ALL READY TO CELEBRATE

A PROGRAM HAS BEEN ARRANGED OF GREAT INTEREST.

Racing, Sports, Exercises, Parade, Dancing, and a Double-Header Baseball Game on the List.

A history of July Fourth, 1901, will be of interest as long as any live who participate in the program thereof. To be complete it will embrace a record of the doings of one of the busiest days that can be imagined. The indications are that from 7000 to 10,000 people will be present in the monster demonstration in commemoration of the birth of the nation in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, 125 years ago. Patriotism will be at flood tide, and anyone who cannot amuse or interest himself in some way in connection with the events of the day must be deaf, dumb, blind-dead.

During the Day.
The program for the midnight preceding the Fourth will be informal. It need not be presumed for a minute that bells will not be rung, whistles blown, anvils fired and the night made generally hideous by turning Pandemonium loose. That is to be expected. While agonizing, it is to be expected, and is the way Americans will take all over the country, from Porto Rico to the Philippine Islands via the United States and Alaska, to show that "we are the people."

Dancing Will Commence Tonight.
The dancing will commence at the pavilion on West Court street at 8:30 o'clock this evening with the Pendleton orchestra of six pieces. Gentlemen will be charged 50 cents, ladies free.

There will be dancing at the pavilion on the afternoon and evening of July 4, which will be free to ladies and gentlemen and all are cordially invited to participate.

There will be dancing at the pavilion also on Friday and Saturday evenings, when the gentlemen will be charged 50 cents.

The Morning Parade.
The monster parade on the morning of July Fourth will form on Main street south of West street and in the vacant lots of the O. R. & N. passenger and freight depots at 10:30, so as to start the procession at 1 o'clock promptly. The line of march will be down Main to Water, up Water to Thompson, up Thompson to Court, down Court to the pavilion on Switeler's lot, two blocks below Main street.

Pavilion Exercises.
The exercises at the pavilion will be as follows: "Star Spangled Banner," Pendleton brass band; reading Declaration of Independence, Mrs. Wm. Fitzgerald; "America," sung by audience, lead by Prof. R. S. Pond; oration, by Hon. C. M. Idleman, of Portland; music by band.

Double-Header Baseball Game.
On the afternoon of July 4 there will be a double-header game of baseball for one price of admission. Promptly at 1:30 p. m. the procession will form near the corner of Court and Main streets, march up Main to Alta, down Alta to the baseball grounds, where Athens and Heppner will contest in the first game of the tournament. After that game, without any wait, the second game of the double header will take place, with Dayton and Pendleton as contestants.

Sports Follow Baseball.
Lee W. Held, chairman having charge of the sports, announces that promptly upon arrival of the crowd from the baseball game foot-racing, bicycle races, peanut races and hurdle races will commence, 5 o'clock p. m. being the hour set for these sports.

Dancing will be on at the pavilion from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. Dancing in the evening will commence at 8:30 and continue until midnight.

There will be an illuminated parade in the evening. It will form at the court house and the line of march will be down Court to Main, up Main to O. R. & N. depot, where it will disband. Business floats and hundreds of bicycles will contribute to make this a big feature of the Fourth of July celebration.

Horse Race July 5.
The horse race between teams from the different companies of the Pendleton fire department, will take place at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of July 5.

Baseball July 5 and 6.
Following is the schedule for the four games of baseball on July 5 and 6: July 5, 10 o'clock a. m., Heppner vs. Dayton; 2 o'clock p. m., Pendleton vs. Athens.

July 6, 10 o'clock a. m., Athens vs. Dayton; 2 o'clock p. m., Heppner vs. Pendleton.

Instructions to Bicyclists.
Bicyclists who are going to take part in the illuminated parade on the evening of July Fourth are notified to be present near the court house in readiness to move at 8:30 o'clock. Promptness in this matter will do away with all confusion and worry.

President and Other Officers.
Hon. L. B. Reeder will be president of the day on July Fourth, it being the intention of Mayor F. W. Vincent to be absent from the city. John Hailey, jr., will be marshal of the day, and J. E. Krause will be general superintendent.

FIRST ANNUAL SNIPE HUNT
Securing Mill Employees and Others Had a Great Time Sunday.
Jack Lyette, Dick Tieman, Andy Anderson, Elmer Turner, Will Dupuis, Paul Davis and a number of others composing the Pendleton Wool Scouring Mill club gave their first annual snipe hunt on Sunday evening, June 30, in the lowlands of Byers grove in East Pendleton. A young man whose name could not be learned "held the sack." He was stationed at a suitable point and given a sack to hold, while he was compelled to lie at full length on the ground, keep the mouth of the sack open so that the snipe could walk in without inconvenience, while the rest of the crowd drove the birds toward him. After he had held his position until nearly tired out, the others made a break, crying that the Indians were coming, leading the young unknown man to believe that they were all intruding and trespassing upon the reservation. There are some of the party who up to that moment thought they were foot-racers. They have no such idea as though they were man left them as though they were standing still, tied to a post. After the crowd collected and the young man found he was still alive he bought a 5-gallon keg of beer for the others, out was so sick he could drink none of it himself. He said he wondered why he had been selected to hold the sack, but when informed that the others, who had the necessary experience, would drive the birds up to him, which required ability, and that anyone, even a novice, could hold the mouth of the bag open, he was perfectly satisfied and did his best to assist in making the snipe hunt a grand success.

MCDONALD RAILROAD SHOW

Carrying Bunco and Shell Men—Show a Frost—Canvas Attached.
The Baker City Democrat of yesterday roasts the McDonald Mammoth Railroad show, which is billed here for tomorrow, as follows:

"The McDonald railroad circus arrived in Baker yesterday and gave two performances. Information preceded the aggregation to the local authorities from Huntington and Boise, that the show was carrying a big gang of bunco and shell men.

"Chief Kilbourn notified the manager that no shell games or bunco operations would be permitted and the officer's firm stand prevented, no doubt, a lot of people from being separated from their money.

"Some time yesterday morning some of the employees broke open the head bill poster's desk and robbed it of a large quantity of 'free lists.' The papers were sold about town at 'cut rates' and at both performances the house was filled with paper, the returns from which did not bring any money to the box office. Late last evening the outfit was attached by Geo. Costello, an employee, for $900 back wages, the Fidelity company of New York becoming surety on the bond.

"At a late hour the combination was still in town.
"The performance was made up of one or two clever turns, the balance of the aggregation being nothing more or less than a lot of cheap 'ham fatters.' The show played to very light business at both performances. The parade was a burlesque."

HIS CHECK FOR FOUR CENTS.

A New Yorker's Dividend From a Defunct Boston Hardware Concern.
It is not often that a business man gets a check for money that he would rather be without, but that is what happened to a wholesale lumber dealer of this city the other day.

The check was sent to him by the receiver of a defunct Boston hardware concern and he was entitled to the money as a creditor. Made out on a Boston bank it called for the payment of 4 cents as the first "and final" dividend.

After recovering from his surprise the recipient sat down to reckon it all out. There was the 2-cent revenue stamp and a 2-cent postage stamp on the letter. That meant 4 cents to send it to him, not counting the cost of paper and envelope and printed form of acknowledgment. To acknowledge its receipt and cash the check would involve an outlay of about 12 cents more, as banks charge for out of town collections.

He was still thinking it over when a friend entered the office and offered twice the face value of the check to secure it as a curio. He sold it in a hurry.—New York Sun.

KE PARR FINED $50 TUESDAY

It is Claimed He Stole a Saddle and Sold It.

The trial of Ike Parr took place on Tuesday afternoon, July 2, in Justice Fitzgerald's court. Defendant was charged with the larceny of a saddle. He was convicted and fined $50 and costs. He put up a bond of $150 that the judgment of the court would be satisfied and appealed the case to the circuit court. George Peringer and Frank Carl are his bondsmen. The saddle stolen is the property of Walter Satherland, who loaned it to John Nelson. Nelson used the saddle on a horse he rode to Pendleton on Thursday morning, June 2, and hitched at the Pound corral. When he returned for it the saddle was gone. On June 28 Parr took the saddle to Thompson's second-hand store on Court street and sold it. Nelson afterwards went there, found the saddle, claimed it and got it. Parr was arrested by Chief of Police Heathman on Monday and gave bail for his appearance on the following day. He wanted a jury trial and got it. After hearing the testimony the jury deliberated about five minutes, long enough to take a ballot, and guilty was the verdict. Collier & Collier appeared for the defendant and N. Berkeley, deputy district attorney, for the prosecution.

The piles that annoy you so will be quickly and permanently healed if you use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless counterfeits. Tallman & Co.

To the Seaside.
The O. R. & N. Co. has in effect a round trip rate to the Seaside of $10, good until September 15. Continuous passage in both directions. This rate applies either to any point on North Beach from Ilwaco to Shoalwater Bay or to Clatsop Beach. Call at the O. R. & N. ticket office for folders describing the summer resorts along the lines of the O. R. & N. Co.

A bad complexion generally results from inactive liver and bowels. In all such cases, DeWitt's Little Early Risers produce gratifying results. Tallman & Co.
