GENERAL NEWS. English coal miners have decided not to strike on account of the coal tax. The Chicago Theological seminary has accepted the resignation of Dr. Geo. H. Gilbert. The industrial commission is investigating the rate discrimination charged against the railroads. The Jacksonville relief fund now amounts to $88,000 in addition to many trainloads of supplies. The steel trust will close down the Everett, Wash., mill works with other plants now controlled by the trust. The London papers warn the British public against buying American railroad shares at the present inflated prices. Harvard won the intercollegiate golf tournament on the Northfield links, contesting in the finals with Yale for the cup. Princeton formerly held the trophy. During the past 76 years, the American Tract society has issued 32,391,927 volumes of literature, 479,399,719 tracts, 258,401,588 periodicals, making a total of 770,193,114. Chas. W. Foster, ex-secretary of the treasury, formerly called "Calico Charlie," by the democrats, has gone into voluntary bankruptcy at Toledo, Ohio, liabilities being $747,908, no assets. Jules Siegfried, who was France's minister of industry, commerce and colonies in 1892 and 1893, said in Chicago that if the trusts of the United States attempt to enroach on European trade, a combination of European countries will be formed to fight the United States.

THEY SETTLED N. P. STOCK AT $150 TODAY

Shorts Saved From Destruction by Concessions. CALL MONEY, $25,000,000, LOANED On Thursday, Was Not Demanded—Also Call Rates Were Eased Off—Quietude After the Storm. New York, May 10.—Another gray, damp day greeted Wall street men, as they went down town today, but the brokers themselves felt better. They believe that the worst danger is over. One of the earliest rumors of the morning was to the effect that the Northern Pacific corner had been broken. Vanderbilt—"It's Silly." W. K. Vanderbilt, who is an important factor in the stock market, returned from Europe today. He termed the situation as "silly," but refused to make any further comment. His influence will surely be used for peace. Clearing House's Perfect Report. Before the opening there were many offers to bet large sums of money that there would be no failures whatever. This confidence was due to the fact that all the clearing sheets were entered last night in perfect order. It was officially announced this morning that the shorts in Northern Pacific would be allowed to settle for 150 a share. Call Money Not Called. It was also announced that call loans made yesterday aggregating $25,000,000 would not be called today and that the rate of interest would be marked down materially below yesterday's closing rate. Stocks opened strong and higher. Gains of from 10 to 14 points, the last being in St. Paul, were shown in the opening prices. The rally extended throughout the entire list. Business was decidedly active.

NO INJUNCTION SUED OUT

Proceedings Against Harriman and Others Given Up. New York, May 10.—The injunction proceedings brought yesterday against Harriman, Hill, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., J. P. Morgan & Co., and Rudolph Keppeler, restraining them from purchasing any stocks of the Northern Pacific in order to close out customers, have been dropped, it is said, as a result of the announcement that all the shorts would be permitted to settle at 150. You are much more liable to disease when your liver and bowels do not act properly. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove cause of disease. Tallman & Co.

STRONG RALLY IN LONDON

American Railway Shares Recovered on the Stock Exchange. London, May 10.—The market for American railway shares recovered sharply this morning. St. Paul recovered twenty points. Northern Pacific was quoted around 134.

THESE WENT BROKE. Some of the Financial Wrecks Stranded Along the Shore

New York, May 10.—It is reported that among those who went broke yesterday are United States Senator Cockrell of Missouri and James G. Blaine, jr. Senator Cockrell's loss is the savings of his lifetime, and Blaine parted with $500,000 he won recently on Wall street.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

Attempts to Solve the Problem of What is Meant. New York, May 10.—The night closed upon an eventful, trying day without definite settlement as to the Northern Pacific deal, the central figure in the fierce struggle. It was anticipated that there would be an agreement for a settlement with the shorts but it was evidently not finally concluded. Shortly after the market closed it was semi-officially announced that a basis of settlement had been practically agreed upon and that it would be effected before nightfall. At 8 o'clock, however, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. whom the street accepts as the masters of the situation announced that nothing could or would be said as to stock today.

LADIES INVADED M'KINLEY'S CAR AT LOS ANGELES

Left Flowers and Fruits and Potted Plants. VENTURA GAVE THE PRESIDENT The First Glimpse of the Grand Old Pacific Ocean—San Louis Obispo to Be Reached This Evening. Los Angeles, May 10.—Early this morning, just prior to leaving taking, the ladies of Los Angeles invaded the presidential train and transformed the cars into bowers of the fairest Southern California blossoms. All of the trunks of the citrus belt were stored aboard where they will be most easily found to refresh the party during its trip to Santa Barbara. Among the decorations were choice growing plants that will be fresh during the remainder of the trip, and add beauty to the president's home after the excursion is over. Rare Indian baskets filled with cut flowers were hung on the walls of the car, the baskets being presented to Mrs. McKinley as souvenirs of the West. The ladies also placed in the presidential car as a gift to the president and his wife, a Navajo rug of great beauty. Fern balls and wreaths were used in profusion in the decoration, and cut flowers artistically placed relieved the effects of the green foliage. Chinese Make Handsome Gift. Los Angeles, Calif., May 10.—Aboard the presidential special train.—President McKinley said goodbye to Los Angeles at 6 o'clock this morning. All the members of the party turned in at 11 o'clock last night, and the train was pulled out from the depot to avoid the crowd. When the train left, few were present to make a demonstration. A pretty memorial service to Los Angeles was borne away by the president—a handsomely embroidered silk table cover presented by Chinese residents, imported especially for this occasion.

RECEIVED IN VENTURA. There the President Caught First Glimpse of the Pacific.

Ventura, Calif., May 10.—The presidential party arrived this morning and were met at the depot by the local reception committee, of which United States Senator Thos. R. Bard is chairman. An enthusiastic crowd rendered a noisy ovation as the presidential party stepped into the waiting carriages, and drove through the line of spectators in the streets and beautiful orchards, to the old Mission. After a cursory examination of the old historic pile, founded in the early days of California, over a century and a quarter ago, by the pioneer Spanish padres, the president was driven back along the beach to the depot. The visit is made memorable by the fact that President McKinley here obtained his first glimpse of the Pacific ocean, whose future history his administration has done so much to mould. The tide was at low ebb as the presidential carriages stopped on the beach to allow the occupants to gaze over the infinite expanse of blue and roaring fringe of white breakers. Streets Beautifully Decorated. The carriages were decorated elaborately by the Native Daughters of Ventura-by-the-sea. The streets presented a beautiful appearance, gaily strung with banners and bunting, profusely adorned with floral emblems. On Main street, a mammoth arch had been made of wainuts and lemons, for which Ventura is famous, surmounted by oranges and typical products of the country. Between the pillars hung floral gates

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap." Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior? Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies? Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.
