Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the deseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

PLAY TENNIS AT BINGHAM

GUESTS FIND HEALTHFUL EXERCISE AND PLEASANT DIVERSION.

Camp Has Been Lively During the Week With Visitors From Far And Near.

Bingham Springs, Aug. 19.—One could not in many a day search out a better place than this resort for thorough enjoyment of the game of lawn tennis, which now forms one of the chief means of diversion for the guests. The court, it is true, is shorter than the rules require, and it is rough and of ordinary dirt. It is not to be mentioned in comparison with a court properly prepared with cement or even a rightly finished dirt court, yet it is used probably with just as much zest and certainly with as much benefit to health as at any court in Oregon. A number of ladies play with great skill, indeed, holding the first place over the men in handling the racquet.

Music by the Guests.

One of the pleasantest features of summer resort life is the entertainment furnished by the guests themselves. As a rule, people need to be entertained. Only a few live in this world who can entertain themselves. Of course, these are fortunate, because they always enjoy themselves wherever they may be. Here, as at all resorts, a number of guests have considerable talent and kindly utilize it to assist in passing the time. The musical matters are under the direction of Mrs. Irvine, who both plays and sings, and has most excellent taste in musical affairs. Miss Helen Goss of Portland, who is here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Goss, has been the star attraction since her arrival and the discovery that she possesses a highly cultivated voice and handles it in a very artistic manner. Sunday night's musical program in the hall was the occasion for repeated encores for Miss Goss, who gracefully responded. Mrs. Haldane Dickson of Pendleton, Miss Elizabeth Paine, Mrs. Paine of Walla Walla, Miss Frazier of Pendleton and others assisted in making the evening pass pleasantly.

Notes of the Springs.

Everyone here feels rather proud of the remarkable exploit recently reported in the East Oregonian of Gus Stumbaugh in killing three bears with a 22-calibre rifle in one hunt. They point with pride to Stumbaugh's Bingham springs bear killing as the high record for the Pacific coast, which means for the whole world.

Master Francis Jackson was the prize fisherman on Saturday, catching 32, which was four above Hal Dickson, next best. Francis was liberal with his fish, giving them out to his friends in true sportsman style.

Dr. and Mrs. Van Patten have spent a month here, and returned home to Walla Walla Saturday last. The doctor probably caught more fish during his stay than anyone else of all the guests. It is hinted that it is so very healthful here that the doctor went home disgusted, remarking that if all places were like the springs physicians would starve to death. Probably he didn't say anything of the kind.

Saturday night the best dancing of the season was indulged in. A number of young people came from Pendleton, and, added to those already here, made a merry party.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hailey and children and Miss Beach, who were guests, returned to Pendleton this morning.

A small boy among the guests here paid a gallant compliment to a young lady who had just sung a very sweet lullaby Sunday evening: "That isn't a very good lullaby. Why, a baby would want to stay awake all night listening to it." The young men are now taking lessons from that small boy in the art of paying compliments.

WONDERFUL CLAIRVOYANT

Colored Clairvoyant, Kidnaped From His Home in Africa, now in Pendleton.

Prof. King, the clairvoyant, will remain in Pendleton during this week, and may be consulted at his parlors, at the Geizer lodging house, corner of Alta and Garden streets. People who consult Prof. King and are not satisfied with their readings will be allowed to get their money back. Prof. King was kidnaped from his home on the east coast of Africa, across from Madagascar, and was brought to America and educated for his high calling by a white man. He not only foretold the Galveston flood but has located many articles of value and read the future correctly for his patrons, to their great astonishment and financial benefit. He is the seventh son of the seventh daughter, and was born on the seventh day of the seventh month, August. He guarantees to fix up the worst cases of matrimonial troubles that may be brought to him.

James White, Bryantsville, Ind., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve healed running sores on both legs. He had suffered 6 years. Doctors failed to help him. Get DeWitt's. Accept no imitations. Tallman & Co.

HARVEST FIELD NOTES

Henry G. F. Eggers' Wheat Went Over 45 Bushels to the Acre.

Henry G. F. Eggers, who lives near Warren station on the W. & C. R. railroad, is pleased to report one of the largest yields, in Umatilla county this year. Henry Lorenzen did his threshing for him and Mr. Eggers has now 7583 sacks of No. 1 wheat in the warehouse. This is an average of more than 45 bushels to the acre. Mr. Eggers is a young man, and is coming to the front as one of Umatilla county's most successful farmers.

R. H. Semple, who has been running header for Chris Breding seven and one-half miles north of Pendleton in the Cold Spring country, reports Mr. Breding is half through with harvesting. He has between 600 and 700 acres of wheat, which as far as threshed has gone close to 40 bushels per acre.

SOME PORTLAND GRAFTING

Found That There is "Double Shooting" in County Offices.

Portland, Aug. 19. There is in this city an organization known as the "Taxpayers' League," and its objects are municipal reform. The league has discovered inconsistancies in high places during the past year and was instrumental in the passage of many local laws at the last legislature. But the league has made another find. An expert was recently engaged to examine the workings of several laws and among others, the operation of the law covering the tax rolls. The books are in use during the days so that work on them must be carried on at night. It was stated at first that five men would be sufficient to make up the rolls and that more would be superfluous. During the absence of the county judge, the clerk force was increased to almost a score and they are all being paid. The two chief clerks are employed by the county in other capacities. During the day they receive a good salary from the county and at night they are paid $6 each for superintending the preparation of the rolls. These facts have just been collected by the league, which will soon make public a report on the subject. The "double shooting" by the two officers in question has been rumored on the streets for several weeks, but the matter has not been brought before the public formally as yet.

THE NEW PORTLAND DAILY

Business Men Get Out and Solicit Subscriptions.

Portland, Aug. 19.—An energetic movement is on foot trying to secure subscribers for the proposed new daily newspaper here. So much has been published in the coast press on this matter that the scheme is generally known to the reading public. The promotors want 10,000 guaranteed subscribers before starting the enterprise. A large number of business men of Portland have undertaken to raise this number. The town has been flooded with dodgers notifying the public of the proposition and it is the chief topic. The name selected is "The Portland Journal." Having attended to the missionary work in the way of hand circulars, delegations of business men left their establishments and, armed with subscription blanks, started out into the highways. The city was mapped out into districts and a house to house canvas commenced. It is said that the result of the first day amounted to $35,000, which, if true, is almost half the amount demanded by the promotors.

A YOUTHFUL ELOPEMENT

Portland Young People Run Away to Eugene, Oregon.

Portland, Aug. 19.—Another scandal is being hushed by the police which concerns a member of the special force. The 16-year-old son of a special officer ran away with a 15-year-old girl, the children going to Eugene, Or. It is said that the boy made an affidavit that his mother gave him $50 with which to defray the expenses of the trip. When the girl's mother went to see the officer, the latter became impertinent and defied her to make complaint at the office of the district attorney, declaring he would spend every dollar he had to defend the son, no matter what the boy had done. The bluff failed to work, for the woman laid the matter before the authorities, who, in turn, notified the chief of police to bring the special to terms or there would be something unpleasant. The special after being lectured by his superior conferred with the girl's mother, and, his anger taking another direction, turned against the boy, who was turned out of home.

WOOL THIEVES ARRESTED

GEORGE E. HAIGH AND J. FRANK DAY ARE IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

They Were Caught Sunday Morning in Day's Barn, West Pendleton, Engaged in Sacking Wool.

George E. Haigh and J. Frank Day were arrested at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 18, by Deputy Sheriff C. P. Davis and taken to the county jail. The arrest was made in Day's barn, in West Pendleton, between Alta and Webb street, where the men arrested were engaged in sacking wool stolen from the Pendleton scouring mills. The facts in connection with this case are as yellow and sensational as those which emblazon the pages of dime novel history. The fact that parties unknown have been stealing wool both from the Pendleton scouring mills and the Furnish warehouse for years has been known, and it is suspected that wool has been stolen also from Fred W. Hendley's Independent warehouse. Other arrests have been made in previous years, but there has nothing come out like the facts in this case.

Haigh Confesses His Guilt.

The Pendleton scouring mills were built and commenced operations in the spring of 1894, and one of the first men to be employed was George E. Haigh. For eight years he has worked for the company and has heretofore stood well. A reporter for the East Oregonian had a talk with Mr. Haigh this morning. He told the story and confessed his guilt, but exonerated J. Frank Day. Mr. Haigh said that the wool had been stolen at different times over a period of about five weeks, and that the last lot of it was taken about a month ago. Mr. Haigh hired the team and wagon of J. Frank Day to do the hauling, and rented the Day barn for a warehouse. Wool to the total amount of 1500 pounds had been taken. On Wednesday August 14, Mr. Haigh went to Jack Brown, who is in the employment of W. J. Furnish, and negotiated for the sale of the wool, which had in the meantime been sacked, having been taken loose.

Taken While Handling the Wool.

Mr. Brown took the subject under advisement, and two or three days later informed Haigh that he would buy the wool. The time set for the transfer was Sunday morning, August 18. Mr. Brown in the meantime informed the sheriff's office of what was in the wind, and just as Haigh, Day and Brown were engaged in re-sacking the wool, to hide its identity and prevent it from being recognized, the deputy sheriff appeared and took Haigh and Day into custody. The reporter asked Mr. Haigh during the course of the interview if he was going to plead guilty, and he answered: "I guess I will have to. I don't see that I can do anything else. I wouldn't have taken the wool, but I needed the money. I have worked at the scouring mill ever since it started, and this is the first time I have ever been in any trouble of this kind. I was the first sorter to draw money at the mill. Of course, this is bad for me, and nothing that can be said will make it worse. Day wasn't in with it."

The Wool Recovered.

The 1500 pounds of wool stolen was brought from Day's barn Sunday afternoon in two express wagons under direction of Jack Lycette, and stored for safe-keeping in the warehouse of the Independent warehouse company.

Mr. Haigh is a young man, was on several occasions a member of the Pendleton hose running team, and a member of the glee club. The arrest, charge and confession have been a great shock to his many acquaintances and friends. When informed that it meant a term of a couple of years in the penitentiary, he said he hoped it wouldn't be as bad as that.
