Collier left on Wednesday for San Francisco. She will remain for a month. Tom Delaney will leave on the Chicago-Portland special this afternoon for Kentucky. Jim Wesley will leave for Jefferson on Monday morning to remain during the town's tournament. Jacob Shensman has returned from a wool-buying trip to Baker City and other Eastern Oregon cities. Baker City Herald's Shensman, a prominent wool buyer of Pendleton is in the city, quartered at the Sagamore. County Commissioner Horace Walker is in Pendleton today from Helix and conferred with County Judge Hartman regarding some bridge matters. Frank George Conser, of Heppner, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Brock. Mrs. Conser came here from Portland, and will return home in a few days. Frank G. Hull, of the Milton, Pendleton and Lawton Standard, was in Pendleton Friday and went up to Milton this morning. W. J. Furnish and E. P. Marshall were in this morning from a trip to Portland as witnesses in the big mining suit over the Oregon King company property. S. A. Manning, who until recently has been in the hardware business at McMinnville, is a guest of Rev. R. W. King, and many decide to locate in Umatilla county. J. P. Walker and A. D. Stillman were in this morning from a trip to Portland from Green Arnold camp, No. 10. Native Sons, to attend the grand camp at Portland on Wednesday, June 12. Ben Burroughs, Jr., arrived in Pendleton Friday evening from Seattle, where he has been attending the Washington state university. He will remain in Pendleton during the summer. W. H. Babt, of Echo, is a visitor in Pendleton today. He contemplates going to Portland on Sunday, June 9, and attend the Masonic grand sessions on Monday and for several days thereafter. Cecil Wade, of Pendleton, took part in the Whitman college oratorical contest Friday night. It was won by Wm. J. Kennel, who will represent the college next year in the Inland Empire contest. Dalles Chronicle: Mrs. C. Van Orsdall, grand guardian of Women of Woodcraft, will deliver the unveiling address at Sunset cemetery, for the Woodmen of the World, on Sunday, June 9, at 2:30 p. m. Miss Winnie Simpson, on Sunday on Monday for Lewiston, Idaho, where she will accept a position in a store. Her sister, Miss Grace Simpson, accompanies her, to remain as a guest of relatives during the summer. T. E. Fell writes to Walter from Skagway, telling of seeing a baseball game there in the evening. At 10 o'clock p. m., Mr. Fell left the grounds, and the game was yet in progress, so long does daylight linger in that far northern clime. Ward W. Silver, who was an instructor in Pendleton academy, has been elected principal of Washburn academy, Topeka, Kansas, which is the preparatory department of Washburn college, Topeka. Mr. Silver is an alumnus of Washburn. Prairie City correspondence Baker City Herald: Elmer Cleaver, the indefatigable mining promoter, started to the Will Cleaver group, on the south side of Strawberry mountain, this morning accompanied by the Feres boys to inaugurate extensive development of those claims. Miss Adelaide, a sister of Mrs. George Sandman, of this city, was graduated from the High school at The Dalles on Saturday evening, June 1, with the highest honors. The commencement exercises were very interesting and Miss Bell came in for praise for the part she performed therein. Ben Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Davis, spent Friday in Pendleton and left this morning for Portland in response to a telegram from Superintendent J. P. O'Brien, of the O. R. & N. Mr. Davis is located at Tekoa in the employment of the O. R. & N. He expects to remain at Portland for a couple of days, thence home via the Northern Pacific. County Recorder J. W. Maloney left this morning for Arlington where he will be joined by County Judge W. M. Calk, of Portland; W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles; and L. E. Stinson, of Salem. These four are grand officers of Knights of Pythias and will visit the castle of Gilliam, Wash., on their trip, which will engage their time during a vacation of two weeks. Pendleton Academy teachers. Teachers at Pendleton academy have planned to spend the summer vacation as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Forbes will remain in Pendleton for the greater portion of the intermission. R. S. Pond is to remain here also. He intends to take up special work this summer in preparation for the coming school year. Miss Hanna will visit friends in one or two other places. Miss Wallace is teaching in Meacham. Miss Beagle remains here for the summer. Mr. Downie, the new instructor, will arrive late in the summer. Happenings. From the Times: Mrs. Vaughan, the wife of Dr. Eugene Vaughan, Pendleton, is over visiting her relatives and numerous old-time friends in this city. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Matlock in this city last Wednesday evening, Miss Julia Hart, the talented pianist, gave a recital by her pupils, which was enjoyed by a large number of invited guests. Rev. J. D. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lucy, Mr. T. W. Ayers, Miss Lillie Driskell and Miss Myra Yeager, all left for The Dalles the first of the week to attend the annual convention of the Middle Oregon Baptist association. "Doc" Matlock returned home last Monday night from the state university at Eugene to remain for the summer. "Doc" occupies a prominent position in the athletic arena of this city, and his return from school is always welcomed. Miss Elizabeth Matlock and her friends Mrs. John Minto, of Portland, and Mrs. Campbell, of Tekoa, Wash., all left for the latter place the first of the week for a pleasant visit. They are both friends of Miss Matlock and were delightfully entertained at her home in this city for a week or so. From the Gazette: Prof. W. C. Howard of Milton, and his sister of Spokane, are visiting their brother in this city. Swinburne and daughter, Miss

They formerly resided in this city, and they may decide to remain permanently. The wedding of Miss Agnes E. Adams and William M. Proctor is announced to take place in this city next Wednesday. Rev. S. B. L. Penrose, of Whitman college, will officiate. Miss Adams and Mr. Proctor are both members of the graduating class of 1901. W. D. Schlutt, a former Whitman college student, has just been graduated from the law department of the university of Oregon. He was admitted to the bar this week, and will probably practice his profession in Portland. Mr. Schlutt has many friends in this city. The marriage of Miss Clarice Windship Colton and Walter Andrew Bratton has been postponed from Wednesday, June 12, to Thursday, June 13. On Thursday evening a reception will be given in their honor at the residence of president and Mrs. S. B. L. Penrose, College street. From the Union: Mrs. J. A. Munra, of Meacham station has been visiting friends in the city. Republican: B. L. Stowell was up from Portland on a visit over Sunday. Mr. Stowell is now a student of law as well as following the vocation of stenographer. H. J. Hackenberry, of Carbondale, Penn., has been employed as principal of the La Grande public school for the coming year in the place of Prof. Starkweather. Union. Scout: Roy Conklin, assistant principal and manager of athletics of the Pendleton school, arrived in Union Wednesday for a short visit. Chicken Dinner. The Golden Rule hotel will give a big chicken dinner tomorrow and from the preparations being made it will certainly be a very fine spread. Since Conrad Kohler has taken charge of the Golden Rule he is making the dining room a special feature of the house. Everybody is invited.
