city Monday from heart failure, aged

THE STRIKE IS AT A CRISIS

Thought Something Will Soon Happen.

LABOR LEADERS EXPECT A CUP

Developments of the Day Were Not Particularly Important Except as to Indications.

Pittsburg, July 23.—At Amalgamated headquarters officials had nothing to report today. President Shaffer said the situation is unchanged. He was well satisfied with the outlook. At Vandalia and Duquesville the mills are still running and the men appear to be satisfied. It is reported that efforts will be made to start up the Printer mills. Emisaires are said to have been among the idle operatives of that city for the purpose of inducing them to come back and help in the resumption of work. This report has caused the Amalgamated men to redouble their vigilance at this point.

VERY SERIOUS PREPARATIONS

Crisis Approaches in the Great Steel Strike.

Pittsburg, July 23.—The great steel strike took on a serious aspect this morning. Grim preparations were made by the strikers at all the big mills involved, and everything indicates that a crisis in the great struggle is approaching. Lookout committees are on duty at all the big mills from Welleville to McKeesport. At the Amalgamated headquarters a feeling is apparent that the leaders are expecting some coup by the trust.

New York, July 23.—Sixty thousand men and women here and in Newark are affected by the tailor's strike today. The strike leaders said this afternoon that the outlook for victory is good. But little disorders have marked the strike thus far.

WELLSVILLE UNCHANGED.

Wellsville, Ohio, July 23.—The strike situation here is unchanged.
Employers still are unable to secure nonunion men.

The End Apparently Near.

Derby, Conn., July 23.—There are strong indications that the machinists' strike here which caused the issuance of the famous injunction will soon end. The Darrell foundry, against which the principal fight was made, has asked for a joint conference committee.

The 'Frisco Strike.

San Francisco, July 23.—Two hundred more teamsters struck this morning. They expect to have the entire union out. There is no shipping or heavy freight being moved. Business is at a standstill. Fruit and perishable goods are sustaining great damage. Firms having contract to move government merchandise from bonded warehouses are employing nonunion men guarded by federal consular officials. If necessary, the customers will take the drivers as deportees.

Columbus Seamen Strike.

Columbus, July 23.—Columbus practically is without ice today, drivers and helpers having gone on a strike for higher wages.

KRUGER GRIEVES SORELY

He Cannot Stand Another Such Blow and Live.

Amsterdam, July 23.—Paul Kruger passed a good night, but appears to be all broken up over the loss of his wife. The members of his party claim another blow would finish him. He says he would not survive a surrender of the Boers.

London Sympathy.

London, July 23.—All the morning papers publish kindly editorials concerning the death of Mrs. Kruger and express sympathy for Mr. Kruger.
The Times begins thus:
"The English people will feel genuine sympathy with the aged and president in his severe domestic bereavement, which has befallen him." This was followed by a eulogy of Mrs.
Kruger.

London, July 23.—Owing to the Sunday telegraph hours in Holland, says a dispatch to the Adly Mail from Hilversum, Mr. Kruger was not informed of his wife's death until evening. The news was broken to him by Mr. Heymans and Secretary Boeschoten.

Mr. Kruger, who had just returned from church, burst into tears and asked to be left alone. He exclaimed:
"She was a good wife. We quarreled only once and that was six months after we were married." He prayed for a long time, and then went calmly to sleep, his Bible beside his bed.

The Transvaal and Orange Free State flags flying above the villa were draped and half-masted. Shortly before the news came a crowd of country girls had been singing a folk-song outside the villa.

A MURDER IN COQUILLE

M. D. Landis Kills Jesse B. Endally for Money.

Coquille City, Ore., July 23.—M. D.
Landis, a real estate broker, yesterday killed a client, Jesse B. Endally, to secure $2300. He buried the body in the woods. Boys saw him covering the mound and believed he had buried money, and found the body. The throat was cut and the body punctured with a sharp instrument. A coroner's jury was called. Landis was warned and fled. Coos county citizens half an hour subsequently succeeded in effecting a capture. He is believed to have killed others.

pines with four hundred men and one hundred fifty women teachers for the public schools.

kets opened lower this morning on reported rains in the corn belt which caused a break of two cents on wheat and four on corn. Liverpool opened pared with 5-8 3/4 yesterday. New

SEEKERS MUST GET OUT

War and Interior Departments Will Take Hold at Once in Oklahoma

Washington, July 23.—The war and interior departments begin to concern themselves about those Oklahoma homesteaders who will not draw claims.
After rocky ones get their land, others, probably numbering two hundred thousand, will be ordered to clear out.
Any refusal will be dealt with by the war department.

Dying in Oklahoma.

Chicago, July 23.—A News special from El Reno, says: "Many homesteaders here are dying from various forms of disease. Many of them are getting no care whatever from physicians. Heat is intense and accompanied by limited food supply is inadequate for half of those already here."

IS KING OF THE SHOOTERS

Adolph Strecker Wins at the National Bund.

San Francisco, July 23.—The national shooting bund finished competition this noon, and this afternoon $90,000 worth of prizes was distributed. Tonight, Adolph Strecker, of San Francisco, whose score of 394 was a record breaker, will be crowned king for the next three years, as champion rifle shot of America.

MRS. NATION WAS FINED

Court Said She Broke the Sabbath by Smashing

Topeka, Kan., July 23.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was fined $100 and given a 30 days' jail sentence by Judge Hasen in the district court for disturbing the peace and dignity of the city by a Sunday joint raid in last March. There is no appeal, and the noted woman must serve her time in prison.

GOV. ALLEN HAS RESIGNED

Wm. Hunt Will Succeed Him in Porto Rico.

Washington, July 23.—The president has decided to accept the resignation of Governor Allen of Porto Rico. In doing so, the president issues a letter praising Allen. William H. Hunt, president secretary of Porto Rico, will probably succeed him.

ELKS CONVENTION OPENED

of the Day.

Milwaukee, July 23.—The Elks' convention opened this morning. Attendance is large. The most important work of the day was the selection of a

THE RED MEN IN COUNCIL

L. B. Reeder to Withdraw From Candidacy for Grand Sachem.

The principal action of the council and the one that is attracting most attention throughout Red Menom is the election of two representatives to the grand council of the United States.
A prominent Red Man stated that an effort was being made to have excluded as candidates members who have once attended the grand council and to distribute the honor among other members.

Outside of Portland the tribes are in favor of the proposition, while Portland is divided. Retiring (Great Sachem) A. B. Cherry is a candidate for the position and it is usually thought that his great service to the order will win for him an easy election. The other candidates are Otto Schumann, F. H. Saylor and J. K.
Carr of Portland, J. H. Howard of Oregon City and L. B. Reeder of Pendleton.

Mr. Cherry is a member of the La Grande tribe and is out for Eastern Oregon. The Western Oregon men are seeking to divide his vote by bringing out Mr. Reeder, but one member stated yesterday that it is generally thought that he will stay out of the race and that Cherry would carry the solid Eastern Oregon vote.

THE SITUATION HAS NOT IMPROVED

Drouth Area Has Extended During the Past Week, and is Now Far in the West.

Washington, July 23.—A gloomy view of the crop situation in the corn belt was taken by the weather bureau in the weekly bulletin issued today.
The drouth area has extended considerably since the last bulletin. Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee are now being seriously affected. The report says the condition is now critical from the lake region and central valley and Tennessee, westward to the middle Rocky mountain region, including the greater part of Texas.

tember wheat, corn and oats this morning. Wheat fell 1-7-8, corn 4/8, up again and the losses were almost entirely recovered.

A STOCKHOLM DISASTER

Ship Blown to Atoms and Nearly all Were Lost.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 23.—Sixteen persons were killed by an explosion of petroleum on the schooner Lola, in the harbor here today. The dead are: Capt. Orr, ten members of the crew, four Swedish customs officials, and the Brazilian consul.

The ship's deck was torn from stem to stern. Two sailors reached the shore and are believed to be the only survivors of the disaster. The cause of the explosion is unknown. The oil scattered over the men and the ship, enveloping all in a fierce blaze. It is believed the victims were suddenly overwhelmed and could make no effort to save themselves.

Less Serious Report.

London, July 23.—A message to Lloyd's from Stockholm reports only three killed in the Lola's Adelaide explosion.

Chief Nicholson Testifies.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 23.—Chief of Police Nicholson, who is the central figure in the Fausburg prosecution, was the star witness in today's proceedings. His stay was not sensational, dealing only with events succeeding the murder and of his investigations of the conditions surrounding the Fausburg residence and of stories told by members of the family.

A sensation was sprung this morning when a hat band bearing the name of the "defendant's" brother James was offered in evidence. It is alleged it came from an old hat offered in evidence as the one left by burglars.

Executed for Murder.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 23.—Elmer Barnes was executed today for killing Isaac Miller, his brother-in-law.

Y., and through all the years that he lived in the West he held various public positions. At the time of his death he was deputy clerk in the federal court at Spokane. He came to Oregon in 1853. President Lincoln appointed him Indian agent for the Territory of Idaho.
