The rush this week at Rader's furniture store, corner of Main and Webb streets, shows what judicious advertising will do. The extremely low prices at which he is selling during his clearance sale would not have been known to so many people if Mr. Rader were not a firm believer in printer's ink. The up-to-date business man tells people what he has and invites them to investigate the truth of pretended bargains.

FOR BETTER TRAIN SERVICE

W. & C. R. and N. F. to Make Important Changes.

Commencing Sunday, September 1, the Washington & Columbia River railway company will establish a new passenger train between Walla Walla and Pasco. This train will be a straight passenger throughout, carrying a first class sleeper, day coach, mail and express car, and will leave Walla Walla at 8 p. m., reaching Eureka Junction at 9:21, Hunts 10:20, and Pasco at 11 o'clock. Returning, leave Pasco at 11:45 p. m., reaching Walla Walla at 3 a. m.

On September 1, the Northern Pacific will put on new trains between Spokane and Puget Sound points. The train will leave Spokane at 7:30 p. m., arrive in Pasco at 11:30 p. m. and arrive at Tacoma at 6:45 a. m. and Seattle at 9 a. m.

The east bound train will leave Tacoma at 11 p. m., Seattle 1:15, arrive at Pasco 11:20 p. m. and Spokane at 6:45 a. m.

The W. & C. R. R. train will leave Pendleton at 7 p. m., connecting with both trains on the Northern Pacific closely. This will cut out the lay-over at Hunt's Junction, giving good service to both Spokane and Sound points. Passengers for Northern Pacific points leaving Pendleton at 7 p.
m. can catch a sleeper at Pasco at 11 p. m. and get a good night's sleep, reaching Spokane or Tacoma in the morning.

This is a great improvement in passenger service out of Pendleton, which will be appreciated by the traveling public.

LADIES OF THE MACCABEES.

Held a Reception Wednesday Evening at Hotel Pendleton Parlor.

The ladies of the Jones Hive, No.
10, Ladies of the Maccabees, had a very pleasant meeting with Lady Nellie Lamson, state commander of Portland, and Lady Bay Sherwin of Ashland, in the parlors of the Hotel Pendleton on Wednesday evening. A short address was given in which were set forth the merits of the order represented by these ladies and a number of persons attended. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed and was productive of considerable good to the local hive. The ladies were en route from the east to western Oregon, having attended the grand review of the order.

Now For Buffalo.

The hot season is over and the weather is delightful for traveling and pleasant throughout the east. It is just the time to visit the great exposition at Buffalo. On Tuesday, September 3, the O. R. & N. Co. will sell tickets to Buffalo and return, good for 60 days at $70. Purchasers of tickets have choice of routes going or coming.
Call at O. R. & N. ticket office.

morning to prosecute Siddons Fan-chids, who was arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence and Mr. Halley returned on the afternoon train.

Mrs. A. M. Sheridan and daughters Maud, Cleo and Gertrude will arrive Pendleton on September 15, from Brooklyn, N. Y., where they have been during the past year. They will again occupy their house corner of Alta and Thompson.

O. W. Smith returned to his home at Bozeman, Montana, today. He has been visiting his brother, A. D. Smith of Pendleton for a week. His daughter, Miss Essie, did not return with her father, but remains here to attend school this winter.

Charles Probstel and his sister, Mrs. Lillian Fredericks, drove down from Weston on Wednesday and went to Hidayaw springs this morning.
They will return home to Weston next week. Mrs. Fredericks was the guest of Miss Celestine Moorhouse while in Pendleton.

William Adams, the well known rancher of Adams, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Adams has leased his chop mill and farm and is on his way to Cleveland, Ohio, to take in the grand encampment of the G. A. R.
He intends to return by way of Missouri and California.

SPOKANE'S BIG 1901 FAIR

Frank Frazier believes it will be a Good One With Clean Racing.

Frank Frazier sends the East Oregonian the following regarding the Spokane fair and racing connected therewith:

Spokane, Aug. 28.—I have been here in Spokane with my horses for a week and think that I am in a position to tell the readers of the East Oregonian what they may desire to know concerning the Spokane interstate fair, which will open September 10 and close September 21, especially, everything pertaining to the track and race meeting. They are giving $10,000 in purses for nine days of racing. Many of the best stables which have been represented at Butte will be here. They will have plenty of horses of all classes to make the sport interesting.

The new race track at the fair grounds is one of the best I have come across anywhere. It is already a splendid track to train on, and you may expect to see some fast time made on it.

The fair management is in the hands of the leading citizens of Spokane.
They do not pretend to be experts so far as horse racing is concerned, but they do know that it will take clean sport to satisfy the public, and they propose to give it to them. I think they deserve as much or more credit than any other men I have ever seen connected with a race track. The management of the old race track at Spokane was of such a character that horse racing has been killed for years in this locality, and the business men who have now renewed the sport in connection with the great annual fair have had a great deal to overcome.
But they have overcome it, for the reason that their reputation in their line of business is such that no one who knows them would doubt it.

Prominent Business Men Interested.

The common talk on the streets is that the fair and everything connected with it will be a success and this of course will help to make it a success.
I predict that Spokane in the near future will become the greatest horse race center of the northwest. They have got a great many millionaires here who have acquired wealth from mining, who unquestionably will be drawing into the sport. Some of them have already made a start. The fair as a whole will be held on a large scale. The livestock department will be very extensive, and I am glad to know that Oregon will carry off more of the honors. Both of the Lads of Portland, Minor of Heppner, C. B.

Wade of Pendleton and other prominent Oregon breeders will send the cream of their flocks and herds. The music will be supplied by the Royal Italian band, fifty strong, at a cost to the fair management of $5000. The Elks will hold high carnival every night during the fair. In conclusion, I only desire to say that any of the Umatilla county people who may doubt themselves of the excursion rates to the Spokane fair will get full value for their money in the entertainment which is being provided.

LOSSES OF GRAIN.

Pierce had Wheat Burned—Vorheis Got His Money.

Chas. R. Thompson, state manager of the German-American Fire Insurance Co., is in town today for the purpose of adjusting the Pierce-Tweedy Co.'s claim resulting from a fire which occurred in the company's wheat field near Cayuse. The Pierce-Tweedy Co. will finish their harvesting tomorrow.
They began about July 15.

W. D. Vorheis had a loss of wheat burned and T. A. Hudson adjusted the claim, allowing him $210.

Wants a Chinook Dictionary.

Dr. J. C. Shields of Pilot Rock is in town today. He returns home this evening. Dr. Shields was a resident of Pendleton 20 years ago and has been in Eastern Oregon 30 years. Dr.
Shields is in search of a copy of the Chinook jargon dictionaries which is much desired by friends of his in the east. He will regard it as a favor if someone will inform him where he can purchase one, addressing him at Pilot Rock, Oregon.
