HOW THE GAME WAS WON

The Pendleton Baseball Team Returned Wednesday From Heppner.

The game of baseball at Heppner on Tuesday, June 11, resulted in favor of the Pendleton team by a score of 5 to 2. A telegram announcing the result reported in the East Oregonian of that date, but the particulars have been fully called for. The Pendleton boys arrived home on the train Wednesday morning, with the exception of Captain Hartman, Cox, Dupuis and Fletcher. They liked the town so well and were so warmly treated they remained to witness some of the tournament events and attend the dance on Wednesday evening in honor of the victors.

The Baseball Game.

The game was witnessed by an immense crowd, the Pendleton delegation being present in small numbers with the exception of the geometrical club to the crowd. Heppner was the first to score, in the fourth inning, although Cox, the second man up for Pendleton, in the first inning, cracked a three-base hit, but he never got any farther. Barrett for Heppner after two were out in the fourth made a pass ball, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on a passed ball. Heppner's second and last run was made in the sixth. Spaulding reached first on Clarence Penland's error, and went to second while Dunbar was being thrown out at first. Barrett came to the rescue with a safe hit to short right field, on which Spaulding scored. Barlow threw the ball home, where Clarence Penland caught it, then threw it to Hartman, who caught Barrett out of the base.

Pendleton Made a Few.

After Heppner had gotten nicely started with a run in the fourth, the Pendleton boys decided to make a few runs there so as to allay all feeling of danger to those who had wagered sundry amounts on the game. Saunders led off the fifth inning with a double and Clarence Penland brought him home with a single. The latter scored on an out and an error, and Pendleton led 2 to 1. In the sixth inning Hartman first knocked Edzy to Brian and was out. Then Mr. Brown

WOOL AND WHEAT MARKET

MILLERS PAY FIFTY CENTS FOR NO. 1 IN PENDLETON.

Wool Comes in Large Quantity and Sells Rapidly at Prevailing Prices. 7 to 10 1-2 Cents. Pendleton, June 13.—Local millers continue to pay 50c for No. 1 club and red chaff delivered at the mills, but only 47c at outside warehouses. The exporters do not seem to be anxious to do much business at prevailing prices. Ordinarily the difference between wheat delivered at the Pendleton mills and that at outside warehouses is 1 1/2c, but owing to failure of exporters to bid up on it, the price has dropped at the latter places, while remaining stationary for wheat delivered.

Pendleton, June 13.—Wool keeps coming in rapidly, with large sales at prevailing prices, 7 to 10c. The bulk of it is bringing 10c. The low prices are for less than 10 per cent of the wool clipped in an Umattilla county.

Local Produce Market. Pendleton dealers are paying the following prices for ranch and farm produce:

Butter, 35 to 40c per roll. Eggs—17c per doz. Turkeys—Alive, 12 1/2c per pound. Geese—$12 per dozen. Ducks—$4.50 per dozen. Chickens—$3.50 to $4.50 per dozen. Potatoes—$1.75 to $2 per sack. Strawberries—Walla Walla, three boxes for 25c.

New potatoes are just coming into the market, being brought in by local farmers. Dealers are paying 2 1/2c per pound and selling them for 3c.

Portland Wheat Review. Portland, June 13.—The commercial editor of the Oregonian says:

The wheat market was still flying the distress signal yesterday and while quotations of 50 cents were still obtainable for Walla Walla in this market, there was not much desire to do business, and as has been the case for the past month, little or nothing was offering. The country has not so thoroughly named out that the season in the Northwest is practically at an end, the limited amount of business that is now offering being of a cleaning up nature preparatory for the coming season. With the old crop particularly all out of the way, interest now centers on that which is growing. No serious damage has been reported yet, over any great extent of country, but frost in some sections east of the mountains has left its mark.

Portland, June 13.—The Commercial Review says:

The market is quiet and easier; the demand from shippers has ceased for this season's loading and ships chartered for July and August prior to arrival have cargoes waiting for them; in fact, there is plenty of wheat yet to be had if any shipper would charter a ship or steamer nearby for prompt loading. Some sales have been made daily during the past week. Some sellers who have fair parcels left have offered same for sale at fancy figures, but the same was not obtained. Some business that is being done at present is to complete cargoes for July loading. Warehouse stocks here in Portland and Tacoma are ample for the engaged fleet. The general conditions of the growing crops throughout Oregon and Washington were further improved by the late rains. We quote Walla Walla club, 50 to 61c; bluestem, 62 to 63c per bushel.

Government Report. Washington, June 13.—Preliminary reports of spring wheat acreage indicate a reduction of about 1,200,000 acres, or 6.4 per cent. Of the 20 states reporting 10,000 acres or upward in spring wheat, eight report an increase aggregating about 34,000 acres, and 12 a decrease amounting to about 1,257,000. There is an increase in acreage of 10 per cent in New Mexico, seven per cent in Nevada, four per cent in Arizona, three per cent in Michigan, two per cent in Montana and Utah, and one per cent in Wyoming and Washington, while in Iowa there is a decrease of 13 per cent, Oregon eight per cent, Kansas seven per cent, Wisconsin and Minnesota six per cent, Illinois, South Dakota, North Dakota and California five per cent, Idaho four per cent, and Colorado, two per cent.

The average condition of spring wheat on June 1 is 92.0, as compared with 87.3 at the corresponding date last year, and 91.4 on June 1, 1899.

Wool Review. Boston, June 13.—The demand for wool here continues quiet and the general conditions hold about the same. There is no speculative feeling noticeable and manufacturers are moderate in their purchases by their needs. The difference in price between fine and medium wools is widening and this is mostly due to the further weakness of the latter. The market for territory wool continues to head the list in the volume of business transacted. Australian wools hold in a steady position, but sales are moderate.

Territory scoured basis, Montana fine medium and fine, 13 to 14c; scoured, 40 to 42c; staple, 14 to 15c; scoured, 44 to 45c; Utah, Wyoming and Idaho fine medium and fine, 12 to 13c; scoured, 40 to 42c; staple, 14 to 14 1/2c; scoured, 36 to 37c.

Australian scoured basis, spot prices combed, superfine, 71 to 72c; good, 65 to 70c; average, 65 to 67c.

San Francisco, June 13.—Wool—Spring, Nevada, 10 to 12c; Eastern Oregon, 10 to 13c; Valley Oregon, 13 to 14c; mountain lambs, 7 to 8c; San Joaquin plains, 6 to 7c; Humboldt and Mendocino, 9 to 10c.

Eastern Livestock. Omaha, June 13.—Cattle—Receipts, 3500; market, steady to 5c lower. Native beef steers, $4 to $5; Western steers, $4 to $4.50; Texas steers, $3.50 to $4.50; cows and heifers, $3.50 to $4.70; canners, $2.80 to $3.40; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $3.80; calves, $3 to $7; bulls and stags, $3 to $4.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 12,500; market, steady to lower. Heavy, $5.92 to $6; mixed, $5.90 to $5.92; light, $5.85 to $5.90; bulk of sales, $5.90 to $5.92. Sheep—Receipts, 1200; market, 10 to 15c lower. Fed wethers, $2 to $4.30; grass wethers, $3.50 to $4.50; common and stock sheep, $3 to $3.75; lambs, $4.25 to $5.10.

Hops, Wool, Hides, Etc. Portland, June 13. Hops—12 to 14c per pound. Wool—Valley, 11 to 13c; Eastern Oregon, 7 to 11c; mohair, 20 to 21c per pound.

Sheepskins—Shearings, 15 to 20c; short wool, 25 to 35c; medium-wool 30 to 50c; long-wool, 60c to $1 each. Tallow—$c; No. 2 and grease, 2 to 2 1/2c per pound.

Hides—Dry hides, No. 1, 16 pounds and upward, 14 to 15c; dry kip, No. 1, 5 to 16 pounds, 14 to 15c per pound; dry calf, No. 1, sound steers, 6c pounds and over, 7 to 8c; do, 50 to 60 pounds, 7 to 7 1/2c; do, under 50 pounds, 6 1/2 to 7c; kip, 10 to 30 pounds, 6 1/2 to 7c; do veal, 10 to 40 pounds, 7c; do calf, under 10 pounds, 7 to 8c; green (unsalted), 1c per pound less; culis (bulls, stags, moth-eaten, badly cut, soiled, hair-slipped, weather-beaten or grubby, one-third less.

"Portland, Or., June 7, 1901.—The committee on Rivers & Harbors, House of Representatives, United States, will arrive in Portland Friday morning, the 28th inst., and will be the guests of the commercial organizations of this city.

"It is very essential that they should be received not only with courteous attention, but it is a matter of paramount importance that all of the commercial bodies of this section should unite in order to make the visit of that committee memorable, and one of great value in their further deliberations looking to the improvement of our rivers and harbors. The necessity of making the members of this committee more familiar with the great Columbia river and its tributaries, and having them thoroughly informed as to our needs in connection therewith, calls upon us in the greetings to be extended, and in the preparation for their reception and the trips essential to acquaint them with the requirements of this section.

"An early reply will greatly assist us in preparing a suitable program for showing them the country to the utmost degree permissible in the few days that they will spend here."

HENRY MAHN, President. Pursuant to this request, President Palmer, of the Baker chamber, has appointed the following five men as representatives: F. Basche, F. L. Moore, W. J. Patterson, W. C. Cowgill and L. Levinger.
