TIPPITT'S NECK WAS BROKEN

OLD PIONEER MET INSTANT DEATH TUESDAY EVENING.

Runaway Accident Happened Near Eagle Sawmill in Southern Umatilla County 38 Miles From Pendleton.
Hesekiah Tippitt met instant death in a runaway accident on Tuesday afternoon June 4, at about 5 o'clock, having his neck broken. The news was brought to Pendleton Wednesday morning by Hiram Smith, who arrived in this city, at about 7 o'clock. From all available sources the following facts have been gleaned.

Four Horses Ran Away.
Mr. Tippitt is a stockman who resides on upper Butter creek 12 miles south of Vinson and 38 miles south of Pendleton. On Tuesday he had taken a wagon and four-horse team to the mountains, accompanied by Jake Pearson, going after timbers for Hiram Smith, a nearby neighbor. The timbers had been loaded on the wagon and the men were on the return trip and had got as far along on the road as a point near the Eagle sawmill of E. A. McLaughlin, when the load of wood slipped forward. One of the horses was inclined to be wild, and that started the serious trouble. The four horses became unmanageable and got away. Both Mr. Tippitt and Mr. Pearson were thrown from the wagon, the latter escaping practically unhurt. Not so with Mr. Tippitt. He fell in front of the wagon on the off side and the front wheel of the wagon struck him on the neck, breaking it, and breaking his jaw also. He also was otherwise mangled by the wagon. Death was instantaneous.

One Horse Was Killed.
The wreck of the wagon was complete and the harness was torn and broken in many places. One of the horses became tangled up with the others, was dragged, injured and had to be killed.

Word Sent to Pendleton.
The remains of the deceased were taken to his home. News of the accident quickly spread, and Hiram Smith was among those who went to the Tippitt home to assist in the work of straightening up the sad details. Mr. Smith left at 11 o'clock at night, drove to Vinson, 12 miles, thence to Pilot Rock, 10 miles, where he changed horses and came on to Pendleton, 16 miles, arriving in this city at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Tippitt's first wife, from whom he had been divorced, resides in Pendleton, with her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Scheil. They were notified. The present Mrs. Tippitt, who had been married previously to her marriage with Mr. Tippitt, has a daughter-in-law in Pendleton, Mrs. Maggie Clark. Mr. Smith started on his return trip a few minutes past 10 o'clock, accompanied by Mrs. Scheil and Mrs. Clark. George Clark, son of Mrs. Tippitt, and Sylvester Tippitt, a son of deceased, both of whom are at Joseph, Wallowa county, were notified by Mr. Smith by telephone.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral is to occur at 10 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, June 6, interment with on the Tippitt farm near the grave of a grandchild. Mr. Tippitt having on numerous occasions expressed his wishes in that regard.

A Brief Biography.
Hesekiah Tippitt, the victim of the accident was born about 75 years ago and lived in Missouri during his early life. He came to Oregon in 1852 and settled in the Willamette valley. He remained there until 1866, when he came to Umatilla county, where he has since resided. He secured the ranch where he has been living recently in 1875 and engaged in the stock business, having cattle and horses, and also engaged in lumbering. He was of considerable force and character and had the confidence of a large circle of friends, who regret the terrible accident which placed him in an untimely grave.

BLAIR TEAM BEAT ATHENA.

Spokane Business College Makes Score 9 to 2.
Athena, June 4.—With the wind blowing a terrific gale the Blair business college ball team of Spokane, and the "Yellow Kids" played seven innings of the slicest kind of ball on the home grounds on Monday. In the eighth, the visitors scored eight runs after three men should have been out, and the game, which looked safe and sure to the home team up to that time, finally went to the Spokane team by a score of 9 to 2.

Up to the eighth, both sides had played errorless ball, and some neat hitting was done on both sides. Long hits were impossible against the strong wind, and the infielders did most of the work. Athena scored in the third inning, Murphy and G. Brown scoring on a two-bagger by R. Brown. That was all they got, but it looked like enough up to that unlucky eighth inning, for Spokane had been blanked repeatedly.

Trouble came in the eighth, and came in large doses. R. Brown, who had pitched splendid ball up to that time, gave the first two men up bases on balls. Morris went out, but McElroy walked to first. Yates sent the ball to the infield, and G. Brown headed off Kuran at the plate, but Murphy dropped the ball. Elsdon flew to left, and Bell, after having difficulty in judging the ball in the strong wind, finally muffed it.

Bradbury was hit by a pitched ball, and another score was scored in Killam came up with a two-bagger, and, before two more men could be put out, eight runs had been placed to Spokane's credit. It was certainly a disastrous inning and was as unexpected as an earthquake. Willard pitched the ninth for Athena, and one more score was made by Spokane.

It was a hard game to lose, and the little band of rooters who braved the wind storm to witness it took it to heart, as well as the players. The following is the line up:
Spokane—McElroy, 1b; Yates, 1. f.; Elsdon, 2b; Wagner, 3b; Killam, cf; Kuran, cf; Marshall, 3b; Morris, p.
Athena—G. Brown, ss; Willard, 3b; R. Brown, p.; Cartano, 3b; Saunders, 1b; Lieualten, c. f.; Dell, 1. f.; Francis, r. f.; Murphy, c.
Score by innings:
Spokane.....0 2 2 4 5 6 7 8 9
Athena.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Somebody to the game. Safe hits—Spokane, 4; Athena, 5. Errors, Spokane, 1; Athena, 3. Two-base hits, Killam, R. Brown. Stolen bases—Spokane, 5; Athena, 2. Hit by pitched balls—By Morris, 1, by Brown, 2. Bases on balls, by Brown, 5.
