HOME TALENT GAVE AN ENTERTAIN-MENT TUESDAY EVENING.

it Was for the Benefit of Pendleton Academy and Pleased the Audience-Some Good Features.

Tuesday evening, the ar ateur minstrel entertainment was given in the Frazer, for the benefit of Pendleton academy. Excepting that the program was too long, by at least one ball hour, the audience was apparently well pleased.

The program consisted of the usual part first and an olio of specialties. The curtain rose as the company sang the opening corus, 'Black America, immediately after which the cracking of jokes, or, in the technical language of modern minstrelsy, "springing of gags," began with songs, solos, duets, and solos with chorus accompaniments, interspersed.

The songs were: "Dreaming," by Geo. Haigh: "Lam, Lam, Lam," by James Welch (Abraham Lincoln) Oliver Kelsay (David Bennett Hill) "Boatman's Song," by Robert Pond:
"Happy Times," by James Estes:
"The Hermit," by J. E. Lathrop:
"Coon, Coon, Coon," by J. W. Myers:

IN REGARD TO BASEBALL

New Material is Coming to the Surface and Will Be Tested.

Several new candidates for baseball conors have come to the surface recently, so that Manager Rader will have plenty of material from which to select a good strong team.
