THE BILL OF THE PLAY STAGES.
"Sporting Life" at the Frazier on Monday Night.

Walter Santord's melodrama "Sporting Life" was quite satisfactorily produced on Monday night at the Frazier, but as much a fight as the average critic who was cast for that role. Miss Lamson unfortunately has discovered Lamson's knowledge to wear an elegant made gown in striking manner so as to set off charms of femininity possessed by few women. Hence, she poses when she first appears, poses the second time, and poses even when lying dead upon a couch, strangled by the young man Cavanaugh whom she has killed.

Modest Nora Cavanaugh was close to perfection in her delineation of a sweet young girl, heroine of the play. Earl Woodstock, General Molyneux, Jimmy Jiggins, Mr. De Cartoret, Anjou, Clara Tomkins, these were well sustained parts, while the others were acted.

"Sporting Life" is melodrama of a new and rather good sort. To the ladies, it possesses a charm unusual, in that it permits them to witness a prize fight denied to them at other times, and as shown in this piece, perhaps, not as much a fight as the average match which men see in real pugilistic events.

"Sporting Life" reveals the doings of the upper crust in English racing circles, and is really not bad from the standpoint of the playwright.

The correct answer to the charade printed on the dramatic page of last Saturday's Portland Telegram was: first, sea; second, brook; whole, Sea-brook. The first correct solution was sent to the Marquam Grand by Miss Marie E. Fanning, of 449 Sixth street. Miss Fanning may get the tickets for a seat at Friday's performance of "A Moler Craze," by calling at the Marquam Grand box office.

CZOLGOSZ' FATHER LYNCHER
He Was Part of a Lynchers' Jury Twenty-Five Years Ago.
Henry Czolgosz, father of the assassin of President McKinley, had a part in one of the most remarkable murder cases in the history of Michigan. Twenty-five years ago Henry Molitor, an illegitimate son of the crazy King Louis of Wurtemberg, was at the head of a shooting party at Robbers City, on the Huron coast. Through his creature, he bonded the county and township for public improvements and used the proceeds in his own business.

At last, 25 years ago, a jury, so called, of 12 farmers, of which the elder Czolgosz was one, met, decreed his death and steadily creeping up to his store, riddled Molitor and his clerk with a single volley. Nine years ago five of the chief actors were sent to Jackson prison for life. Those who turned state's evidence, among them Czolgosz were not indicted.

Turkey Pays Our Claim.
The Turkish government, on being warned that further delay in the payment of our claim would prove disastrous to them, has at last paid it in full. This brings to mind the fact that delays are dangerous, especially in matters relating to the stomach. It will cure indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulency, insomnia, fever and ague. The genuine must have our private die stamp over the neck of the bottle.

Gambling in Switzerland.
A very large amount of gambling goes on in Switzerland, writes a Geneva correspondent. At Geneva, Lucerne, Bern, Interlaken and various other places licensed gaming tables are permitted, the game of "little horses" being in vogue. Nominally the maximum stake is 5 francs, but a higher stake is never refused. At Geneva there is a licensed baccarat club where very large sums are lost each evening. English and American tourists forming the greater part of the losers. Lausanne possesses a cafe which has a room separately set apart for poker, baccarat and other games of chance, and although in the canton of Vaud public gaming is against the law the police take no notice of this nightly scene of riot.

A Figure Puzzle.
The other day a traveling man provided a puzzle to a merchant. The puzzle is as follows: Take the number of your living brothers. Double this amount. Add it to three. Multiply the result by five. Add to it the number of living sisters. Multiply the result by ten. Add number of deaths of brothers and sisters. Subtract 150 from the result. The right hand figure will be the number of deaths; of deaths the middle figure will be the number of living sisters and the left figure will show the number of living brothers.

"Nerve Waste."
One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreeable contrast to the vast sum of false scolding which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and succinctness.

It is endorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A personal of the book and the application of its principles will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nervous impoverishment."
The book is $1.00 by mail, postpaid. One of the most interesting chapters—chapter 30, on Nerve and Nerve Tonic—has been printed separately as a sample chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp by the publishers, THE PACIFIC PUBLISHING CO., 202 2nd St., San Francisco.

BUILDING IN WALLA WALLA

200 Dwellings Will be the Record for the Year 1901.
Walla Walla, Oct. 1.—Special Correspondence.—Persons living here who are in touch with building matters claim that during the season to end in the early winter no less than 200 dwelling houses will have been built in Walla Walla. The demand for lumber and other materials and for carpenters and joiners and other workmen needed has been very great throughout the year, and the press has not abated to any extent. Building continues and will not end until the storms of winter compel cessation.

"If anyone thinks the old town of Walla Walla is not growing," said a man who represents a big wholesale paint, oil and glass house, "let him ask the commercial travelers who sell without any fuss or feather. Walla Walla, long regarded as slow and conservative, has been growing as, indeed, few towns on the north coast have grown, excepting perhaps during some unnatural boom."

The new houses are going up mostly in the upper town, from where the drainage is downward and above where there are no people living, or not many. Some of them are very pretty. Heretofore, only a few wealthy persons have built any but cottages, but the style of architecture is improving, as could be observed in Pendleton, where people are building better houses each succeeding year.

The spacious campus of Whitman college forms an attractive centerpiece around which are being constructed many comfortable and finely appearing residences.

The total cost of the new houses is estimated at $250,000, a very creditable record for one year in a town no larger than Walla Walla, slightly more than 10,000 population.

Many well informed citizens believe that O. R. Ballou and E. N. Isaacs will construct the street lines for which they have been granted franchises. In the event they do, they will induce more building and the growth of the town will be accelerated. One finds here some confidence that Walla Walla will within twenty years boast 30,000 people. The rate of growth attained during the past ten years, if maintained during two decades to come, would give Walla Walla more than 30,000 people in 1920.
