The last efforts to settle the steel strike have failed. Senator William H. E. Mason of Chicago in speaking of the enactment of laws to prevent the gathering of anarchists, said: "The man that attempted to kill President McKinley is guilty of treason. A law should be enacted by the government that would prohibit the teaching of treason and deal with those guilty of the crime."

Although Vice President Roosevelt does not know if the government has made more adequate provision for his protection than it did for President McKinley. Whenever the vice president leaves the office of Lawyer Ansley Wilcox in Buffalo where he is staying, there are two or three secret service men at hand to ward off any attempt that might be made on his life.

At the request of Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Prof. Edward W. Beins, one of the keenest practical economists of the day, and for years recognized as authority on all matters of taxation, has just completed an exhaustive report on the true value of Ohio railroads. Buffalo, Sept. 11.—Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, has gone through another long examination at the hands of the police officials, but emerged from it without having added anything material to their knowledge of the case. The chief effort of the detectives was to draw from the prisoner some admission as to his accomplices, but he persistently stuck to his denial that he was assisted in any way in the commission of the crime.

Czolgosz is still kept secluded and the detectives are the only ones who have access to him. He is still strong and healthy and eats with a will. Czolgosz is a smoker.

Buffalo, Sept. 11.—Czolgosz spent a restless night and had little appetite for breakfast. The first thing he asked for was a cigar, which was given him. It is the intention of the police to tell Czolgosz of the arrest of Goldman. It is believed the news will have the effect of making him tell more. The prosecution banks strongly on the effect of this information.

HIGH BAIL FOR THE ANARCHISTS

They Must Put Up $25,000 to Leave Jail.

EMMA THINKS SHE'S A MARTYR

Court in Her Opinion Has No Right to Hold Her—Czolgosz Maintains Silence as to Accomplices.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Emma Goldman was arraigned this morning to answer the charge of conspiracy to assassinate the president. The case was continued to September 19. Bail for Miss Goldman and the other anarchists under arrest here was fixed at $25,000. Continuance was granted because her attorney failed to appear. When asked what she had to say to the charge preferred against her, Miss Goldman avowed innocence, and said the authorities had no right to hold her. The judge, however, thought otherwise, and ordered her back to her cell.

Buffalo authorities are requested to send extradition papers for all the anarchists under arrest here. Was in Pittsburg. Buffalo, Sept. 11.—Steps will be immediately taken to have Emma Goldman brought here from Chicago. It has been learned that Emma Goldman held eight conferences last Friday and Saturday with St. Louis anarchists in the saloon of Ernest Kurzenkabe, 202 South Third street. Kurzenkabe says she went on Thursday from Cincinnati and departed for Chicago on Saturday night. When told she was accused of being implicated in the shooting of President McKinley she laughed aloud. "Let's see them prove what they allege," she said.

Pittsburg, Sept. 11.—Carl Noid and Harry Gordon, well known Pittsburg anarchists and intimate friends of Emma Goldman, have been arrested here. It is learned on what is considered good authority that the arrest of the two men was made upon a telegraphic request from the police department at Buffalo.

Emma Goldman was in this city September 1, and participate in a meeting of several anarchists at the house of Gordon on Wylie avenue. There is a strong suspicion that the assassin of the president came to Pittsburg with Miss Goldman on her last visit. Knowledge of the condition of the president is kept from him. He knew on Friday night that the president was still alive, but has been given no information since then.

Anarchist Arrested on Suspicion. Chicago, Sept. 11.—Edmund Wolczynski was arrested here this afternoon on suspicion of being the man seen with Czolgosz in Buffalo shortly before McKinley was shot.

Coat Was Made in Chicago. Chicago, Sept. 11.—United States secret service officers in Chicago, having come to the conclusion that the attempted assassination of President McKinley was the result of a plot arranged in this city, have telegraphed Chief Wilkie, who is now in Buffalo, asking him to send Czolgosz's coat to Chicago immediately. The officers believe the coat was made by a tailor who lived near the house of Abraham Isaak, one of the anarchists now being held on a charge of conspiracy. This fact once determined, the officers say, it will be a matter of only a few hours to ascertain exactly where Czolgosz lived in Chicago, the names of those with whom he associated while here, and the length of time he remained in the city.

Would-Be Assassin Sweated. Buffalo, Sept. 11.—Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, has gone through another long examination at the hands of the police officials, but emerged from it without having added anything material to their knowledge of the case. The chief effort of the detectives was to draw from the prisoner some admission as to his accomplices, but he persistently stuck to his denial that he was assisted in any way in the commission of the crime.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL STORY

McKINLEY, SCOTCH-IRISH DESCENT. BORN NILES, O., 1843. Served Civil War, Elected President 1896. Re-Elected 1900—Lawyer by Profession.

William McKinley is an American of Scotch-Irish descent, and was born at Niles, Trumbull county, Ohio, January 29, 1843. His father, William McKinley, was an iron manufacturer, and his mother's name was Nancy C. Allison. When President McKinley was 2 years old his parents moved to Poland, Ohio, and he received his early education at the Poland seminary. In 1860 he entered Allegheny college, at Meadville, Pa., but was obliged to leave during his first year on account of ill health. For a while he taught school at Poland, and in June, 1861, in response to President Lincoln's call for troops, he enlisted in the Twenty-third Ohio volunteers, commanded by Colonel, afterwards general, Rosecrans.

Young McKinley served his country in the field throughout the war and attained the rank of captain, with the brevet of major. In 1865 he resigned his commission, returned to Poland and began the study of law. He spent a year at the Albany law school, and in 1867 was admitted to the bar.

He began the practice of law at Canton, Ohio, which has ever since been his home. He entered politics at once and became an active political stump speaker. In 1869 he was elected prosecuting attorney for Stark county, Ohio. In 1876 he was elected to congress and re-elected each successive term until 1882, when, upon a contest, he was unseated near the end of the last session. He was re-elected in 1884, 1886 and 1888, but in 1890 he was defeated, owing to the opposition which was aroused upon the passage of the McKinley tariff law.

Elected Governor. In 1891 he was elected governor of Ohio and was re-elected in 1893 by 90,000 majority. In 1892 he received 182 votes at Minneapolis for the republican presidential nomination, although he was not a candidate and had made no canvass for the nomination. In 1896 he was nominated for the presidency on the first ballot by the republican national convention held at St. Louis, and he was elected over William J. Bryan by 271 electoral votes to the latter's 176. The popular vote was 7,104,779 for McKinley and 5,502,325 for Bryan.

The events of President McKinley's first term are still fresh in everybody's mind. The Spanish war, the cession of Porto Rico and the Philippines, the temporary protectorate established over Cuba, the strengthening of the gold standard, the return of prosperity, the extension of our markets abroad, all these made his first term memorable. He was renominated in 1897 by acclamation and was again opposed by William J. Bryan of Nebraska. He was re-elected by 252 votes in the electoral college to 195 cast for Mr. Bryan. His popular plurality at the polls was 832,280, the largest ever received by any candidate for the presidency. He was inaugurated for his second term on the fourth of March last.

President McKinley's projected trip through the south and to the Pacific coast last May was interrupted at San Francisco by the serious illness of Mrs. McKinley and the party returned to Washington without visiting the Pacific north-west. Mrs. McKinley's health improved and in July the president and Mrs. McKinley left Washington for Canton, where they spent the greater portion of the summer. They went to Buffalo to visit the exposition on Wednesday, and Thursday was President's day at the exposition. Mr. McKinley's speech was one of the most notable and important utterances he has ever made.
