DURHAM HELD UNDER BONDS

TRIAL AT WALLULA OF THE "DEAD-LINE" CASE.

The defendant denies the truthfulness of the assertions made in Previous Reports.

Jack Dunnington, conductor of the W. & C. R. R., running between Pendleton and Wallula, stated today to the East Oregonian that in the justice court at Wallula, W. C. Durham was held in $250 bonds to keep the peace.
The trial lasted for two days, and was the sensation of the week over there.

Mr. Dunnington says that from what he learns in Wallula the East Oregon-ian's statement made on Wednesday was substantially correct.

Mr. Durham sends to the East Oregonian the following letter regarding the affair:

Wallula, Aug. 29, 1901.—To the Editor.—In your issue of yesterday, August 28, under the bold heading, "Durham Went Gunning," you have recklessly, maliciously and damnablely, in the entire article, I never said time had in my hands or possession, nor did I ever in my life own, such a gun. Nor did I on "Tuesday" or any other time act towards Sam Bowman, or others, or this community, as you have stated. Furthermore, I feel myself fully competent to protect myself, in the right legal manner and right spirit, against your vile, reckless malicious, damnable slanders.
Will you be manly enough to publish this in your issue of tomorrow, just as written, and send me several copies thereof? W. C. DURHAM.

PERSONAL MENTION.

D. H. Sanders is down from Athena today.

Judge G. A. Hartman went to Portland Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lemons of La Grande are visiting in Pendleton.

T. B. Wells, deputy game warden and Geo. Adams are down from Upper McKay.

William Humphrey and wife have returned from a summer's outing at Lebanon springs.

Mrs. J. S. Matthews and Miss Mabel Mathews went to Bingham Springs last night to be gone two weeks.

Miss Eva Kline who has been the guest of Mrs. Joe Kline, will leave tonight for her home in Salem.

Heppner Gazette: Miss Grace Til-lard who has been visiting friends in Oregon City, returned Saturday.

Mrs. L. B. Reeder and daughter Lucile have returned from Tacoma after a month's visit in that city.

Mrs. Swaggart of Athena was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. Matlock. She returned home this morning.

W. J. Furnish and family have returned from an outing at Lebanon and Hidaway springs that has extended throughout the summer.

Mrs. A. D. Stillman who has returned from Portland reports the condition of her mother, Mr. Mary A. Dis-way, as considerably improved.

Dennis Morton, who was formerly connected with the Boston Store and is now traveling for a New York firm, is here on a short business trip.

Mrs. Lee Teutsch, Miss Nellie Mc-Mullen and Lee Teutsch, Jr., arrived this morning, having visited for two months in Salem, Eugene and Portland.

Mrs. J. W. Dykes and son George of Milton have been ill with typhoid fever and are now recovered. Miss Jennie Dykes, deputy postmistress at Milton, who was not on duty during her mother's illness, has resumed her position in the postoffice.

Heppner Gazette: Mr. Cass Matlock was in from his ranch in McDonald Canyon, near Butter Creek, Monday. Mr. Matlock was accompanied by his father-in-law, Uncle Charles Henry Bennett of Lane county, who is here on a visit. Mr. Bennett is 83 years of age and is still spry and active.

The Milton Eagle has, within the last few days, changed hands. Carl E. Brown, who has been in the employ of F. G. Hull, the former proprietor, is the purchaser of the plant. W. S.
Brown, brother of the present owner, has been in Milton for a short time assisting in the transfer. He is expected to return to Pendleton tonight.

Athena Personal.
From the Athena Press: Miss Bethene Swaggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swaggart, will take up studies at St. Joseph's academy, Pendleton.

Homer Watts, who has been attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, will this year attend Idaho university at Moscow. Mr. Watts has acquired reputation as a football player, and for a time contemplated going to Berkeley, California.

Miss Ivah Callender has been promoted to the position of head nurse in the head surgery department of the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.
The position is an important one, and Miss Callender's promotion to it is a deserved tribute to her ability and thoroughness.

NEWS OF LOCAL CHURCHES

Announcements for Sunday Services by Various Pendleton Pastors.

The East Oregonian will be glad to make public items of news pertaining to the local churches. Pastors and members can send in such items or notify this office and a reporter will give attention to the matter.—Ed.

Rev. W. E. Potwine, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, is about to secure a fund of $175 for the purchase of a baptismal font to replace that one sold to the church at Heppner. It will be handsomely made, and add to the furnishings of an already well furnished house of worship.

E. F. Marshall has informed Mr.
Potwine that he will present to the church a solid silver communion service of four pieces, in memory of his father, mother and brother.

Rev. Andrew Bard has returned to Wallula from the coast, and informs his parishioners that he intends to remain there. It had been reported that he would leave for some other place, and, indeed, offers had been made to him by several large city parishes. The people of Wallula will be glad to learn of his intentions. St.
Paul's church, over which he presides, is to build a handsome stone structure to cost about $10,000.

Rev. H. J. Talbott, D. D., for two years pastor of the First Methodist church of Evansville, Ind., has accepted a call to the Methodist church of Portland, to succeed Rev. H. W.
Kellogg who will leave September 15 for Indianapolis. Dr. Talbott is expected about October 1. He comes well recommended as a preacher of ability and as an enthusiastic church worker. Before going to Evansville he was pastor of the Meridian street Methodist church of Indianapolis. He is about 50 years old.

ian street Methodist church of Indianapolis. He is about 50 years old.

Sunday Announcements.

Church of the Redeemer—Divine service tomorrow at hours as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 a.
m. Evening prayer at 7:30 p. m.
Midweek meetings and services will be held as follows: On Wednesday afternoon the monthly meeting of the Parish Aid Society; on Friday evening at 7:30 evening prayer, followed by a special meeting of the Woman's auxiliary. The regular meeting of the vestery will be held on Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

Christian church—Preaching service tomorrow evening. Subject, "The World's Conception of the Christ." In the absence of the pastor there will be no service at 11 a. m. Sunday school as usual. R. A. Copple.

Congregational Church—The Y. P.
S. C. E. service at 7 p. m. Subject, "Spiritual Acquaintance." Job 2: 1-23. Mr. German, leader. All interested in the Congregational church are requested to attend a business meeting at the church prayer room on Tuesday evening, September 3 at 8 o'clock.

M. E. church, south—The last service of the conference year, will be held next Sunday. Preaching in the morning and evening at the usual hours.

Thompson street M. E. church—Rev.
F. R. Spaulding of Hood River will preach Sunday morning and evening.

First Presbyterian church—11 a. m., "A Refiner of Silver." 8 p. m., "The Empty House." The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered immediately after the morning sermon.
Strangers in the city are very cordially invited to these services. Robert J.
Diven, pastor.

First Baptist church—Subject of the morning sermon: "The Bones of Joseph." The ordinance of the Lord's supper will be observed after the morning sermon. In the evening the sixth and last sermon in the series of "Our Inheritance." The subject will be "The Power to Enjoy Our Inheritance Anywhere."

Another Air Ship Invented.

Another inventor claims to have perfected an airship. It is to be hoped this inventor has at last solved the problem successfully, and the launching of this ship into space will be looked forward to with considerable eagerness. This mode of travel will doubtless supplant any other means of transportation, the same as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has supplanted inferior medicines in the cure of stomach, liver and kidney disorders. The effect of this medicine upon the refractory stomach is marvelous, and when taken faithfully will cure dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness and sick headache.
It is a good medicine to take, as it will keep the bowels regular and ward off attacks of malaria, fever and ague.
Be sure to give it a trial.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

Yesterday the divorce case of Gertrude Green vs. Charles E. Green had a hearing before the circuit court.
The defendant did not appear and the plaintiff was granted a decree of divorce on the grounds of desertion and was allowed to assume her maiden name, Gertrude Hunt.

District Attorney Bailey has yet three men to arraign before the circuit court. They are J. J. Bree, J. Frank Day and C. E. Knowles. The pleas will probably be heard on Monday.

The Guest of Oregon.

The Oregon commissioners to the Pan-American exposition have secured the consent of Colonel William Hancock Clark of New York city, to become the guest of honor at the exposition which is proposed to be held in Portland in 1905, in celebration of the Lewis and Clark expedition, by which the Northwestern territory was opened for settlement. Colonel Clark is the oldest surviving relative of Captain William Clark, of that famous expedition. He is a nephew of the late Colonel John O'Fallon of St. Louis, and until 20 years ago was a resident of that city.

New wheat is beginning to come into the Heppner warehouses. Wheat is turning out better than was expected.
Last year farmers came back with empty sacks, but this year they are in a great many cases going to the warehouses for more sacks to hold their wheat. The quality is very good.
Threshing is well along and hauling to market will be general in a short time.
