freeport Ice and Refrigerating company burned last night, the loss being $100,000.

RETAIN THE ARMY RULE. In Cuba, Says Governor-General Wood, Giving Reasons.

Washington, April 9.—Governor-General Wood does not want the military government of Cuba terminated. The Cubans have not accepted the Platt amendment. Until they do, the five thousand American soldiers now in Cuba must stay and the military government be continued, because, if they be withdrawn and then the Platt amendment be rejected, the Platt scheme of Cuban suzerainty could only be enforced by an actual invasion of the island by United States soldiers. That would be equivalent to an open declaration of hostilities.

Allied Commanders Have Solution. Berlin, April 9.—A dispatch from Peking, dated April 7, to the Cologne Gazette states that the allied commanders have arrived at a practical solution of the difficulties attending the negotiations in China.
