What Makes the Home?

Not the house, however fine it may be; not its furniture, pictures and appointments. The wife and mother makes the home, and to speak of going home means to go back into the shelter of the mother's love and care.

And when womanly ills sap the mother's strength, the home-life suffers. The food is not cooked as she cooks it.

Everywhere the lack of wifely supervision and motherly thoughtfulness is apparent.

What a change, then, when this wife and mother comes back to take her old place in the family. Thousands of women who, because of womanly ills, had been shut out of home life and home happiness, have been enabled to once more take their place in the family after being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I commenced taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' about the 10th of last December, one year ago," writes Mrs. Eliza Wright, of Mountainview, Howell Co., Missouri. "I have been very slow about writing to you, although I am thankful I am here to-day and have the privilege of saying I thank you a thousand times for your kind advice. I can truthfully say that it was through your kind advice and your medicine and the will of the Lord that I am living to-day. I am in better health than I have been for three years. I have taken one-half dozen bottles of each medicine. I am able to do my washing for four in family, and all my housework, cooking and milking. In fact, I feel like a new woman."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its almost countless consequences. They do not react on the system nor beget the pill habit.

SCHLEY DEMANDS AN INVESTIGATION

Secretary Long at Once Appoints a Court.

ADMIRAL DEWEY IS THE PRESIDENT

Inquiry is to Be Made of the Santiago Campaign and Admiral Schley's Relation Thereto.

Washington, July 24.—Secretary Long received this morning a letter from Admiral Schley requesting the appointment of a court of inquiry to investigate his conduct during the Santiago campaign. A consultation with his staff immediately followed at which personal court another matter relating to the investigation was discussed.

Dewey to Preside.

Soon after consultation, Admiral Dewey called on Secretary Long by request, and was tendered and accepted the presidency of the court of inquiry. He announced that the court will meet here during September.

The names of the other members of the tribunal will be made public later.

Schley's request for investigation is based on Mackley's history. In his letter, Schley says, while admitting the right to fairly criticise every public officer, he cannot submit to "low flings and abusive language of this violent partisan opponent, who has infused into the pages of his book so much malice and unfairness as to make it unworthy the name of history."

Long immediately replied heartily, approving the rear-admiral's action and announcing his intention of at once proceeding in accordance with his request.

Schley in New York.

New York, July 24.—Admiral Schley arrived here today, presumably to consult counsel. Edward Macleay, whose history brought the controversy to a climax, says he is glad that Schley asked for a court of inquiry, and adds that the rear-admiral can sue him all he wants to.

The Post Took it Up.

Washington, July 24.—The Washington Post last night telegraphed Admiral Schley that in an editorial it insisted that he owed it to himself as well as to his friends to begin proceedings against Mr. Maclay, the author of an alleged history of the United States navy, to disprove the latter's charge, adding: "Will you do this? Please wire statement."

Today it received the following telegram:

"Great Neck, July 23.—Editor Washington Post: I believe the first step should be an investigation of all the matter by the court, then civil action afterward. I am preparing to take this course (Signed) "W S. SCHLEY."

The Post, in the morning, as a result of extensive inquiries based upon the admiral's dispatch, will say in part:

"Admiral Schley purposes to ask an investigation at the hands of a naval court of inquiry and then to sue Historian Maclay for libel. His action is the sequel to the developments during the past week, during which the entire country has been stirred by the publication of the unexampled abuse poured out upon him in the third volume of E. S. Maclay's History of the United States navy, in which publication Schley is said to have run away, "in caitiff flight," and is in addition denounced as a coward, cur and traitor.

Will Be Celebrated.

"Schley's court of inquiry will undoubtedly be one of the most celebrated cases in the naval or military history of the country. The high rank of the officers involved in the controversy and the intense public feeling which has been aroused will combine to give to the investigation story dramatic interest. Nothing has occurred in Washington for many years that will compare with it.

"The appointment of the court of inquiry is expected to be made by Secretary Long, though it would be in the power of the president to make its selections if he chose. This is hardly likely to occur, however. Mr. Long has already stated that if Admiral Schley requested a court of inquiry he would grant the request, and has also expressed his willingness to personally select the court. While he has not made any statement as to its personnel there is every reason to believe that he favors Admiral Dewey and Rear Admirals Ramsay and Benham, the two latter being now upon the retired list. It is said that Dewey, Ramsay and Benham have always carefully avoided giving opinion as to the merits of the controversy."

ST. RAYNER IN QUESTION

TO BE TRIED IN DISBARMENT PROCEEDINGS.

Charged With Changing the Testimony Transcript in the McDaniel Murder Case.

Portland, Or., July 23.—Arthur L. Veazie, commissioner appointed by the court to take testimony in the disbarment proceedings brought against Henry St. Rayner, has notified the defense that the evidence of the state is all in, and that the defense will soon be called upon to give its side. As soon as this is in, the case will be submitted to the Oregon supreme court.

Mr. St. Rayner, who is considered wellalong toward the top of the legal profession, and is known throughout the state, is accused by other lawyers of altering the transcript in the case of State vs. Frank McDaniel. McDaniel was tried for the murder of Claire Fitch in a suburb of Portland, and was found guilty of manslaughter. He has just begun to serve a fifteen year sentence. St. Rayner was his lawyer. It is charged that before the case was submitted to the supreme court, Mr. St. Rayner obtained possession of the original transcript and changed two of the sheets to favor his side of the case.

Lady Stenographers Testified.

Evidence has been taken intermittently during a period of several weeks. The concluding evidence was given by Miss Cavanaugh and Miss Hoffman, stenographers, and George E. Chamberlain, district attorney. Miss Cavanaugh stated that she was in the employ of Charles J. Schnabel, when one day last July Mr. St. Rayner came to her and asked that she make an exact copy of some testimony he had. In order to make the testimony exact, she borrowed some paper similar to that Mr. St. Rayner had, and also obtained the use of some black carbon paper and black ribbon. In making the first copy Mr. St. Rayner dictated some of the testimony to her, and, in making other copies, Miss Cavanaugh was not sure whether Mr. St. Rayner dictated to her, or whether he gave her something to copy from.

Miss Hoffman, who was employed in the office of Miss Morden, from whom the carbon paper and ribbon were borrowed, testified that after the carbon paper was returned, it was accidentally noticed that some of the McLaughlan testimony could be read on the paper, and by a comparison with the original it was found that two pages of the transcript had been changed. District Attorney Chamberlain was made aware of the discovery by Miss Morden, and so testified.

Mr. St. Rayner in his own defense asserts that the transcript was kept in a roll-top desk, and that, in closing the top of the desk, two sheets became torn. He had these two sheets replaced by a stenographer, and, if the testimony was changed, it was the fault of the stenographer, and not his own. He further maintains that the changes in the testimony were not of sufficinet importance to affect the decision of the court either way.

DEFENSE IN FOSBURG CASE

The Opening Statement Completed This Morning—Some Testimony.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 24.—The opening statement for the defense in the Fosburg murder trial was concluded this morning. Among the witnesses called were members of the Sheperdson family who lived opposite the Fosburgs at the time of the killing. They told of hearing shots and of young James Fosburg running over and inquiring for a doctor.

The Father Testifies Between Sobs.

The father of the prisoner and the dead girl was called to the stand this afternoon and told a dramatic story, between sobs. In the court room women sobbed and men struggled hard to keep back the tears. He said he saw two men enter his room on the night of the murder. He grappled with them and was then stunned by a sandbag. He remembers nothing after that, until he saw his daughter's bleeding form on the floor.

KRUGER AND HIS FELLOWS

Hope Much From a Pro-Boer Dutch Premier.

Amsterdam, July 24.—The latest London rumor that Paul Kruger is preparing to end the war is denied by the Boer delegation here. Instead, Kruger and his compatriots here are basing great hopes on the fact that the new Dutch premier is a Boer sympathizer.

Colonial Office Responsible.

New York, July 24.—A London dispatch to a Wall street news agency says that the colonial office is responsible for the report that there are negotiations for peace.

The Boers Were Repulsed.

Stanterton, South Africa, July 24.—A party of Boers attempted to cross the railroad between Vlaklagte and Watervil today, while a part of the force attacked the British block houses to divert attention from the main body. Both the Boer forces, however, were repulsed.

NO RELIEF COMES TO STRICKEN BELT

Crazed and Dying in St. Louis in Numbers.

THE CROPS ARE BEING RUINED

Thermometer Again Indicates More Than 100 Above—Weather Bureau Bulletin is Discouraging.

Chicago, July 24.—Corn is still at the mercy of the hot wave and there is no relief in sight. Reports from the affected belt tell of a few scattering showers last night, but conditions this morning are similar to those of the past few weeks. Crop statisticians are growing more pessimistic every day, and agree with other crop sharps that the situation is no blacker than it is painted.

With another week of hot weather without rain it would be surprising if even a fourth crop were to be gathered. A few drops of rain fell in Northern Illinois this morning, but the fall will be of no real benefit.

Weather Bureau Discouraging.

Washington, July 24.—The weather bureau in a bulletin issued today, gives little encouragement to farmers of the west. It says the weather will continue fair tonight in the drouth-stricken section, with the exception of possible light showers in some parts.

Deaths in St. Louis.

St. Louis, July 24.—Intense heat still prevails here, the mercury at noon registering 102. Thirty deaths from heat have occurred since last night. Several persons have been crazed by the heat and a large number prostrated.

SIX POLICEMEN AT THE MILLS

Indicates That Resumption Will be by Non-Union Men.

Pittsburg, July 24.—Six policemen were sent to Clark mills this morning. As that mill has been marked by an absence of the least semblance of disorder, it is believed the owners asked for police to assist in the resumption of work at the mill with non-union men. A rumor was current this morning that a desperate fight is being made to start the mill with non-union men from the southern states.

Amalgamated Officers in Quandary.

Pittsburg, July 24.—Amalgamated officials scarcely know which of the three places, McKeesport, Wellsville or Pittsburg, will require their first attention. In McKeesport, there is danger of an outbreak on the part of the restless strikers. In Wellsville there is a strain of developments following further attempts at resumption of work, and in Pittsburg there is liability of injunction suits against the steel workers in the United States courts.

Will Try Argument.

Earlington, July 24.—Union miners from Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky are expected to gather at Madisonville on Sunday and organize a marching party to visit the mines and attempt to force non-union men to quit work.

Salmon Run Continues.

Astoria, July 24.—The big run of salmon continues. Canneries and cold storage plants are blocked and can receive no more fish for two days.
