FOR THE EXCHANGE FAIR

R. T. Cox returned last night from a thirty mile trip among the farmers along McKay creek road. WAR BETWEEN STOCKMEN

Emmet Cochrane and Herders Fired on and a Fight With Rifles Follows.

It was reported at Heppner, says the Gazette, that a party of outlaws had fired upon Emmet Cochrane and his party in the John Day section, and that the fire was returned, and that two members of the attacking party were wounded. Later, it was stated that one of the men had died from the effects of his wounds. Reliable information proves that these reports were only wild rumors and without foundation. E. F. Hynd, who has just returned to Heppner, from near the scene of the shooting, saw Mr. Cochrane, and gives the following particulars:

On Thursday, the 12th inst., while Mr. Cochrane and his two herders were eating lunch about noon, a party of six or eight persons commenced firing at them. They jumped behind trees and returned the fire. The Winchester cracked lively for a while and many shots were exchanged. Mr. Cochrane's party escaped unhurt. The outlaws got decidedly the worst of it, but whether anybody was hit, it is not definitely known. However, it is known that physicians and surgeons in the John Day country are now doing a good business.

The shooting occurred between Canyon City and Bear Valley, at a point about 15 miles south of Canyon City.

Excursion Train to Walla Walla

Remember, that the train leaves the O. R. & N. depot at Pendleton at 8:15, Sunday morning, September 29, for Walla Walla, that the fare for the round trip is $1.40; that the train will arrive at 10:05 a. m., and leave for Pendleton, at 10:30 p. m.; that Sunday will be a big day at Walla Walla and you cannot afford to miss it. The fruit fair people have arranged a fine program for Sunday night, which will be a jolly, good crowd going from Pendleton.

Bishop Morris Takes Part.

Much interest is being taken by Episcopalians in the coming general convention of the Episcopal church, which will be held next week in San Francisco. It happens according to canonical order, that Bishop B. Wislar Morris will be the preacher at the opening services of the convention. Bishop Tuttle was the preacher at the last convention, and Bishop Whitte of Virginia, who comes next, will not be in attendance, so the duty falls upon the bishop of Oregon. Rev. W. E. Potwine and F. B. Clopton will be in attendance upon the convention from Pendleton.

Magistri Artis Gave Pleasant Dance.

Forty couples were present to indulge in the gaities of the evening. Kirkman's orchestra furnished the music.

A Church Bull.
