The new dancing club had intended to give a dancing party at the new La Dow hall on next Friday night, but it was necessary to postpone it because the hall is not yet completed. Instead the club has decided to give an informal party at the Armory tomorrow night. All members of the old Institution and U and I clubs have been invited.

The complaint in the damage suit of Geo. W. Utt vs. C. Cairnes was filed this morning by the law firm of Carter & Raley. Mr. Utt wants $500 damages and $500 for surgeons fees, as a result of a runaway. Utt claims that on the June 19, Cairnes lighted and threw greckers so that his Utt's leg became frightened and ran away. His leg was broken in the accident and a damage suit is the result.

Any ruptured man, woman or child calling at Tallman & Co.'s drug store any time between 6 o'clock a. m. and 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, September 18, will be fitted by an expert with an "Honest John Truss" absolutely free of charge for this one day only. Not only will the fitting be free, but the truss also will be free to every person so afflicted, coming between the hours named.

Deputy Sheriff J. A. Blakley has just returned from a hunt after the two men who committed the depredation on the Japs at Cold Springs Landing last Friday night. He found the Japs very much excited over the affair, but unable to give him any information as to the appearance of their assailants. They were kept too busy dodging blows from the pistol bullets. All except one were badly bruised and cut and very much frightened. The deputy returned without being able to find a clue.

Rudolph Martin's delivery horse and wagon was starting quietly in front of the grocery store today at noon, when the Wedemann company's wagon, which was marching down Main street, struck up a loud tune that so frightened the horse that he tore madly up Webb street toward the barn where he is kept. All went well until the stable was reached, when in making the turn, horse and wagon were turned upside down. The horse was not hurt but the wagon was damaged to the extent of about $3.

STATE DIPLOMAS ISSUED.

Supt. Ackerman Gives Out the List of Successful Applicants.
Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman on Wednesday issued certificates and diplomas to those teachers who successfully passed the last regular examination. All who receive state papers must attain an average of 85 per cent; those receiving diplomas must also have 60 months' teaching experience and those receiving state certificates 30 months. The successful teachers were as follows:

State diplomas—Nina Johnson, Portland; William Chiles Bryant, Monmouth; Ava McLaughlin, Milwaukee; Margaret Williams, Oregon City; Emma Olds, Fairdale; V. S. Reid, Heppner.
State certificates—Maude Kenworthy, Portland; Nettie Fawcett, Portland; Joella Johnson, Portland; Clara Hager, Creswell; Iona Horsting, Oakland; Myrtle Porter, Forest Grove; Hannah H. Anderson, Beaverton; Abbie Stites, Williams; Robekah Gane, Salem; Isabelle Attkenn, Salem; Robert Günther, Shusiel; Francis Barnes, Jacksonville; Anna Jeffrey, Medford; Mrs. Alice Bacon, Gold Hill; Jennie Robins, Salem; Harvey Wilson, North Yamhill; Edward A. Miller, Long Creek; Carrie Ridings, Marquam; Mary E. Scott, Wilcox, Wash.
There were several candidates who successfully passed the examination but who received no papers for the reason that they have not had sufficient teaching experience or are under age.

He Wanted to Make a Deposit.
A big heavy man from down in the south country somewhere, stepped into one of the Pendleton banks yesterday, with the evident intention of depositing some money. He walked up to the window and pulled out his wallet and said he wanted to leave it there. He was directed to the receiving teller, to whom he made the same request. The teller handed out a card and said, "That's all right. Now give me your signature." The depositor looked about vacantly for a moment while he felt around in his pockets and then, with a puzzled expression, remarked: "I'm dauged if I hain't clean forgot to bring it along."

ARMY'S HARVEST FESTIVAL

SALVATIONISTS SET THE DATES FOR SEPTEMBER 24 AND 25.

People Asked to Donate Fruits, Vegetables and Many Things for Poor.
The Salvation Army celebrates in the fall of each year what is known as the harvest festival. It is about five years now since this annual festival began to be regularly observed.

The Salvation Army believes in following out the injunction, "Offer to the Lord of thy substance and the first fruits of all thine increase," and therefore it is that at this time their halls are filled with gifts to be sold for the benefit of their work. Stacked up in abundance, on the platforms and wherever room can be found for them, one may see great piles of luscious fruit of all kinds—vegetables of every description, barrels of flour, groceries, canned goods, furniture, clothing, pictures, fancy articles, every sort of thing possible to imagine.

For the convenience of those interested we give a list of articles asked for to which may be added almost any conceivable thing which can be disposed of for money or used for the good of the poor.

Fruit, flowers, vegetables, fish, meat, chickens, corn, flour, wheat, oatmeal, bread, crackers, cheese, tea, coffee, cocoa, books, pictures, jewelry, shoes, coal, wood, condensed milk, canned goods, live stock, lumber, shingles, chairs, sheets, hats, cutlery, tools.

The proceeds of the sale are especially for the benefit of the home work, a large proportion of what is raised in one city or town being used for the local work, and the remainder going for the carrying on of the work throughout the country and surely all will agree that the work being done by this organization in this country is worthy of support from everyone who loves to see the condition of the poor improved and the tide of sin in a measure checked. The accompanying list of figures will give those interested some idea of the variety of this work, its scope and importance:

732 corps and outposts, 298 officers and employees, 45,000 annual conversions, 93,000 weekly circulation in English, German, Scandinavian and Chinese, 105 social relief institutions, 546 social officers and employees, in charge, $250,000 annually spent in poor relief, 8000 nightly accommodation for the poor, 2,500,000 beds annual accommodation, 69 workmen's hotels, 5 women's hotels, 24 food depots, 24 industrial homes for the unemployed, 3 large colonies, 3000 acres colonized, 320 colonists, 5 employment bureaux, 13 secondhand stores, 20 rescue homes for fallen women, accommodating 450 persons, 1400 women cared for each year, 24 lunatic settlements, with eighty officers in charge.

The dates of the festival are September 24 and 25.
It is proposed to have in connection with the celebrations a produce and industrial exhibition, and sale of goods on Tuesday September 24 at 8 o'clock at the Fall on Webb street.

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. H. Clarke went to Lewiston this morning.
L. L. Tallman has returned to Walla Walla from a visit in Alaska.
D. Dunning left last night for a visit to his old home in Eldon, Iowa.
R. Alexander returned this morning from a two days' visit in Portland.
Mrs. Mary Butler went to Portland this morning to attend the carnival.
Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Botkin are in town today from Athena visiting friends.
Matt McGroove has been in Portland buying goods for his stores at Athena and Milton.
Mrs. J. P. Faul of Baker City is a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. P. Bushae, in Pendleton.
E. P. Marshall went to Heppner this morning to attend the Woolgrowers' convention.
Deputy U. S. Marshal Worthington, is here on business connected with the Weston normal school.
Dr. William House arrived Monday evening from Heppner and is registered at the Hotel Pendleton.
Nat Webb came from Walla Walla Monday evening and went to Heppner today to attend the wool meeting.

J. E. Thompson of Walla Walla is here on a few days' visit with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Thompson and brother Harry.
J. Clowe who was wounded at Cold Springs Landing last Friday, is gradually improving. Dr. W. G. Cole will probe for the bullet tomorrow.

John Town, the Montana sheep man, who has been in Pendleton for the past few days, returned to his home in Great Falls today. He will be here again to buy a large number of lambs.
Mr. and Mrs. John Vert left for the east this morning. Mrs. Vert is on her way to Scotland, where she will visit relatives for the next six months. Mr. Vert will accompany her as far as Buffalo.
F. A. Carle has associated himself with W. J. Murphy, editor and publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, in the capacity of chief editorial writer. Mr. Carle was formerly managing editor of the Portland Oregonian.

Lee Moorhouse returned today from Billings and vicinity, in Montana, where he went to secure some views. He visited the Custer and Reno battlefields and the Crow agency and has brought back with him about two dozen pictures.
J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of public instruction, will be here next Saturday to meet with the executive board of the state association. Principal E. B. Conklin and County Superintendent Nowlin will be present and such others of the committee as happen to be in town.

Mrs. C. J. Carlson, formerly a resident of Pendleton and now living at the Concord mine, has been visiting at the home of Mrs. W. D. Hansford during the past week. She will leave for Baker City tomorrow morning to visit her daughter, Edna, who is a student at the convent.
Miss Daisy Stewart came home from a visit in La Grande, Walla Walla and other towns, arriving on Monday evening. She will not return to Portland this winter, where she was employed in the department store of Olde, Wortman & King, but will remain in Pendleton. Her father, Harold Stewart of Pilot Rock has purchased lots here and is now erecting a dwelling house which he will occupy in a few weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. Perry Chandler are in town en route from Walla Walla to John Day, Grant county. Mr. Chandler has served during the past year as field agent of Whitman college. He has been appointed by Bishop Mallevou of the M. E. church to the pastorate of the John Day circuit. Mr. Chandler's son, Perry Chandler, Jr., owns and edits the Grant County News at Canyon City, a mile from John Day.
Monday's La Grande Chronicle: Rev. Father Moore preached his farewell sermon in La Grande yesterday and will take his departure Thursday for the scene of his new duties in Beaverton. Rev. Father L. Przybylski is here and will preach his first sermon next Sunday. Father Przybylski's name is strictly Polish and is best pronounced by dropping the initial P. and pronouncing the rz as sh. The pronunciation then becomes in English, Shi-bil-ski, with the accent on the second syllable.

"THE CRUCIFER"

Monthly Publication by Rev. Andreas Bard of Walla Walla.

The Crucifer is a magazine published at Walla Walla by the Rev. Andreas Bard, rector of the St. Paul's church. It is from the press of the Union, and barring its somewhat unartistic title-page, is one of the best products of typographic work coming to the East Oregonian. The editor devotes it to the furtherance of the work of his parish, also utilizing it for the publication of charmingly written short sermons on subjects of current interest. From time to time it contains news of the project to build a fine new house of worship for St. Paul's church, which the rector proposes shall be a credit to the town in which it is to be erected.

New Thing in 'Phones.

A new thing in telephones has been inaugurated at one of the piers of one of the big ocean-going steamers in New York. Telephone apparatus is placed on the steamers, and a station erected on the pier. Connection is made by a flexible cord. By this means telephone communication can be established with incoming steamers before the gang plank is put out. In the case of outgoing steamers, passengers can have telephone communication with friends till the vessel leaves the pier.

THAT SUSANVILLE ROAD

$25,000 Has Not Been Raised as is Commonly Reported.

A statement of unknown parentage has gained currency in all the country to the effect that Pendleton business men have subscribed a $2000 fund for the improvement of the road to Susanville. As a matter of fact, the business men of Pendleton have no such fund in hand nor in contemplation at this time. The trade of the Susanville mines comes here, over a road fully as good as those leading to any other point in the Inland Empire, because this is the natural point to which it gravitates. It is appreciated by the business men here, who have been alert to see that public highways in that direction are in good condition.
At this time, perhaps, the road at the southern end of Umatilla county needs some repairs, which the county court should attend to at once, but the conditions are not extreme, and the road is a very good one. Comparatively slight repairs will make it good as new.

Dr. H. W. Kellogg, who will leave Portland Tuesday to begin his Indian-apolis pastorate, preached his farewell sermon Sunday at Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal church.
