Decided This Afternoon.

Rader decided that the trial of the baseball club north will not be taken at this time. The game that was to have been played in Walla Walla on Monday, June 18, it will be called at such an hour as will enable spectators to see it and get back to Pendleton on the regular train the same afternoon.

The Idaho state fair has been abandoned for this year, and the subscription of $5000 made by the Chamber of Commerce will be turned over for the use of the mining congress. In a set of resolutions adopted by the directors, it was stated that on account of the adoption of conflicting dates by the Spokane Fair association, and probability of exhibition due to uncertain weather and consequent loss to farmers, it was believed that the benefits to be derived from a fair would not justify the expenditures necessary.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST.

Mrs. Jessie S. Vert, of Pendleton, has ended her year as grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon. The laws of the order provide the reelection of a grand worthy matron, whose name was not a candidate at the election in Portland. In the performance of her duties Mrs. Vert has traveled by railroad 5002 miles, by stage 1076, and by boat 378. The new gavel Mrs. Vert wielded at the grand convocation was quite a history. It was made from a mahogany bedstead used for more than 150 years, in Mrs. Vert's father's family, at Kerriemuir, Scotland, the "Tirums" of J. M. Barrie. The gavel was sent out to Mrs. Vert by her sister, Mrs. James Wilkie. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Marie Beagle, grand marshal. Mrs. Clara A. Marsden, of Burns, was Mrs. Vert's successor.

In Portland, Thursday night, articles of incorporation were adopted by the Society of the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers, and permanent organization was effected. After organizing officers and board of directors were selected, as follows: President, M. C. George; vice president, Mrs. J. N. Teal; secretary, Mrs. I. W. Pratt; treasurer, Mrs. Laura V. Mutch; directors, to serve one year, Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. Laura V. Mutch, two years, Mrs. I. W. Pratt and R. M. Sturt; and three years, Mrs. Harriet B. Kallen and Edwin Mays; four years, Mrs. M. L. Myrick and Frederick V. Holman; five years, Miss Henrietta E. Failing and M. C. George.

W. E. Woods, a member of the Eastern Oregon state normal school athletic team and who took part in the field meet in Pendleton a few weeks ago, was a guest of the Hotel Pendleton on Friday evening.

Charles Ferguson, agent at Mission of the Pacific Coast Elevator company, was in town today and will return Sunday to see the baseball game between the barbers and printers, with sympathy for the former.

W. L. Gibson, of Nyssa, Or., a partner of C. C. Hunt, has been in Pendleton for a couple of days and will leave at 5:25 for home. He is the agent at Nyssa of N. K. Parsons, the big cattleman of Salt Lake City. Mr. Parsons expects to bring two carloads of cattle, or 1000 head, to Pendleton soon for sale. They are feeders, and he has already sold 30 head of yearlings, and only awaits a favorable opportunity for shipment.

GRADING WEBB STREET.

The Work Will Not Be Completed Before October 1.

G. A. Smith and W. H. Smith, contractors for the grading and graveling of Webb street, say that the work will be finished about the first of October. The improvement extends a length of 25 city blocks, which with the intervening cross-streets makes a total distance of about 27 blocks, or one and one-fifth miles. The contractors are now figuring upon the purchase of a rock crusher of the most improved pattern.

Work is being completed at the rate of one city block every four days.

From the Press: Mrs. Inez Stanfield, of Echo, and her friends, Myrtle Hill, of Hot Springs, visited in Athena Thursday of last week.

George Murphy, the new catcher on the Athena ball team, will remain in Athena for some time. Mr. Murphy is a very pleasant young gentleman who follows the profession of school teaching in the winter months.

T. F. Howard, a leading architect of Pendleton, was in the city, accompanied by Felix Roumagoux, A. Dejonghever and Mr. Johnson, stonework contractors. They came up to look over the normal school site and examine the plans.

The wedding of Mr. Andrew Larson and Miss Della Detraw was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Detraw, in this city.

H. W. Monical, vice president of the normal school faculty and superintendent of sciences, will attend the summer school at Chicago University during vacation.
