GENERAL NEWS.

Ten Boer leaders who have been captured since September 15 have been permanently banished from South Africa.

The centennial celebration of Daniel Webster's graduation from Dartmouth college was observed at Hanover, New Hampshire, Wednesday.

President Roosevelt has announced that he will make Washington and Oregon a visit next year for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with the great Pacific northwest.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt took up her permanent residence in Washington, where as mistress of the White House she occupied apartments there for the first time Wednesday night.

At a conference at Cleveland, Ohio, of Senator Hanna and other republican leaders it was decided to postpone until October 19 the opening of the campaign in Ohio, in order that the 30 day of mourning for President McKinley might be properly observed.

A deed transferring the Great Falls & Canada Railway to the Great Northern has been filed in Cascade county, Montana. The consideration named is $750,000, and the deed is signed by T. T. Gail and J. J. Hill. By the terms of the sale the Great Northern agrees to widen the road to standard gauge by October 30, 1902.

L. Torrance, commander-in-chief of the grand army of the Republic, announced the following staff appointments: Adjutant general, S. H. Lowler, Minneapolis; quartermaster general, Charles Burroughs, Ruthford, N. J.; inspector general, Walfred A. Wetherbee, Boston. Minneapolis will be the headquarters during Judge Torrence's administration.

Chinese are now seeking to evade the restriction act by taking advantage of the transit privilege. They come to San Francisco, it is asserted, and at once depart for Mexico or other foreign ports, only to cross the border back into this country at the first opportunity. Since July 1, 758 Chinese have arrived in San Francisco en route to foreign countries. Of this number 259 were ostensibly bound for Guymas.

Wednesday was "Oregon day" at the Pan-American exposition. The weather was delightful and many Oregonians and former residents of the state were present at the exercises held in the Temple of Music. The program included music and address of welcome by Director General Buchanan and responses by E. L. Simth of Hood River, representing Governor Geer, and addresses by H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian and Frank H. Motter.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

Sidney W. Moss, a well known citizen of Oregon City, died Tuesday.

The Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers is in session this week at The Dalles.

New Jersey capital is behind the scheme now on foot in Portland to build a trolley line westward over the hills to Forest Grove.

Harry Abbott, aged six years, was shot in the left arm with an old pistol in the hands of his elder brother at Salem. The boys were playing soldier with a pistol which was "not loaded."

Norman V. James, aged 23 years, a member of the Salvation Army at The Dalles, was found dead in bed at his room Wednesday afternoon. He was in his usual health when he went to bed.

A Swede named Jonas Karlstrom from Freewater, was captured at Walla Walla, flourishing a bow gun and threatening dire things to the town. Four men carried him to the lockup after his conflict with Officer Andrews.

Yukon mineowners are arranging to take 600 Japanese to Dawson to work the placer diggings during the present winter. A Japanese contractor is now gathering the little brown men together in great haste that they may be taken to Yukon before navigation finally closes.

W. H. Young, a prominent citizen of Haines, Baker county, is missing. He is about 60 years of age and holds office of road supervisor. He is a married man and resided on a farm near Haines. Last Thursday he went to town on foot without saying where he was going and since then nothing has been heard from him.
