SHEEPED TO DEATH.'

I. T. Mayfield, of Baker county, Oregon, writes to the Breeders' Gazette, telling how he thinks the stance, he says that we are "sheeped cycle of pure commercialism, whose to death." Mr. Mayfield is correct. We are sheeped to death, and we are cattled to death, and we are people insensible either to money or empire? Wrong, morally wrong, says death. In short, the custom of permitting free range to all live stockmen has given them a feeling of proprietor-can traditions, says Mr. Bryan? Why, ship until they have come to demand it as a right. They have forgotten that no other industry has such privileges, slavery, might be so described. But, unless it be the miners, who, also, are rather inclined to the same sort of arrogance as is exhibited by the grow ers of live stock.
