While talking with two friends about the death of President McKinley and lamenting he could not get at the assassin to do him harm E. H. Paramore of Chicago, suddenly drew a revolver and fired a bullet into his own brain. He died while being taken to the hospital. Paramore was formerly a deputy United States marshal.

President Roosevelt has informed Mrs. McKinley through Secretary Cortelyou that, in pursuance of the intention of the late President McKinley and in recognition of devoted services as well as because of eminent fitness, Medical Inspector P. M. Rixey will be appointed surgeon general of the navy upon the expiration of the term of Surgeon General Van Reypen.

Emma Goldman attended memorial services held in honor of Mr. McKinley. It was not of her own volition that she was present at the demonstration of sorrow, and the course she followed during the services appeared to show lack of sympathy at the spirit of the occasion. The ceremonies at which Miss Goldman was present were held in the women's ward of the county jail.

J. W. Cleaver died at his residence on Mount Tabor Thursday morning, at the age of 76. His demise is notable from the fact that he was the pioneer furniture manufacturer and undertaker of the Pacific Northwest. He was of English birth and came to Oregon in his early youth, and to California in 1849. In 1850 he came to Oregon, and started a chair factory in Portland, and to this day many of his chairs are yet in evidence, so thorough was his workmanship.

TOO MUCH

Exercise is as bad as too little for the growing girl. It is very easy for her to overdo, and this is especially dangerous at that critical period of a young girl's life when she crosses the line of womanhood. It is not an uncommon thing to lay the foundation for years of after misery by neglect of necessary precautions at the first "change of life."

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes regularity, but it gives health to the entire womanly organism. It is the best medicine for diseases peculiar to women because it cures the causes of disease completely and permanently. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor any other narcotic. It cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

"For a number of months I suffered with various troubles, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctor said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a most encouraging reply and commenced treatment a week before I began to feel better, and as I continued, my health gradually improved, and is improving every day." GLITTERING PAGEANT IN FRANCE

When Russia's Czar and President Loubet Reviewed.

AN ARMY OF 140,000 SOLDIERS

His Slavonic Highness Rode a Magnificent Black Charger, His Royal Consort Riding in a Landau.

Bethany, Near Rheims, Sept. 21.—One hundred and forty thousand French soldiers in full campaign equipment marched in review before President Loubet and the czar of Russia here today. Before the review began there was a panic among the crowd trying to reach one of the spectators' stands. When the gates opened the pressure of the crowd smashed the barriers. A stampede followed, in which women were crushed, many fainting.

The czar was mounted on a superb black charger, the czarina and President Loubet being in landaus attended by gorgeously attired aides. They rode around the inside of the square formed by the troops and the stands. The whole army stood at attention, each division cheering as the czar passed. The czar acknowledged the cheering with a military salute. The party then returned to the reviewing pavilion and the troops began to file past.

SOME TESTIMONY ON SCHLEY

Various Commanders Appear in the Inquiry Court as Witnesses.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Today's session of the Schley court of inquiry opened with Commander Harbor on the stand. Schley's counsel cross-examined Harbor on his statement of yesterday that no picket vessels were stationed inside of the line of blockade at Cienfuegos, when the flying squadron arrived at that port. An official report was produced in which it was stated that three vessels acted as pickets. Harbor said he would not contradict the report.

Harbor testified that the Texas had coaled at sea near Dry Tortugas in weather as rough as it was at Cienfuegos and Santiago, but admitted that the reefs at Tortugas break the sea. The witness maintained that his statement to the effect that the fleet did not go close in shore at Santiago at night was correct, notwithstanding Higginson's statement to the contrary. The first sensational incident of the inquiry occurred when Harbor made vigorous objection to the manner in which Raynor was cross-examining him. Raynor, while asking a question, excitedly shook his finger at the witness, whereupon Harbor said in considerable spirit: "Don't you shake your finger at me." At the afternoon session Commander Schroeder said two things were left undone that might have been done in the effort to destroy the Colon on May 31. He said the American vessels might have gone in closer and might have steamed more closely during the firing.

THE NEW YORK MARKET

Reported by I. L. Kay & Co., Pendleton, Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange Brokers.

New York, Sept. 21.—There was but little doing in wheat today and prices were a shade lower. Liverpool closed 5-8. New York opened at 76 1/2, and closed 76 1/2 for December. Stocks were steady, with but little change on prices. The export shipments for the week were 3,840,000, compared with 3,526,000 for same week last year.

REPORT UNJUST TO BUCKLEY

It Was Not He Who Discharged the Mixed Train Crew.

The East Oregonian printed recently a statement that Asst. Supt. M. J. Buckley had discharged the conductor and brakemen and engine crew of the mixed train running between Pendleton and Walla Walla. It appears that Mr. Buckley did not discharge the crew, and the East Oregonian makes instant correction of its former inadvertent misstatement.

But, as to who did discharge that crew, this paper has not received information. It is apparently withheld by the railroad company. Hence the East Oregonian is compelled merely to say that he did not discharge the crew, and leave its readers to await the blast of Gabriel's trumpet, when, perhaps, they will learn the facts.

This paper believes that it would be wisdom on the part of railroad managers to instruct employes of responsible character and who are in position to tell the exact truth to give out information to the press upon such occasions as demand printing occurrences relating to the operation of the road. In the event of accidents, it would be infinitely better for all concerned if the actual facts were given out from an authoritative source. Friends of persons on a wrecked train are entitled to know whether or not a dozen people have been killed. An instance in this connection occurred two years ago when a passenger train was derailed between Pendleton and Portland. An unusually large number of Pendleton residents were on that train, and yet this paper could not obtain from the company's representatives one single fact, and was compelled to go to press with an inaccurate report purporting to be correct, but which was later proven to be an over-statement. Tell the facts. They are bound to come out one day or two later, anyway, and might as well be given on the day of the accident.—Ed.

HOT LAKE SANITARIUM CO.

Formed Yesterday, Property to be Worth $20,000 When Complete.

Walter Pierce and A. D. Stillman returned last night from Hot Lake, where they were instrumental in forming what will hereafter be called the "Hot Lake Sanitarium Co." G. W. Tape was elected president, W. M. Pierce vice president and A. D. Stillman, secretary and treasurer. The plans for improvements on the building are not yet entirely complete, but it is estimated that between $15,000 and $20,000 will be expended. Hot water from the lake will be used to heat the building this winter.

Shoot Tomorrow.

There will be a practice shoot tomorrow commencing at 1:30 p. m. on the Pendleton Sportsman's association grounds, south of the city. Everybody is invited to come out and join the boys. F. Waite, who broke 97 out of 100 a few Sundays ago, if the weather is favorable will try to break 100 straight for the Pacific northwest record.

H. J. Stillman will have shells on the grounds and plenty of guns for the use of visitors.

"Old Settlers' Day" Stories.

On "Old Settlers' Day" in the west the assembled pioneers tell again the tales of their early hardships. Some of the stories actually told at these gatherings are to be reproduced in The Youth's Companion, beginning with the issue of September 12. The first of the series, "Stump's Pluck," by J. L. Bates, relates the remarkable achievement of a pioneer who was pinned down by a falling tree while clearing a piece of land. It is a story that shows the kind of stuff of which the old settlers were made.

CZOLGOSZ

WILL HAVE ABLE HELP

Two Eminent Buffalo Lawyers to Defend Him.

HAVE CONSENTED AGAINST ADVICE

Friends importuned Them to Refuse the Court's Appointment, Because it Would Make Them Unpopular.

Buffalo, Sept. 21.—Judges Titus and Loran this morning decided to defend Leon Czolgosz in spite of the pressure of friends. They felt it was their duty to act in this case.

It was pointed out that Czolgosz would not be a welcome client for any lawyer, and that the hatred which he has incurred from all classes by his terrible crime would be just as likely as not to penetrate the ranks of the men of law. The attorney who accepted the case voluntarily would be criticized, if not ostracized, by his friends, and if no one would take it the apostles of anarchy would claim that Czolgosz was given no opportunity to defend himself, that he was murdered under cover of the laws which they already defy.

At last it was decided to agree upon two counselors whose position and age would protect them from condemnation under any condition. Thus it was that the two former justices of the supreme court were selected. Just when the grand jury was filing into its place in Judge Emery's court the letter drawn up by the members of the Bar association was presented.

Request the Court.

It read as follows: Buffalo, Sept. 16, 1901.—To Hon. Edward K. Emery, county judge of Erie county, Buffalo, N. Y. My Dear Sir: It is the request of the trustees of the bar association of this county that I write you this letter with reference to the assignment of counsel for Leon Czolgosz should it become your duty to assign counsel for him, as now seems probable.

"We deem it of the utmost importance that the counsel assigned shall be men of such experience and of such a high sense of their professional obligations that the highest traditions of the profession shall be upheld and that the trial shall be dignified, just and impartial.

Moved by these considerations and with the earnest desire of assisting you in securing counsel for the defense in this case of the character and position which we have indicated, we respectfully suggest that the Hon. Leon L. Lewis and Hon. Robert C. Titus, ex-justices of the supreme court of the state of New York, be assigned as counsel and be requested to act.

This suggestion is made without consultation with the gentlemen, but it is earnestly hoped and confidently believed that they may be persuaded to accept the assignment if this course should meet with your approval. Very respectfully yours,

ADELBERT MOOT, President Erie County Bar Association.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING TODAY.

To Prepare for the State Teachers' Association to Meet Here.

The executive board for the State Teachers' association met today at the office of County Superintendent Nowlin. Three members of the board were present: State Supt. Ackerman, E. B. Conklin and County Supt. Nowlin. The most important business transacted was the preparation of a program for the association, which will convene on November 25, and will last during the first three days of Thanksgiving week.

Among the large number of distinguished institute workers on the program is Miss J. Gillan of Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Gillan is the editor of the "Western Teacher" and is recognized as one of the leading institute leaders in the United States. Others who will take part are: J. A. Churchill of Baker City, Frank Riger, superintendent of the Portland city schools, Rev. Dr. Stephen B. L. Fensholt of Pendleton, and President Hawley of Willamette university. The program is not yet complete. It has been arranged that the county institute will be combined with the state association.

A north-bound freight train on the Great Northern coast line struck a cow and went into a ditch at the foot of Chuskaun mountains.
