Eat and Run.

There isn't a man who would be seen running through the street munching a piece of pie. Why not? Because it would mean dyspepsia and stomach trouble? Not at all; but because it wouldn't look well. As a matter of fact many a business man snatches a lunch in such a hurry that he might as well take it on the run. That is one reason for the prevailing "stomach trouble" among men of business.

There is a certain remedy for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The worst cases of dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach have been cured by this medicine. It cures where all other means have failed to cure.

"I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for stomach trouble," writes Clarence Carney, Esq. of Taylorstown, Loudoun Co., Va. "It did me so much good that I didn't take any more. I can eat almost anything now. I am so glad to know that I can eat and run."

before I wrote to you, I was told by a gentleman that he had cured his wife of her stomach trouble by using a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness. They stimulate the liver, and cleanse the system of impurities. They should always be used with "Golden Medical Discovery" when there is need of a laxative.

ADMIRAL DEWEY

REBUKED JUDGE

ADVOCATE LEMLY

The Old Naval Warrior Minced No Words.

RULED UPON AN IMPORTANT MATTER

"We Want Facts," Said the Hero of Manila, "Not Stuff," as Lemly Roled an Editorial.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Admiral Dewey administered a crushing rebuke to Judge Advocate Lemly in the Schley court of inquiry today. It was, perhaps, the incident of the trial up to this time.

Letters between Hodgson and Schley relative to the "damn the Texas" colloquy were read to the court, and Lemly read a lengthy editorial from the New York Sun to which Raynor took objection and to which Dewey took occasion to say:

"We don't want such stuff as that. We want facts."

Raynor said:

"My objection goes still further. I protest against staining the record of this court with such vile calumnies perpetrated upon my client."

The court decided the editorial must not be read.

Washington, Oct. 5.—When the Schley court of inquiry convened this morning, the question of calling Rear-Admiral Sampson as a witness was still unsettled. The general belief was that he would not be summoned. If a subpoena should be issued, it is said, the result would be a doctor's certificate stating that Sampson is unable to appear as a witness.

Lieut. Doyle of the Brooklyn took the stand this morning to correct his testimony. The corrections were unimportant.

The famous "dear Schley" letter was then brought up again and resulted in a demand by Lemly that all papers in Schley's possession relating to the Santiago campaign be brought into court. Schley's attorney replied by saying that all papers of which Schley has any knowledge have been turned in.

Commander Hodgson took the stand and was briskly questioned in vain attempt to make him say as he did in his testimony of yesterday.

The Husband Case Resumed.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The senate sub-committee on military affairs today resumed its investigation of the so-called hemp scandal in which Col. Henry Heistand and other army officers are accused of conspiring to secure control of the Philippine hemp output. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Allen, whose name is included in the list of those alleged to have been interested in the scheme, testified that Heistand's statement to the effect that he (Allen) had been asked to take stock or that the matter had ever been brought to him was entirely untrue. While Maj. Hawks, prosecutor, was examining Heistand during the morning session the latter, in answer to a question, stated Hawks had whispered:

"Who whispered?" exclaimed Hawks, excitedly.

"You," replied Heistand, calmly.

"You lie!" shouted Hawks, shaking his finger at Heistand. Hawks was quickly called to order and the inquiry proceeded.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

Episcopalians Have Several Issues of Importance Before Them.

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—Both houses of the Episcopal convention resumed sessions this morning. A number of minor changes were made in the constitution. Discussion over the proposed change in Article IX to give the bishops authority to stand sponsor for changes in the ritual in their jurisdiction consumed most of the morning. The most important action was the division of the diocese of Massachusetts into two dioceses, necessitating the appointment of another bishop. The convention adjourned for one day, after accepting invitations for an excursion upon the bay. Tomorrow the visiting bishops and clerics will occupy the pulpit of the various churches in the bay region.

AN ANTI-TREATING LAW

Grinnell, Iowa, Passes a Novel Ordinance Against Drinking.

Grinnell, Iowa, Oct. 5.—The city council has just adopted an ordinance which makes it a crime for two or more persons to congregate and buy each other drinks. It is held that "treating" promotes drunkenness. The exact wording of the ordinance is as follows: "That it shall be unlawful for two or more persons to congregate within the limits of the city of Grinnell, on any street or vacant or unoccupied property; or on or about any building, railroad grounds or stockyards, in or about any barn, stable or corn crib, storeroom, elevator or depot, or in any other place, for the purpose of drinking beer or any kind of intoxicating liquor, or for the purpose of creating a disturbance or doing or committing any disorderly act. It is hoped this law will do away with much of the drinking here. Grinnell has always been a strong prohibition town, and when Josiah E. Grinnell founded the place he endeavored to provide in the deeds that no saloons should be sold for saloon purposes. Iowa college, located here, is also a powerful factor for temperance, and the city council is merely acting in line with public opinion.

Bulls Seared at a Gato.

Paris, Oct. 5.—A Bayonne despatch to the Figaro describes a bull fight which occurred there last Sunday, in which an automobile replaced the horns of the pander. The novelty drew an enormous crowd.

Seven bulls in succession turned tail and fled at the sight of the automobile. Henri Deutsch, of the Paris Aero club, who established the prize for a steerable balloon, in which M. Santos Demont, the Brazilian aeronaut, made such a valiant attempt to win, furnished the automobile and presided over the fight.

Workman Would Kill Baron Rothschild.

Paris, Oct. 5.—Baron Edmund Rothschild, of the famous banking family, narrowly escaped death at the hands of a workman at Neuilly yesterday. The baron was riding in an auto when a workman hurled a heavy spade at him, crying: "Death to the Bourgeois!" The missile missed the baron but wrecked the auto.

UNION COUNTY TAX CASES

Judge Eakin Decides in Favor of Land Owners.

Yesterday Judge Eakin of the circuit court, says the Union Republican, handed down his decision in the cases relating to the sales of real estate here for bid in by the county of delinquent taxes. There were two injunction cases, McConnell vs. Deering et al; and two mandamus cases, Finn vs. Deering and Cochran vs. Deering. The mandamus cases sought to compel the sheriff to issue deeds to the land bid in at the tax sale, while the injunction cases were brought to restrain the issuing of such deeds and to test the legality of the law under which the sheriff was made. Demurs were filed in each of the several cases and the ruling of the court is upon these demurs, the one decision covering all the cases.

Three of the guests read papers bearing directly upon the subject of the Pan-American exposition: "Exhibits That Might Have Been," by Mrs. Carline; "The Incubator Babies and the Niagara Falls," by Mrs. Fee, and "The Pan-American Exposition, as Seen by One of Pendleton's Citizens," by Mrs. Moorhouse. They were ably interpreted by the members of the club. When the roll was called, each member responded with the mention of some current event. Light refreshments were served.

LOW INTRODUCES CROKER.

As the Paramount Issue in New York Municipal Election.

Seth Low, in his first speech accepting the anti-Tammany nomination for mayor, forced Richard Croker to the center of the political stage as his chief campaign issue.

Mr. Low defined the Tammany machine as an English resident who was using New York as a "private gold mine" for the enrichment of himself and his political henchmen.

This attack on Croker was the feature of Mr. Low's speech and is taken as an indication that the anti-Tammany candidate will make every effort to keep Croker's personality to the front throughout the campaign. His denunciation of the Wisconsin chief was warmly applauded by the Citizens' Union committee which called to notify him of his nomination for mayor.

Referring to Croker, Mr. Low said: "Happily, this year the nomination you tender me is one of several, every one of which is based on the same fundamental conceptions of what is necessary to secure good city administration, and all of which reflect a general and common purpose to wrest the control of the city from those who permit one man to govern it from his English home, like a second George III., and to make millions for himself and his friends out of his control of it, as though this imperial city of New York were his private gold mine. A system of government which permits this will permit anything, and it is not strange that in the train of such things as these every imaginable evil that had government can produce has befallen the city. In contradistinction to the government we have, that is conducted primarily to make political leaders rich, the government we should strive to set up is one whose single and only purpose shall be to promote the public interest and to make the conditions of life more tolerable for the multitudes to whom the name of New York, and not Waukegan, conveys the idea of home."
