The event of the week, from a spec-tacular standpoint, was the sweeping out of the dirt off the bottom of the pool on Sanday evening. The bottom is of concrete and is very smooth and slippery. The most of the work was done by the boys and girls, who thought it was great fun. It looked so easy that a sweeping party of a dozen or so joined in to complete the job. The water had been withdrawn, leaving the floor covered with a smooth coating of a substance like soft soap. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Warren of Weston are guests of S. E. Clark's
