ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Mr. McKay's Death of a Likely Animal.

One of those strange accidents which frequently is to be chronicled, resulted in a dead colt. B. F. McKay, who resides on the reservation a few miles east of Pendleton, rounded up some mares and colts on Thursday, May 16, intending to send the most of them to the mountains and foothills of the summer. He cut out four colts several mares from the bunch, intending to keep them on the ranch, and tied the mares with halters at the hour, intending to drive the animals off right after dinner. In partaking of his meal he went out to look at the stock and found one of the colts had accidentally run into the mares. The mares were so frightened that they ran over the colt, and he was killed within a few minutes. The colt was one week old, of a well-bred mare and was sired by Bonner N. B., belonging to Chris McKay. Mr. McKay stated that it is as handsome a colt as anyone had seen and he would not have sold it for $100 in gold for it. The colt was a promise of being a swiftness and its death under such circumstances is a matter of regret.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although my joints ached and every nerve was on edge," writes C. W. Bell, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, almost as if I were going down. I was about to give up, I got a little of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down men always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Tallman & Co. Price 50 cents.

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK

Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y. Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main Street, Rochester, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in my lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before I took the cold which came so near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds—more than ever. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and my lungs are in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what to call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

EXCURSION TO WALLA WALLA

A LARGE DELEGATION WILL WITNESS THE BALL GAME.

The Train Will Leave Pendleton at 8:15 in the Morning and Walla Walla on Return Trip at 8 p. m.

The great game of baseball between the Pendleton nine and the Walla Walla team will take place on the grounds of the latter on Sunday, May 19. The Pendleton contingent will leave this city on the morning train at 8:15 in the morning and will come back on a special leaving Walla Walla at 6 o'clock in the evening. From Pendleton a delegation of 150 or thereabouts will go over to witness the sport. Many will go for the purpose of enjoying a day with Walla Walla friends who would not care to attend the baseball game.

The Pendleton Nine.

Owing to the fact that Claude and Clarence Penland have conscientious scruples against playing on Sunday, it will be necessary to make several changes. Meach will pitch and Chapler play third base; Barlow will be behind the bat; Captain Hartman will play first, Ulrich second, Cox shortstop, Fletcher center, Dupuis left and either Allen or Cronin right. The batting order will be as follows: Ulrich, 2b.; Cox, ss.; Fletcher, c. f.; Barlow, c.; Hartman, 1b.; Dupuis, l. f.; Chapler, 3b.; Allen or Cronin, r. f.; Meach, p.

Tickets on Sale This Evening.

There is liable to be a rush for tickets Sunday morning. In order to avoid the rush those who intend to go on the excursion will be given an opportunity of getting their tickets in advance, and with that object in view F. F. Wamsley, agent of the O. R. & N., has authorized the statement that tickets will be placed on the depot at 6 o'clock this evening.

Field Sports at Walla Walla.

Field day sports are being held today at Walla Walla, teams being present from the Weston normal, Dayton High school, Walla Walla High school and from the academic department of Whitman college. The athletic manager of the Pendleton High school athletic team, and Jim Wyrick, one of the footracers of the team, went over to Walla Walla to watch the games, so as to get some pointers for the track meeting to be held at Pendleton on Monday, May 27, where the Baker City High school, the Weston normal school and Pendleton High school teams will compete.

PARALYZED THE COURT.

Prosecuting an Offender With a Multitude of Words.

A case of common drunk came before the police court of Pendleton today. The case, however, was not of common words, for the greatest conglomeration of phraseology was fired at the judge that ever came from the lips of an offender. The luckless fellow was not at all over his intoxication, but the officer, presenting him to the court, (he had apparently been reading the New York Sun, for the same combination of words appeared recently in that newspaper) said of the culprit:

"You are drunk, inebriated, tipsy, full, loaded, jagged, fuddled, tight, topheavy, slewed, half-shot, half-zoned, overgone, overtaken, primed, afflicted, elevated, exhilarated, genial, happy, mellow, corned, boozed, winey, groggy, boozed, soaked, chock-a-block, lusher, muggy, loryeyed, muddled, jiggered, foggy, hazy, dizzy, stunned, dazed, moony, dopy, ossified, petrified, paralyzed."

"He has a (glorious or elegant) jag on, a load on, a skate on, a bun on, a brannigan on, a shine on, a still on, an edge on, a skin flit, he has got a cup too much, he has looked on the wrong side of the law, he has been in his bonnet, he has an applejack pat, he has been taking a little of Paddy's eye water or of red eye, he has been crooking his elbow, he has more sail than ballast, he has his main-brace well spliced, he has the sun in his eye, he can't see a hole in a ladder, and he can't lie down without holding on."

"He is half-seas over, three sheets in the wind, on his beam ends under the influence of the weather, over the hay, in the clouds, in his cage, in his pet, off his trolley, off his nut, on a drunk, on a spree, on a bender, on a racket, on a tear, on the ran-tan, or the raw-raw, he is feeling his oats, he is full of mountain dew, full of dope, full of forty-rod booze, full of Jersey lightning, full of tangle-foot, full of bug-juice, he is as full as a tick, full as a goat, full as a bedbug, he is as drunk as a lord, drunk as a boiled owl, drunk as a filder's bitch, drunk as David's sow, he is weak (wabbly) on his pins, all mops and brooms, and about to cast up his accounts." And at last accounts the court was running yet.

GOT HIS MONEY BACK.

Milton Man's Experience With an Astoria Investment.

The following unusual occurrence is recorded by the Milton Eagle:

Last week, through the bank of Milton, Thomas Spence received $750, the same being for money invested a few years ago in West Astoria town lots. Mr. Spence, the man who sold Mr. Spence the lots, guaranteed the return of the money in two years with ten per cent added for interest if the investment did not prove satisfactory. Mr. Spence failed to realize the golden returns expected and the cash was returned promptly and cheerfully on demand as stipulated, and everybody is happy.

BOUQUET FOR PENDLETON'S PITCHER.

Edwin F. Chapler, says the Athena Press, Pendleton's new pitcher who did such splendid work against Colfax Tuesday, came up and umpired the Colfax-Athena game Wednesday. He is an old friend of the former boys on the Athena team, and has played with and against them many times. His friends here speak highly of his qualities as a ballplayer and a gentleman, and Pendleton may congratulate himself on having secured so capable a man.

A "STAGE STRUCK" CANINE.

With Norris & Rowe's big trained animal show, which will exhibit in this city next Friday afternoon and night, under their large waterproof tents, which will be located near the O. R. & N. depot, is a "stage struck" dog. The dog is a cross between a "Yaller" and a cur dog, but is particularly bright and affectionate. Hamlet "joined out" with the show at New Westminster last season of his own volition. The dog was noticed around the tents all day with a sort of "wish-I-was-with-the-show" look in his eye. After the performance in the evening when the men were loading the cars, they found Hamlet seated on the front steps of the baggage car. They tried to make him go away, but he determinedly remained where he was seated and the endeavors of the men to get him to go, were of no avail, so as a last resort they placed him inside with the other dog actors. Hamlet made friends of his canine companions and was soon the favorite of all the attaches. He was taken in hand by Professor Norris and he showed a willingness and aptitude for learning tricks that was nothing short of phenomenal. Hamlet is now one of the star performers with Norris & Rowe's show. Unlike the other dogs he is given the freedom of the tents; and comes when he pleases, but Hamlet never abuses the trust and confidence put in him. He is a great dog and no mistake.

ELUQUANT PARIAN GOWNS.

Ladies in "What Did Tomkins Do" Ladies in "What Did Tomkins Do"

The comedy of the season in Pendleton will be the appearance of Harry Corson, Clarke, who is well remembered from the bit he made last season in "What Happened to Jones." He is supported by a New York company in a brand new farce entitled "What Did Tomkins Do?" Judging from the press criticisms, Mr. Clarke has scored a hit of huge proportions in his latest attempt, the opinion obtaining that his performance is the very top notch of comic effort.

JACOB FRAZER'S LAST WILL.

TESTAMENT OF THE OLD PIONEER MADE KNOWN.

Eureka Lodge, No. 32, I. O. O. F., is the Principal Legatee.

The last will and testament of the late Jacob Frazer has been made public. It was executed on October 7, 1897, having been drawn up by John H. Lawrey and signed by Jacob Frazer in the presence of T. R. Wells and C. J. Smith. Mr. Alexander is made executor without surety or sureties, or bond of any kind whatsoever. The following legacies were left: To Eva Frazer, of Eugene, his only grandchild, $10; to his five brothers and two sisters, William, George, Montgomery, Andrew J., James, Eliza Shanks, and Ellen Johnson, he left $1 each. Then came the following paragraph:

"I devise and bequeath all the other estate and effects, whatsoever, and wheresoever, both real and personal, to which I may be entitled, or which I may have the power to dispose of at my decease, unto Eureka lodge, No. 35, I. O. O. F., of Pendleton, Yamhill county, Oregon, absolutely."

The estate in the hands of the executor consists of $843.85 in money, according to the inventory. After settling all legacies and paying all other expenses incident to the estate, there will remain about $500 for Eureka lodge. It might be proper in this connection to state that Eureka lodge has had a horse for Mr. Frazer for about half the time during the past four or five years, and all the time day and night, for the past 11 months.

It is believed that the brothers and sisters of the deceased mentioned in the bill reside in Iowa.

ATHENA'S PRODUCE MARKET.

Press Says It is Good and Benefits the Town.

Athena merchants have no trouble in disposing of produce bought from the farmer, says the press. Athena has access both to the Portland and Samsam markets, for reason that two lines of railroads give her these facilities—facilities which both merchant and farmer profit by to a great extent. As a trading point Athena has always been head and shoulders above other towns in the "East End," and 25 years ago she predominately increases her lead in the commercial race. During the past years thousands of tons of potatoes and have been found a market in Athena. Here the produce was loaded on the cars for shipment west. The producer got his cash and before leaving took a goodly portion was left with the merchant in exchange for the produce. It takes all kinds of push to make a good trading point, and this produce push is about the best push we have been up against. It brings trade to Athena and trade is what Athena is after.
