"The inhabitants of the city shall be exempt from payment of road taxes, or the assessment of property within the city for road work; provided, that the common council may assess and cause to be collected annually from all property owners an amount of $2 for every $1000 of property assessed to such person for city purposes during the year, and in proportion for a greater or less amount than $1000, and for each male inhabitant of said city between twenty-one and fifty years of age, except those who are a public charge or are exempt from labor, or active firemen, except firemen or other persons by the laws of the state of Oregon exempt from the payment of road or poll taxes; the sum of $2, to be known as the 'street poll tax' and the amount of such tax collected shall be applied to the improvement, construction and repair of the streets in said city, said money so collected to be kept in a separate fund to be known as the 'street fund'; provided, further, that the marshal of the city is authorized to issue subpoenas and for that purpose shall possess the same power and authority and have the same remedy granted by the general laws of the state to the sheriff or tax collector for the collection of delinquent taxes."

The charter provides further: No person is qualified to vote at any election who is not entitled to the privileges of an elector according to the laws of this state, who has not resided in the city for ninety days preceding such election, and who has not paid a street poll tax within the year in which such election is held. "Provided, that all persons who are by this act, or by the laws of the state of Oregon, exempt from the payment of street poll tax, if otherwise qualified, may vote at such elections. The charter provides further: And no person shall be permitted to register for the purpose of voting unless he shall first exhibit to the officer having charge of the registry books satisfactory proof by receipt or otherwise, of the payment of his street poll tax for the year in which the next election is to be held. Now notice is hereby given, that the marshal is hereby directed to proceed to collect from all persons within the city of Pendleton liable for a street poll tax, the sum of $2. By order of the common council. Attest: J. E. BEAM, Recorder. Dated this 24th day of September, 1920.

Pendleton Has Candidates Plenty. Pendleton is strictly in the swim for the governorship; that is to say in its mind's eye. It has two republican candidates, Judge Lowell and W. J. Furlish, and one from the East Oregonian announced that George Hartman is "mentioned" by his friends for the nomination on the democratic ticket. Pendleton evidently believes with the East Oregonian that "it rests with eastern Oregon to take the nomination for governor by merely using sentiment."—The Daily Chronicle.

If all reports about Beresford and Broadhurst's latest farce, "The Wrong Mr. Wright" are true, one city should be named "Lauvaterville" at least during the term of Beresford's stay. From all along the line comes unanimous praise, and as an enjoyable and spirited high class "Frown arsester" Beresford is said to be an immense success.

SOME PENDLETON HORSES

JIM ERWIN'S WESTFIELD COLT WON A $500 PURSE AT SALEM. Cret Simpson's Mack Mack Second in a Race for a $700 Purse.

At Salem Tuesday in the pacing race for two year olds, for a purse of $500, six horses were entered, among them Jim Erwin's colt, Ollie M. First, and James Erwin's Ollie M. two well known Pendleton horses. The others were: L. B. Lindsay's Dr. Luhn, R. Staats' Daigo, T. H. Brents' Miladi, and E. B. Longo's Sambson Lou.

The second heat of the race was finally got a bad start with Miladi running under the wire. At the half mile the colts were widely scattered, and when the homestretch was reached it was evident that Daigo and Miladi would be behind the flag. This turned out to be the case, Ollie M. crossing under the wire first, with Sambson Lou second, Oregon Sunshine third, and Dr. Luhn fourth, while Daigo and Miladi were distanced. The time by quarters was, 39, 1:12, 1:48 1/2 and 2:28, a good mile, considering the abnormally slippery track caused by the Oregon mist.

The Salem Standard says that the man says of the second heat: In the second heat a splendid exhibition of racing was given, when the four colts, after scoring a few times, got away in a bunch, with Ollie M. leading by a neck around the turn, and went flying out the back stretch, leaving a trail giving the Westfield youngster a close run all the way around, with the other two stragglers scattered along behind and taking the mud thrown up by the leaders in their faces. Around the north turn they went and into the home stretch with a rush, and into the clamor of the grandstand and the cheering of the horseman, passed under the wire, with Ollie M. first, Sambson Lou second, Oregon Sunshine third and Dr. Luhn fourth. Time, 38, 1:14 1/2, 1:54, 2:35.

The second heat of Tuesday afternoon, the 2:30 trot, for a purse of $700, brought out eight horses for the contest. They were: L. D. Lutz's Juniper, W. E. S. Oyne's Babe Chaplain, Frazier & McLean's Roy S., J. E. Tanner's Saxaline, Van de Vant's Alamo, J. A. Hartley's Alamo, Cret Simpson's Mack Mack and Hogboom's Duke of Walaista. There was no jockeying, no foolishness, and the horses, after scoring twice, got away in a bunch, spurring around the turn splendidly. The quarter post was made in 39, the half in 1:18 1/2, the three eighths in 1:54 1/2, and the mile in 2:31. The heat caused considerable excitement in the grandstand, and betting was brisk.

In the third heat the trotters got away very nicely, after scoring only a few times, and they made the first quarter in 39, the half in 1:18 1/2, the three eighths in 1:54 1/2, and the mile in 2:29 1/2. Saxaline won the race in three straight heats, with Mack Mack second, Roy S. third, and Juniper fourth. Considering the disagreeable weather, rain with wind in squalls, and the track as slippery as an ice-bid, the trotter did remarkably well. It was a splendid exhibition of the popular sport of horseracing.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

Unknown Man Had Too Much to Say About Holdup. A man who would not give his name was arrested at Antonio Nolte's saloon late Wednesday afternoon, on suspicion of being taken part in the robbery of the "Mass" saloon on Monday night. Two prominent men in town are willing to swear that he is the one who led the "hold up." He was under police surveillance all day yesterday and his boasting talk led to his arrest. He claims that formerly he was a detective, but now a deputy sheriff at Pomeroy. He said yesterday that if it were not out of his jurisdiction that he would have no trouble in catching the robbers.

In answer to a question asked him while the suspect was on the way to the court house, he said: "I wish I had half of the pot." The sum of $57 was found on his person, but nothing that would strengthen the suspicion. Dick Lawrence, roulette dealer at the "Mass," said last night that he heard the suspects' voices accidentally and immediately recognized it as belonging to the large man who had taken a prominent part in the "hold up."

Sheriff Blakeley Returns. Sheriff Blakeley and Glen Bashae returned today from a two day's hunt after the "Mass" robbers. They left here on the morning after the "hold up" was committed and followed the tracks of three men to a place in the north of Barnhart where they became hopelessly confused. After searching for the lost trail for three hours they moved toward Echo and arrived there after dark. The sheriff says that he is sure that the trail they were following was that of three of the robbers. From the direction they took he thought that they were making for the thinly settled district in the southern part of the county. The search is given up and unless they are caught by out side authorities it is probable that the robbers will make good their escape.

GEORGIA MINSTRELS

Presented a Medicoere Performance Before a Good House. The large number of people who went out to the fair last night to see the performance of Richard and Pringle's Georgia minstrels, were deserving of a better entertainment. The show presented a few good features, but more poor ones. Nothing was up to date, and the songs and jokes were of a musty order. The one man's band was an exceedingly poor imitation of Beech and Bower's "Sousa's band."

The redeeming features were: "The Parade of the Black Watch," the quartette songs and the tight rope walking exhibition.

Booker Washington's idea. Booker T. Washington has given out a statement in reference to the assassination of President McKinley, in which he says: "In all sincerity I want to ask: Is Crologos alone guilty? Has not the entire nation had a part in this greatest crime of the century? What is anarchy but defiance of law, and has not the nation reaped what it has been sowing. According to records, 2516 persons have been lynched in the United States during the past 16 years. There are or have been engaged in this atrocity of lynching nearly 125,800 persons." Mr. Washington asks that we check the present tendency all classes unite to bring all criminals to justice, and see that each receives a fair trial, and quote President McKinley's words when he was shot: "I hope he will be treated with fairness."
