UP AT LEHMAN SPRINGS

MENTION OF PEOPLE WHO ARE NOW THERE.

Former Visitor Recalls Days of Twenty

Years Ago When Pine Knots Were

Used for Lights.

Lehman Springs, July 24.—Among the visitors at the springs today from Pendleton is J. M. Jarvis, who was here 20 years ago. He assisted at that time in putting up the first platform for dancing, from lumber that came from Camas prairie, quite a distance away. The lights for the occasion were pine knots, one on each corner of the platform and the fiddler fiddled while the pine knots burned. There was neither oil nor candles here then. In fact there was little if any other than a good and water.

Staff of Resort Employees.

Endeott, Warren & McFall have the hotel and stores. John Endeott is postmaster and pays attention to every thing in connection with the hotel.

Mr. Warren has charge of the bowling alley and Homer Harrington of the cigar and confectionery stand. Mr.

Harrington and Mr. Endeott superintend the dances in the evening, which feature is a very pleasant one.

Mr. Warren runs the cigar and confectionery department in the evening.

Charlie Moy is chef at the hotel and Ed Gregory has charge of the dining-room. William Leathers is in charge of one of the stores for Ende-cott, Warren & McFall, and in addition is assistant postmaster. Mrs.

Leathers is here also.

E. Gilliam Very Sick.

E. Gilliam, formerly Umatilla county's assessor, is here. His physician has notified him that his condition is serious, but he said today he would never give up until he had his heart affected, but his many friends hope that indomitable will which has marked his public and private career will carry him successfully through this apparently serious illness.

Personal Mention of Campers.

W. J. Furnish, Mrs. Furnish and Miss Katherine Furnish and Master

Eldon Furnish are now occupying their cottage. They were reinforced today by Mrs. Starkweather, Mrs. Lee

W. Held and child and Miss Starkweather who are occupying the Lehman cottage.

Mrs. William Slusher and daughter

Edith have been here for two weeks and are enjoying themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downey, Miss

Margaret Downey, Miss Julia Downey and Frank Downey came up from Pendleton 10 days ago. Mrs. Downey was very sick upon arrival from the effects of the ride, and her condition was considered dangerous, but it is gratifying to state that she has now fully recovered.

The arrivals from Pendleton today were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gibson,

Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Jim

Estes, Fred Hartman and C. A. Mackrey.

Tex, of Schenck's Columbia, will return to Pendleton on Thursday. Ed Strahan will go down Saturday to Men's Christian Association. The younger men of the city are entirely without a resort of any kind. They are greatly in need of a social headquarters, where they may probably spend an unemployed hour with friends and in the pursuit of current magazines or books. The time of a young man is too valuable to kill—but should be used. A Y. M. C. A. would provide for its improvement.

The Association could furnish a well equipped gymnasium. The city boasts no place where athletics can be learned or scientific body building exercise taken such as Y. M. C. A. instructors are competent to teach.

"A complete system of tub and shower baths would be an adjunct of the organization. At present, even the city's baseball team is without proper bathing facilities. A shower bath is a necessary sequel to athletic work of all kinds. It cleanses quickly and conveniently, without weakening and by the proper adjustment of hot water and cold water the pores of the skin are closed preventing colds. Those who become accustomed to the luxury of an upright shower are never again content with a tub.

"Many young men of our town would welcome heartily the opportunity to study two or more evenings per week during the winter months.

More than 30,000 young men of America attended Y. M. C. A. night schools last year. Association leaders are specialists in night school work and are well qualified to give our young men the opportunity of improvement after working hours."

It Dazzles the World.

No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It's severest tests have been on hopeless victims of consumption, pneumonia, hemorrhage, pleurisy and bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. For coughs, colds, asthma, croup, hay fever, hoarseness and whooping cough it is the quickest, surest cure in the world. It is sold by Tallman & Co., who guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Large bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

SANDY LANDS BILKED SOME.

Walla Walla Man Thinks That of the Section Near Umatilla.

"The sandy land along the banks of the Columbia river is well sprinkled with farmers who have invested their all in orchard and garden patches and are now barely able to eke out an existence," said Chester O'Neil to the Union. "I was down along the river below Umatilla Junction last week, and it is actually pitiful to see the way some of them have been bilked.

In speaking of this I do not mean the island land, that is good, as it can be irrigated, but the sandy dunes along the river have been sold and are yielding no return.

"Were it possible to get water on them at all seasons of the year there is not the least doubt that they would produce the very best. They are where

WERE WEDDED IN HEPPNER

EDWARD EVERETT YOUNG AND MISS

LUCY ELLEN FARNSWORTH.

Married in the Episcopal Church and

Went to Their New Home in Baker

City.

On Wednesday, in Heppner, the Rev. W. E. Potwine officiating, Edward Everett Young of Baker City and Miss Lucy Ellen Farnsworth of Heppner were united in marriage.

The wedding was at the Protestant Episcopal church, and was witnessed by a large number of friends.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock in the morning, that they might depart at once on the train for their new home already prepared by the groom in Baker City. At 6 o'clock a wedding breakfast had been served at the Palace hotel.

The wedding was very pretty. Two ushers, Sloan P. Shutt of Heppner and W. M. Lippett of San Francisco, led the marriage procession up the aisle to the chancel, where the bride, who had been escorted by her father, was met by the bridegroom, the two ascending the chancel steps to the altar. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the party returned to the home of the bride, whence Mr. and Mrs.

Young departed for their home. The bride wore a handsome tailor made suit of French grey.

A reception was tendered them upon their arrival in Baker City.

Mr. Young is the editor of the Baker City Evening Republican, and is prominent among the fraternity of newspapermen on the North Pacific coast. Miss Farnsworth is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth of Heppner, deservedly a popular young lady and universally admired.
