caster into the ring is really an important element in the coming fight. It is another demand on the part of Portland for offices of prominence. McCammant is a personal friend of S. A. Lowell, yet has never been a close political associate of the Umatilla county ex-judge. He is also a friend of Mr. Furnish. Just what changes McCammant's candidacy will make in the balance of forces between eastern and western Oregon cannot now be stated accurately. However, it is certain it will result in strengthening eastern Oregon's

Portland and Tacoma Managers Wanted Too Much.

The proposed game of base ball between the professional teams from Portland and Tacoma is off. The managers sent letters here to make arrangements to play an exhibition game on Monday, October 21. They wanted a $100 guarantee and mad same demand upon Baker Cit; and other towns along the line. number of baseball enthusiasts met and decided to put up the amount demanded, with the provision that the teams should receive only the amount of their hotel bills in case the game should not be played on account of rain. A telegram of accept-ance was sent to Portland and it was thought that everything was settled. There are many remedies for troubles, but few cure. Two or three days afterwards a com munication was received from the baseball managers asking that the guarantee be paid even though rain should prevent the game. The local management refused to comply with the demand and the game is off. Baker City did likewise. Dates had been arranged as far as

Denver and then the teams intended to return by way of California. Now that Baker City and Pendleton are out of the schedule. Sait Lake will probably be the first stop after the regular season closes
