

LOOK AGAIN

This cut represents one of the latest styles in

NEW SHIRTS for Fall and Winter wear.

$1 TO $1.50

each

Cleaver Bros. Dry Goods Co.

East Oregonian

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1901.

WALLA WALLA ELKS' DAY

Saturday, Sept. 26, Fruit Fair Gives

Them the Right of Way.

Walla Walla, Sept. 16.—While the work on the interior decorations at the Walla Walla fair is progressing rapidly under the management of Mr. Cox as used by a volunteer corps of ladies, the men are out in force and are trying their best on their horns in preparation for their great jubilee which is to come in the very center of the carnival on Friday of next week. They are preparing to shine, and they will do it.

"The Walla Walla Elks are not alone in this celebration," said C. F. Van Duzer yesterday. "There are other clubs from other cities and they will be out in force and do things grand. I am glad we turned one of the days over to the fair over to the Elks. They are doing a great interest in the matter and will turn it off as successfully as any one, better than most. Their wives are with them in the venture. The women know their husbands' reputations depend upon the showing they make and they mean those reputations shall be without stain."

"From all over the state Elks will be in Walla Walla on that day. Every one must meet an Elk on the street he goes by of some that is coming. We have arranged that there will be nothing in anything that is underneath. The parade will be at a time when all can see it and trains coming and leaving the city will be so timed that their arrival or departure will in no wise affect. Both railway companies have agreed to this."

BASE BALL SUNDAY.

Invincibles Won From Pioneers by a Score of 11 to 3.

On Sunday afternoon the Invincibles relieved their past record and covered themselves with glory by taking a game from the Pioneers. For five innings the Invincibles slammed and smashed and swiped at the ball and smashed and smashed and swiped in vain, but in the sixth inning, with two men out and two strikes against him, Fred Lampkin hit the ball for a home run drive over center field for three bases. It was then that the balloon began to rise and before the inning ended six runs had been scored. Cronin, who had been pitching good ball for the Pioneers, seemed to lose control and gave place to Ulrich in the ninth inning. The Pioneers scored two in the first and one in the third, which was the extent of their run getting. The game ended in a score of 11 to 3 in favor of the Invincibles.

Lampkin pitched a good game and was well supported by Hartman behind the bat. Ulrich at second covered his share of ground and made some very pretty stops. Lampkin was the star at the stick, with his three base hits. Score by innings.

Invincibles.....

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50

51

52

53

54

55

56

57

58

59

60

61

62

63

64

65

66

67

68

69

70

71

72

73

74

75

76

77

78

79

80

81

82

83

84

85

86

87

88

89

90

91

92

93

94

95

96

97

98

99

100

101

102

103

104

105

106

107

108

109

110

111

112

113

114

115

116

117

118

119

120

121

122

123

124

125

126

127

128

129

130

131

132

133

134

135

136

137

138

139

140

141

142

143

144

145

146

147

148

149

150

151

152

153

154

155

156

157

158

159

160

161

162

163

164

165

166

167

168

169

170

171

172

173

<p