THE INDIAN MURDER CASES

Supreme Court Decision Will Save Umatilla County Great Expense.

The opinion handed down by the supreme court of Oregon in the cases of Columbia George and Toy Toy is of peculiar interest to attorneys, as well as of great importance to the taxpayers of Umatilla county. It decides that Indians must be tried in the United States courts for the crime of murder when committed by one Indian upon another Indian on an allotted reservation. The attorneys for the defense in this case were William Parsons, R. J. Slater, H. Carter & Raley, to whom the credit is due for a reversal of the case from the judgment of the circuit court. The mandates of the supreme court will come to Deputy Clerk Lee Moorhouse within two weeks and the defendants, Columbia George and Toy Toy, who are present in the county jail, will be released from custody—only for a few minutes. It is presumed that United States Marshal Hunter or one of his deputies will be present to again take them into custody. Thereafter they will have a preliminary hearing before John Hatley, Jr., United States commissioner, who will hold them to the United States circuit court at Portland, before Judge Bellingher.

ADDITIONAL CROP DAMAGE

Several Big Farmers of Umatilla County Express Their Regret.

Within the past four days the opinion regarding the extent of the damage to the wheat crop of Umatilla county has changed wonderfully. Melvon Shatrum has a section and a half of wheat near Fallon station, on the home farm. Several days ago he thought it would range from 25 to 35 bushels per acre, with an average yield of 30 bushels. This morning he stated to a reporter of the East Oregonian that he had changed his mind, and estimated that it had been damaged 25 per cent. He had several samples of the wheat of club and red-chaff, and it certainly did not look good. The heads were short and blighted and the grains shriveled.

ED LINSNER'S FUNERAL

It Occurred From His Late Home Tuesday Afternoon, July 9.

The funeral of the late Edward Linsner occurred on Tuesday afternoon, July 9, from the family residence in West Pendleton, two blocks north of Dr. Cole's hospital. There was a large number of friends and relatives present, George Linsner, a brother of the deceased, and Frank Parks, a stepson, arrived Monday afternoon from near Ridge in response to a telephone message. Nels Parks, another stepson, who was near Pendleton, also was present, as well as the immediate family. The services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Potwine, of the Church of the Redeemer. Many Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees were present. The Maccabees were organized in Pendleton six years ago and this is the first death of a Knight of that order.

KILLED BY AN ACCIDENT

Sol Rothenild Died at Milton Tuesday Forenoon, July 9.

Sol Rothenild, who lives in the mountains out from Milton, met with an accident on Monday and died on Tuesday, July 9, at his home. Mr. Rothenild was putting up a building and was being assisted by some neighbors. One of the timbers they were handling slipped and fell upon him, resulting in his death the following day. County Judge Hartman was notified of the accident and asked his opinion in regard to the necessity of holding a coroner's inquest. The questioner was referred to Justice of the Peace Miller of Milton, who decided that the case was so plainly an accident that there would be no necessity for an investigation.

TRIAL OF THE CONSIDINES

State Will Try to Prove Shot Was Fired Before Mardell Fought.

Seattle, July 9.—The preliminary hearing of John W. and Tom Considine, charged with the murder of ex-Chief of Police Meredith, has begun. The state showed its hand plainly in the course of the day. It is evident the state will try to prove at the trial that some one, not yet named, began the fatal affray by firing a pistol shot at Meredith in the street before the latter fired upon John Considine. The sixth shot theory is a new one, as heretofore it has been agreed by all witnesses that but five shots were fired.
