Morris & Whitehead, of Portland who bought the voted issue of $6000 additional water bonds at 55g per cent interest, afterward declined to talo them on account of a technical flaw in the charter clause authorizing munici pal indebtedness. Since then Mayor Blair has been giving his personal at tention to the matter of securing funds, and through his efforts a short term loan was negotiated with Hon. L B. Keeder, of Pendieton. The bonds run for two years, which time the city will be able have its charter amended by the legislature and get money at a lower rate of interest. They are for $4000, this amount being deemed sufficient to complete the improvements, and bear in
