The band concert on Friday evening on Main street, between the Big Boston store and the Judd block, was of interest and pleasure, a large crowd, as usual, being in attendance.

The road down the hill to the agency is in a dangerous condition. It is cut away badly and accidents are liable to occur unless it should be fixed.

The farmer who have to travel that road are complaining. Charles Davis was arraigned before Justice Fite Gerald this Saturday forenoon, waived a hearing and was bound over to appear before the circuit court.

He is charged with stealing dishes from the residence of Burr Johnson. His bail was fixed at $250, which he cannot furnish.

Fred Ganger, who resides on Birch creek, 12 miles southwest of Pendleton, has left specimens of broom grass grown on his ranch with W. D. Hansford of the firm of Hansford & Thompson.

Mr. Ganger seeded only one acre of broom grass on alkali land, and from it he cut three tons of hay this season. He says that scarcely anything but broom grass would have grown on the land.

William Clark was brought down from Milton this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakley, and will have a hearing at 4:30 o'clock as to his sanity. Mr. Clark was taken in charge a couple of miles from Milton, his actions leading to the belief that he was crazy and a dangerous man to be at large.

He was handcuffed to prevent him from doing damage. Justice Gerald will hold the examination, in the absence of County Judge Hartman at Baker City.

EMPIRE STOCK COMPANY. Leon M. Hattenbach and Company at the Frazer.

The New South, a strong military drama of the war, was the attraction that played to a large and appreciative audience last evening at the Baker by the Empire Stock company headed by that sterling actor, Leon M. Hattenbach, says the Baker City Democrat.

The performance was one that appeals to the student of American history and arouses the patriotism of every loyal American. The capture of a confederate spy within the federal lines, the appeal of his sister, who is in love with the commanding federal officer, all present an opportunity for strong dramatic effect.

The specialists between the acts of Deming and Corral were extremely clever, and took the audience by storm. Miss Louise McCullum, as Bertha Danvers, the much abused heroine brought out the sympathetic lines of her part, in a manner that portrays the true artist. She is one of the handsomest women on the stage, and her acting last evening gave forth the impression that greater things may be expected from her in the future.

Mr. Hattenbach as Walter Hastings, in the role of a federal colonel, gave a most clever interpretation of the real military officer. His pathetic scenes were clean cut and were acted with force and intelligence. His comedy was a pleasant change from the more dramatic situations of the play. The remainder of the company were above the average.

This company will play a week's engagement, at Frazer's opera house, commencing Monday, July 15. Seats on sale at Tallman & Co.'s drug store. Prices, 25, 35 and 50c.

DR FRANCE IS ACQUITTED. Was Charged With the Embezzlement of 16,000 Bushels of Wheat.

The DeFrance case ended in Walla Walla when the jury reported a verdict of not guilty. The arguments of counsel occupied three hours on each side and were very strong. Judge Bronte charged the jury at length and the jury retired for deliberation. In two hours a verdict was returned. DeFrance was charged with embezzling 16,000 bushels of wheat, and had been tried once for the crime in Spokane county. Error was made by the court and a new trial allowed. Then the case came here. DeFrance was charged jointly with William Clifford in the crime, and Clifford had been twice found guilty and sentenced to terms in the state penitentiary. These facts made the case interesting and the verdict of acquittal was received with surprise.

Orator Idelman is Pleased. The Portland Telegram says: Hon. C. M. Idelman, who delivered the Fourth of July oration at Pendleton this year, has been made happy by the receipt, with the compliments of the Fourth of July committee, of one of the finest blankets ever turned out by the Pendleton woolen mills. The blanket reflects every color of the rainbow, and a number of others that even a rainbow does not sport. It is a creation of quality, finish, design and color that will make the average Indian turn green with envy, and Mr. Idelman is justly proud of the gift.

Arrested for Stealing Cherries. Constable James Dyke of Milton came to Pendleton on the mixed train Friday afternoon, bringing Otis Franklin along with him. Franklin and two others were engaged in stealing cherries on Thursday evening from George Edwards at Milton. All three were arrested. The other two boys, whose names are unknown, were placed in the city lock up to remain over Thursday night. When the other went after them Friday morning to take them into court it was discovered that they had dug out and lit out. Franklin was fined $25 by Justice J. L. Miller, and it is believed his father will pay the fine.

ATTACHED BY THE SHERIFF

New Suits Instituted Against Clements & Wilson. The Magnet Store, on the corner of Court and Cottonwood streets, owned by Charles Clements and John W. Wilson, doing business under the firm name of Clements & Wilson, is in the hands of Sheriff William Blakley, on attachments as follows: L. Dinkel-epiel & Sons, of San Francisco, for $200.00; the plaintiff being represented by J. H. Lawrey; Fleischner & Mayor company, of Portland, for $575.79, represented by Carter & Haley; Semstater Brothers, for $23.45, also represented by Carter & Haley.

To Replevin the Shoe Stock. While in Portland on Friday, July 12, Colonel William Parsons was given the account of Hamilton, Brown & Company, of St. Louis, for something like $700, to collect. Mr. Parsons today instituted replevin proceedings against Sheriff Blakley, to get the stock of shoes out of the sheriff's hands. In such cases the coroner of the county is the proper person to serve the papers on the sheriff, so Coroner W. G. Cole will mix up his medical and legal business today.

The point raised is that there was legal fraud and Hamilton, Brown & Co. can follow their property and get it back.

THE CONDEMNED MURDERERS

William Parsons Consults With John H. Hall. William Parsons of Pendleton returned this morning from Portland, where he consulted with John H. Hall, United States prosecuting attorney, regarding the late of Columbia George and Toy-Toy, the condemned murderers of Anna Edna, the crime having been committed on August 24, 1900. It will be remembered that the supreme court of Oregon on Monday, July 8, reversed the judgment of the United States circuit court condemning the defendants to death, and declaring that the state courts did not have jurisdiction in such cases. Mr. Parsons states that Mr. Hall has not definitely decided on his course of action. The mandates from the supreme court to Sheriff Blakley, ordering him to release the prisoners from custody will reach Pendleton about August 1. It is presumed that United States Marshal House or one of his deputies will be here to take charge of Columbia George and Toy-Toy the instant they are turned loose by the sheriff.

PEOPLE HERE FOR A DAY.

Joe Hanscom was in Pendleton today from his farm northwest of Pendleton. He has 300 acres of wheat which ordinarily would yield close to 40 acres per bushel. He says it has undoubtedly been injured from 15 to 20 per cent. The wheat stalks are not stout and hail would knock it down badly.

W. W. Harrah has a farm east of Pendleton three miles. He has 250 acres of spring wheat, 170 of which he has cut for hay and will save 80 acres for his hogs, of which he has 550. He made 25 bushels to the acre, but the frost injured it at the joint and cut it down to 20 bushels to the acre. He has recently added a Poland China boar to his band of hogs, which he purchased from C. M. Smith of Jefferson, Or. He also has two Poland China sows which will be used for breeding purposes.

Coon and Miss Nina Coon, who left for Portland on Wednesday as delegates from the Epworth League of the Thompson street Methodist Episcopal church, will return to Portland on Tuesday, July 16, from San Francisco, where the National Epworth League convention will be held. They will not return until early in August.

SUNDAY CLOSING AT WALLA WALLA.

Baseball Games on Sunday Not to Be Permitted. The Sunday closing order, which has been ordered by the prosecuting attorney in Walla Walla, says the Statesman, is far more sweeping in its effect than most people had any idea when the matter first became public and the attorney authorized the statement that the very letter of the law must be observed or the penalty will be applied.

This means not only saloons, business houses, ice cream parlors, soda fountains, and places of amusement must not do business, but it will prevent the electric light company from disposing of its gas and electricity on the Sabbath day, and it is said that the law even goes so far that it will interfere with the sale of the Sunday Morning Union.

J. H. Peigo, in conversation with a Statesman representative, was very emphatic in the assertion that it was the intention to enforce the law without fear or favor and be advised those who did not wish to be punished by a fine to comply with the law strictly. He further stated that no arrests would be made on the Sabbath, but violators of the sections referred to would be promptly arrested on Monday morning. When asked the intention regarding the ball game scheduled to take place Sunday he said: "Every man who engages in the game, together with the manager, will be arrested the following morning."
